

1) The presentation gave a caution about carelessly using labels for people. Why is it important to use correct definitions and correct labels when discussing people?

2) The presentation discussed a fundamental difference between how Biblical Christians view the Bible and how Liberal Christians view the Bible. What's the difference and what are the implications?

3) What are a few of the other major differences between biblical Christianity and Liberal Christianity?

4) If Liberal Christianity on the whole is in steep decline, why does understanding what they believe matter?

5) The presentation made the case that the optimal way to avoid the errors of Liberal Christianity is not simply to forbid change. What, then, was the proposed optimal way? Do you agree? Why or why not?
