Weekly Principal Updates & News

Wow! Time is going fast. Our summer break is almost over. Soon it will be time to get back to the thing we love- educating kids! So, I encourage all of you to take this last week to rest and relax. Take this time to really focus on your mental, emotional and physical selves. Find those things that make you happy and go with it! It is no secret that our job can be extremely tough. We will have challenges that we will need to deal with, both personal and professional. But I truly believe that I have inherited one of the best groups of teachers and staff members. Therefore, we will work together to make sure that we bring our best to our students every day. One thing that I truly believe is that parents send us their very best. It is our job to take their very best and make them our very best. Working together, staying focused on our primary goals, remaining professional and giving your best each and every day, will undoubtedly lead us to having a successful year where our students will continue to excel and grow!

As we prepare to start our new school year, AIS week will be our 1st week of coming together and beginning our work. The AIS schedule will be sent out later this week so that you can begin planning. Also, you may begin working in your rooms. Feel free to come into the school any day this week during our regular school hours of 9am-3pm. I will also be hosting my "Cupcakes & Chats" on Sunday, July 31 from 9am-2pm, so the school will be open on that day as well. You will also have one last opportunity to set up your room on August 7, from 9am- 2pm. You are allowed one paid day for room set up, so please make sure to see Ms. Schum to ensure that your time is documented.

Last thing! Due to high COVID numbers in Jefferson County, JCPS now requires that anyone entering the building must wear a mask. Again, please make sure that you have a mask when you enter the building.

I am so excited to be here at the Cougar's den and I can't wait to meet you. See you soon!
