It is important to understand that fabricating the snowmen starts in early July and ends in mid November!
From construction to artistry to installation it is a true endeavor to accomplish this 5 month task, so GO Collaborative is looking for more volunteers. If you're interested in joining us please contact us by email, phone or in person.

SNOWMEN

OF STROUDSBURG

The year without a Santa Claus is a 1974 stop-motion Christmas TV special from Rankin/Bass Production, based on the 1956 book by Phyllis McGinley.

The plot centers on a Santa Claus who, feeling unappreciated, decides to take a holiday, and the efforts of Mrs. Claus to prove to him that children still believe in him by sending two elves and a reindeer to find proof of the Christmas spirit.

The special is well-known for its catchy songs and memorable characters, particularly the arguing brothers Snow Miser and Heat Miser. This terrific and artistic snowman is on display at Camelback resort.
