Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The author of the Book of Ecclesiastes writes, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven..."

(Ecc.3:1). Well, here we are entering into a season! Or perhaps I should say that we are entering into a season of seasons! Autumn has finally arrived and the leaves have been falling. As I write this it is blustery and windy outside, a sneak preview of what is to come! Halloween will arrive in a few days with its goblins and ghouls, and carved pumpkins. On November 1st we will remember the saints who've gone before us. Then on November 3rd, if we haven't already done so, we will make our way to a polling place and carry out our spiritual and civic duty by voting. Later in November we'll welcome Saint Andrew's and Good Shepherd to First English as we give thanks for God's bounteous blessings. Christ the King Sunday will prepare us to begin the season of Advent with its blue paraments that remind us of our waiting for the arrival of Immanuel – God with us. The days will be packed with holiday shopping and baking, card writing and visiting, all the favorite family traditions, and all the usual stress and expectations.

Amid so many activities and demands on our time, perhaps we might consider another season. It need not be a long season; in fact, it can be as brief as you like. The season I am suggesting is a season of quiet prayer and meditation each day. A time to pause and consider... how it is with your soul? What are the joys and struggles that you live with daily, in this season of seasons? Where is God as you rush from one event to the next? How might you carve out some time to tend to your soul? How might you honor the reason for the season?!

I know what you are likely thinking – “Pastor, I’m just too busy, especially now that you’ve reminded me of how busy these next couple of months are going to be. I don’t have time for prayer and meditation.” My answer, dear friend, is to echo the author of Ecclesiastes, “For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.”

May the season(s) ahead be a blessing and a joy!
Pastor Mary

We are in need of some worship helpers for the service. There is a sign-up sheet on the narthex table.

A time of fellowship will follow the service. If you would like to bring bars or cookies, there is a sign-up sheet in the narthex for that as well.

A PRAYER FOR ADVENT

Lord Jesus, Master of both the light and the darkness, send your Holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas.

We who have so much to do seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day.

We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us.

We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of your kingdom.

We whose hearts are heavy seek the joy of your presence.

We are your people,

walking in darkness, yet seeking the light.

To you we say,

‘Come Lord Jesus!’ Amen.

-- Henri J.M. Nouwen

The First Sunday of Advent is November 29.

ADVENT/CHRISTMAS DEVOTION BOOKS

will be available in the narthex and church office.

Comfort and Joy – Devotions for Advent & Christmas provides daily devotions for the first Sunday of Advent (Nov. 29) through Epiphany (Jan. 6), 2027.

Jesus comes to us at Christmas – and in each day – and he will come again. May his presence and promise send us out to share the good news, bringing comfort and joy to all the world!

*O tidings of comfort and joy,
comfort and joy;*

O tidings of comfort and joy.

-- “God rest ye merry, gentlemen”

PRAYING BEFORE AND AFTER VOTING

BEFORE:

Pray for wisdom, love of neighbor and the common good, asking the Holy Spirit to guide your discernment and to protect those who administer elections.

Sample Prayer: Everlasting God, source of all wisdom, as I prepare to cast my ballot, guide my mind and heart by your Spirit. Help me to consider the needs of my neighbors, especially those who are most vulnerable, and to seek the common good with humility and love, following the way of Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord. Amen.

AFTER:

Pray with gratitude for the privilege of participating, for patience as every vote is counted, and for those elected and not elected, that our nation may “grow toward peace among ourselves and be a blessing to other nations of the earth”.

Sample Prayer: O God, I thank you for the opportunity to participate in this election. I entrust the results, the candidates, the poll workers and all who are affected to your care; calm division, protect those who serve, and use my small act of voting as one piece of your work for justice, mercy and peace in our community, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

HONORING FAITHFUL SERVICE

Each year on Veterans Day (Nov. 11), we pause to give thanks for the men and women who have served our country with courage, sacrifice and devotion. Their willingness to defend freedom reminds us that service often comes with great cost.

As Christians, we are called to honor those who serve and to pray for veterans, active-duty military members and their families. We also remember that true peace comes from God, who is our refuge and strength.

May this day lead us to gratitude, prayer and renewed commitment to serve others with humility, courage and love.

The Will of God never takes you to where

The Grace of God will not protect you.

Reports

Financial Reports: Nothing to report.

Pastor's Report: Remember that Sunday Oct 25th is reformation Sunday. Wear Red.

Remember to return your time and talent sheets. All Saints Sunday is November 1st—contact the office with loved ones whose names you would like included.

