

1) The presentation gave examples where both Jesus and Paul “gave an answer” (1 Peter 3:15) without using logical argumentation. Can you think of other examples in the Bible or in your own life?

2) What does it mean to try and get to the heart of the question and the heart of the questioner? How do we do this?

3) The presentation gave 5 components of how a person comes to believe what they believe. Which of these 5 components most resonated with you?

4) The presentation used 1 Cor. 4:1-7 to claim that unbelievers are not just confused or uninformed but that they are actually deceived. How does this shape how we do apologetics?

5) What does 2 Cor. 10:1-5 mean when it says that the “weapons of our warfare are not carnal?” What sorts of weapons do Christians have?
