Transubstantiation

Many of you must have heard of the countless incidents by which people have desecrated and have shown irreverence to the most Sacred Body of Christ. These stem from a lack of understanding of the sacred mystery of the Eucharist, and thus, a total lack of faith in the holiest food given to us by Jesus Christ. As we celebrate Corpus Christi, it would be worthwhile then to say something about what happens when the Eucharist is celebrated. It all boils down to the mystery called Transubstantiation.

Transubstantiation is the change of the whole substance of bread into the Body of Christ; and the whole substance of wine into the substance of the Blood of Christ. While the outward appearances of the bread and wine remain, the word of the Lord himself at the Last Supper and said by the priest during consecration makes this mystery possible. It essentially deepens one's faith in the power of the word of Jesus, which is now said through his ordained priests, that this miracle happens.

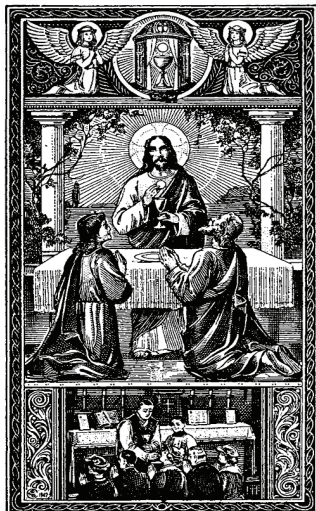

For us believers, when the bell rings as the bread and wine now turn into Christ's Body and Blood are raised by the priest, we raise our eyes too, to look in deep adoration at the Eucharistic presence of Christ, offering Himself as spiritual food. Our senses, may see, feel, and taste the bread and wine, but our faith leads us to say: "My Lord and my God."

The Body and Blood of Christ

Today we celebrate the feast day of the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. At the Last Supper, Jesus knew that He was going to leave His friends. So He turned the bread into His Body and the wine into His Blood - even though they still looked like bread and wine - and told the Apostles to do the same.

Jesus gave the Apostles, who were the first priests, the power to change bread and wine into His Body and Blood in the Mass. Now at every Mass Jesus comes to us on the altar, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity!

Of course we can't see any change happen when the priest consecrates the bread and wine, but we know that God can do things without us understanding them. He loves us so much that He wants to come to us hidden in Holy Communion. Now it is up to us to love Him back with our whole hearts!

which came down from Heaven."

Saint William of York June 8

VERY SOON AFTER HIS DEATH MIRACLES STARTED HAPPENING AT THE TOMB OF ST. WILLIAM. WE CAN LEARN FROM HIS STORY THAT EVEN IF WE DON'T SEEM LIKE WE ARE SUCCESSFUL IN THIS LIFE WE CAN STILL BE HOLY AND PLEASE GOD. WE CAN ALSO LEARN NOT TO BE SPITEFUL TO THOSE THAT HURT US.

Gospel Match-up