Parish Ed/Youth –

1. Amy's updating email and phone lists to reach older kids in the congregation.
2. The new curriculum is working well. There is an abundance of information teachers can use. Students are using their bibles which was a goal. For younger kids there is an abundance of options. This requires some prep time for the teacher to decide what is best to use for the class they have. Overall feedback from teachers has included that the curriculum has inspired good class conversation.
3. Mission Sundays need to be communicated better to the congregation. Both what the mission is and the outcome of that mission.
4. They are currently working on a one week mission, followed by gifts for our parishioners who are home bound or in a nursing home. We also talked about having church members with kids volunteering to visit and deliver these gifts. After that the next mission discussed was warm hearts warm parts, where hats, mittens and socks will be collected.

5. Talked about the pen pal program between kids in the congregation and home or facility bound congregants was discussed.

6. June 26th -July 2nd is the youth conference . We will be asking for funds from the fair stand to sponsor kids. Our kids will be fundraising as well.

Discussion for Church Council action–The classroom situation is distracting because of the sound level. Some sound panels that would help sound proof between confirmation and primary would be greatly appreciated. (it's for the temporary wall). The property committee will look into it.

Technology–Time and talent sheet digital version of it has been responded to by 17 entries. These will be printed out when the deadline ends and given to the time and talent/stewardship committee.

Worship & Music – Nothing to report.

Stewardship – Wrote out thank you's for the after service treats. Technology will meet with stewardship to look over the online time and talent with stewardship and discuss Realm groups.

Church & Society –

Topics discussed:

1. A thank you was expressed for Lori Hayne and the FELC volunteers for their work on the upcoming community supper.

2. There was concern about the lack of publicity for this year's Empty Bowls fund raiser.

3. Lynne confirmed that County Clerk Kim Trueblood will speak about the election process at next Sunday's Coffee & Conversation. There was concern about competing with the Fair Stand meeting.

4. Appreciation was expressed for the informative C & C presentation by ShyAnn Egwalata about the Christian work she and others are doing in Luweero Uganda through Abide Tribe Ministries. Jim sent her a thank you email and received a thank you to FELC for its support in response. Lynne put Abide Tribe information in the bulletin.

5. Bill provided some background on the work being done by Safe Passages to get immigrants and refugees in Marathon County to court appearances held in distant cities.

Decisions made:

1. Lynne will continue to provide voting information in the bulletin in our Souls to the Polls efforts to encourage civic action.

2. Jim will keep copies of Wired Word materials as he gets them for potential C&C use as needed. We will continue to work on getting about a speaker a month.

3. Bill will proceed in his investigation for a speaker regarding some information on immigrants and refugees for Coffee & Conversation with a focus on Safe Passages.

Property – Gutter cleaning should be here next week. Floors have been finished in the fellowship hall and bulb replacement will begin in the sanctuary–hoping to have done before Thanksgiving Service. Also will be washing the glass portion when the lights are changed out at the same time and a crew has been organized for that. The cleaning service is not doing a good job. They are not vacuuming, emptying trash cans, etc. They are not responding to emails or calls at all. We are stopping payment and will be looking for another option.

Wage & Policy –Members have been selected that have agreed to be on this committee. They will do evaluations on paid employees and evaluate the budget. Scott Kufhal, Cindy Hermel, Sharon Hunter, Deb Kufhal, Nina Dittmar will be the committee members.

KaLynn motions to approve this committee and its members. Liz Seconds. Motion passes.

Fair Stand – Distributed a Total of $22,000. Detailed distributions will be presented in the Annual Report.

Treasure Sale – Nothing to report.

Old Business:

Constitution and Bylaws Update- Have it available electronically and some hard copies. Need to have a quorum first (10% of confirmed members) and then can approve the second time. We will look into exactly how it needs to be done and we will discuss at next meeting.

Membership List- Realm does has a congregation management feature and information was transferred to shepherd staff over to Realm. (birthdate, baptism, wedding...). Cindy and Sharon currently working on it.
Directory- Cindy working on it.
Office Printer- New price sent over is $9000. The book finisher added would be a total of about $9700 total. Will confirm that is how much more the finisher for sure as it seems like a good deal. Fax option can be added later if needed. Color can be limited by having to enter a code.

New Business:

NAOMI Request- Asking us to support taking refugees to their hearings, or sending them money. Will look over the materials passed out at council and discuss next meeting as to how to proceed.

Number Of Council Members- How did we settle on how many we have. In our constitution it says 9. Just wondering with as hard as it is to get members, do we look at this number? Will look into it.

Nomination Committee- Karen Briggs, Deb Kuhfal, Jim Kraft, KaLynn Pempek, Michael Klapperich will serve on this committee. Sharon motions to approve the committee members. Nicholas seconds. Motion passes.
Employee Evaluations- Discussed above with wage and policy.

Endowment Disbursement: Endowment distribution recommendations were reported for the 2nd quarter of 2026.
