

Apologetics in the Church Discussion Guide

1. Why is asking hard questions so difficult? Are you a safe person to ask questions?
2. In what ways might an encouragement to 'never doubt' be helpful, and in what ways might it be unhelpful?
3. Mark 9:24 says "Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief." Are you able to share with others your personal journey with this verse? How can we honor this scripture in the church setting?
4. Assuming those around you have seasons of doubt, what can you do to welcome healthy dialog and discussion? (Reference Colossians 4:6 as needed)
5. Share your thoughts and ideas on the speaker's suggestion: "Nurture hope that God knows the answers."
6. What are practical steps the church can take to be prepared for the questions and doubts that will inevitably come from our Sunday Schools/Youth?
