

The Grapevine

“Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous.

Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

Joshua 1:9

This precious verse has recently taken on special meaning for my family. As we prepare for a cross-country move and all the challenges that come with it, I have found myself repeatedly whispering these words over my children each night: “Be strong and courageous. The Lord is with us.”

There is a lot of excitement in a new beginning, but there can also be uncertainty. New schools. New friends. A new home. A new church family. It can feel intimidating for anyone, but especially for young children.

But remember, when God spoke these words to Joshua, He didn’t promise an easy road. He promised him something infinitely more valuable: His presence.

Maybe you have something new in front of you, too. Perhaps it’s the start of a new school year, a career change, or a difficult decision. Whatever lies ahead on the path before you, hear these words: The God who was faithful to Joshua is the same God who has promised to be with us.

So the words I have been whispering over my children each night, I want to speak over you as well: Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid. The Lord your God is with you wherever you go.

And as my family begins this new chapter, we are grateful that “wherever you go” is bringing us to Cove Spring.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Josh
