

Sally's Social Story

Sometimes people yell

Sometimes people yell.

Yelling is loud, and it might make me scared

Sometimes people yell when they are angry.

But not all yelling is angry.

Yelling can be ok

Sometimes people yell to get my attention
when they are not near me

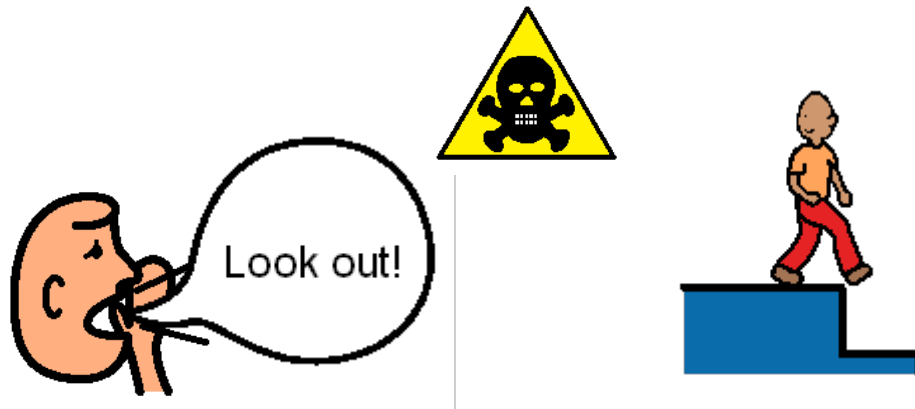

It's ok! They want to talk to me

They are not angry at me.

Sometimes people yell to warn me that something is dangerous

It's ok. They want to help me

They are not angry at me.

Sometimes people even yell when they are very happy or excited

It's ok. They want to have fun

They are not angry at me.

I can tell what type of yell it is by listening carefully to the words the person says.

I can look to see if they have:

An angry face.

A happy face

Or a worried face

Sometimes yelling is ok. I don't have to be scared.

I don't need to swear or yell back.

It's ok to say, "Please don't yell". Then they will stop.

Or I can go somewhere quiet.
