

STUDENT ADMISSIONS & ENROLLMENT STEPS

BECOMING A CAA CARDINAL STUDENT

Providing An Equitable Collegiate Experience

If a deadline is missed, students are encouraged to enroll for the next term since the College of Adaptive Arts is a lifelong learning model.

1

CHECK OUT THE CAA WEBSITE

Explore the CAA website for information about our course offerings, tuition payment options, donation opportunities, as well as upcoming events and community partnerships.

2

TAKE A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT TOUR

Sign up for a tour through the tours page on CAA's website. You can attend either in person or over Zoom. The tour must be attended by both the student and the caregiver. You'll meet with some of our staff and hear from our CAA students why they love being a CAA Cardinal.

3

SUBMIT THE NEW STUDENT APPLICATION FORM

Accept the email invitation and complete the demographic information to finish setting up your CAA account. Completing this form will activate your CAA registration portal.

4

APPROVE STUDENT HANDBOOK AND LIABILITY DOCS

Documents will be delivered via DocuSign. Download, read in full, and keep handy for reference. Acknowledgement signatures via DocuSign is required to access the course registration system. The timely approval of these documents will ensure your eligibility to register for classes.

5

REGISTER TO RECEIVE WEEKLY EMAIL UPDATES

Please register to receive our weekly email updates. Important dates, news, announcements, as well as upcoming events are communicated every Monday in this important email.

6

COURSE REGISTRATION

Complete class selections through CAA's registration portal. New students will be limited to 3 classes your first term, including a mandatory Welcome to CAA class. During your first term our Student Services team will reach out and schedule a Student Intake meeting with you to discuss your education goals and vision for attending CAA.

CONGRATULATIONS! WELCOME TO THE CAA CARDINAL TEAM!
