From Pastor Mary

FIRST ENGLISH'S
"LITTLE FREE PANTRY" IS READY TO BE STOCKED!

Thank you to Cole Oestreich for building the pantry, Neil Juedes for installing the unit on our property, and Sue Juedes for giving it a coat of paint!

Any member of the congregation is welcome to add items to the pantry. If you have not done this before, here are some tips, including suggestions for what to put in the pantry, stocking the pantry in extreme weather, and other considerations.

What to put in the pantry - A major challenge when filling a Little Free Pantry is that only nonperishable food items can be used, which rules out anything needing refrigeration. Here are some examples of items that work great:

Canned or pouched meats: Chicken, ham, Spam, beef cubes, tuna, salmon, sardines, pre-cooked bacon, Homel Compleats.

Other proteins: Canned stew, ravioli, spaghetti and meatballs or sausage gravy; peanut butter; nuts and seeds such as almonds, walnuts, cashews, peanuts or sunflower seeds.

Fruits and vegetables: Canned fruits, vegetables, corn, baked beans, sweet potatoes or yams.

Grain products: Pasta, rice, corn meal, crackers, stuffing mix tortillas, taco shells.

Soups: Chili; canned meat, bean or vegetable soup; boxed or pouched soup kits; ramen noodles.

Boxed kits: Macaroni and cheese, Hamburger Helper or Tuna Helper mixes, pasta noodles, rice and red bean mixes, scalloped or au gratin potato kits, pasta salad mix.

Breakfast items: Dry cereal, cream of wheat, prepackaged instant oatmeal, boxed or canned fruit juice, fruit cups, pop tarts, pancake mix, syrup in a plastic bottle.

Other shelf-stable foods: Dried beans, instant mashed potatoes, pasta sauce in cans or plastic jars, pouched or plastic containers of baby food.

Healthy snack foods: Granola or protein bars, trail mix, peanuts or other nuts, P3 protein packs, yogurt pouches, pudding snack cups, jerky.

Other: Coffee, tea, bottled water, energy drinks such as Gatorade.

Again, always make sure that all items are “shelf stable.” If unsure, check for the words “no refrigeration needed” or “refrigerate after opening.”

I’m excited to see how the “Free Little Pantry” provides one more way that we at First English are reaching out to the community and continuing our commitment to providing for the hungry!

“I was hungry and you fed me. I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink.” Matt 25:35a

Peace,
Pastor Mary

THE MITTEN TREE

will be up in the narthex beginning Sunday, October 11 to receive your gifts of scarves, mittens and hats for needy children and adults in the Wausau area.

Whether you knit, crochet, or simply purchase them, your gifts will bring warmth to someone who needs it this winter. All sizes are needed: children's and adult men/women. Simply bring them to the church and hang them on the tree. Donations will be distributed right after Thanksgiving. Thank you for your gifts of love!

To all members who serve on a committee:
Our next committee night will be Tuesday, Oct. 6, 6:30 p.m. We gather in Fellowship Hall and then proceed to our respective committees.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY REMEMBRANCE

Invitation to submit names for commemoration

As we prepare to observe All Saints Sunday, we invite you to share the names of loved ones who have passed away and whom you wish to be remembered during our special service. This is an opportunity for us to honor and celebrate the lives of those who have inspired us and shaped our faith.

Please submit the names you would like included in our All Saints Sunday remembrance by Tuesday, October 27. Names can be sent to the church office via email, phone, or dropped off in person. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out for assistance.

Let us come together in gratitude and remembrance, lifting up those who have gone before us in prayer and thanksgiving.

AS MIDTERM ELECTIONS

approach there will be lots of efforts to "inform" us about voting. The Church in Society Committee recommends a couple of safe and reliable sites for you to get voter information.

myvote.wi.gov

Brought to you by the State of Wisconsin Elections Commission. Lots of good voting process information, easily accessible.

my.lwv.org/wisconsin

The League of Women Voters provides information on candidates and ballot issues.

VOTE411.org/wisconsin

League of Women Voters also provides information on the voting process, but it is not as easily searchable as the State of WI site.

---

During this Thanksgiving season, we invite you to gather as a family of faith to lift our hearts in gratitude. Join us for a special worship service featuring beautiful music from our combined church choirs and bell ensembles, along with a meaningful reminder of God's abundant blessings. As part of our celebration, we will collect non-perishable food items for a First Fruits Offering to benefit Maggie's Pantry. This joint service with Saint Andrew, Good Shepherd, and First English will be held on Tuesday, November 24th at 6:30 PM at First English Lutheran Church. Come with a thankful heart — and, if you are able, an item for the pantry — as we worship and give thanks together.

FAITH IS THE KEY

In April of 1521, a monk named Martin Luther was put on trial by the Roman Catholic Church. He had been severely critical of the pope, questioning the validity of some of the sacraments and denouncing church corruption.

At this trial, Luther was convicted of heresy. Anyone caught following him was to be condemned. But Luther and his followers were not crushed — they went on to lead the Protestant Reformation, the movement we commemorate today. We can be grateful that Luther took a stand for what he believed in and worked tirelessly to bring the word of God to common people, so that they could develop deeper faith in Jesus Christ.

Faith was the key to Luther. In his own study and translation of the Bible, he discovered that faith is essential to an everlasting relationship with God. “We are saved by the grace of God, through faith in Jesus Christ,” he proclaimed. Faith is the attitude that enables us to hang on to Christ, according to Luther; it is the way we gain access to the saving grace of God. Faith is best defined as “trust,” he said; it is a willingness to rely on Jesus through all the challenges of life.

Think about transforming the "nursery" into a proper meeting area with tables.

LOOKING AHEAD:

I will be on vacation planned for Sept 29 – Oct 6 (Pastor Karoline from St. Stephens will be on call)

Pat Seivert will lead a Worship Service of the Word on Oct. 1 & 4 while I am on vacation. Joint Thanksgiving Service will be held on the TUESDAY before Thanksgiving Nov. 24th

Parish Ed/Youth – Getting ready to figure out the National Youth Gathering in Mn. Amy met with some folks from Good Shepard and St. Andrew's. Students seemed excited about the new curriculum. This Sunday the 3rd graders will be receiving their Bibles. Classrooms have been revamped and are looking great.

Technology– Ready with an electronic version of the Time and Talent form. Packets will be sent through the mail and then a QR code will also be sent as an alternate way of completing the form. (only need to do it one of the ways). It will be discussed at Sunday service as well.

Church in Society –

Topics discussed:

1. Lynne provided an update on First English's contributions to the Head Start open house at Grant School and expressed her appreciation for that and the helpers at the open house.

2. Pastor Mary's informative C&C discussion of the deaf culture and language.

3. The perpetual need for getting "new blood" involved in our and other church committees.

4. Coffee & Conversation will skip Labor Day weekend. Two speakers are scheduled for upcoming Sundays. Possibilities for future topics and speakers included: Bridge Street Mission, League of Women Voters, voting information, police, immigrants in Wausau, McLit, sex trafficking, and Wired Word materials.

Decisions made:

3. Lynne will check on the League of Women Voters for possible information useful to the congregation.

4. Bill will check on a possible C&C speaker about the status of immigrants and refugees in the Wausau area.

Property – Changing over 250 lightbulbs to LED. Working on getting quotes for redoing the floor in fellowship hall. Hired snowplow for the winter. May have to look at having someone hired to snowplow as we don't have enough volunteers to maintain it.

Wage & Policy – Nothing to report.

Old Business:

Constitution Update-Will look at next council meeting.

would only need 1 instead of our current 2. Once we have a price we will discuss/decide.

New Business:

Bell Choir Director-Discussed not having a bell choir for now as we do not have a director and will be short 2 members and see if anyone shows interest in directing and restarting it.

New Hymn Accompaniment and Liturgy Music Books-Approved Dan purchasing new books as the current ones are falling apart.

Outdoor Pantry-It is ready to go. Will be open year-round and donations for colder weather will be things that won't freeze.

A COLORFUL LESSON

We could learn a lot from crayons: Some are sharp, some are pretty, some are dull, some have weird names, and all are different colors ... but they all exist very nicely together in the same box.
