Shepherd's Voice®

Heavenly Wedding Feast

In the Gospel parable, the King invited certain people to the wedding feast. Unfortunately, they all rejected the invitation. The wedding feast is the image of salvation that God offers to all. It is a wedding feast because it is a celebration of love, an invitation to a loving union of God, and it promises abundant blessings and eternal joy in the glory of heaven.

God wants all people to be saved. But he can only invite. He cannot force or compel us to come. We need to accept his invitation freely. We have to love him freely.

What then is the invitation of God? It is to keep saying yes to his salvific invitation. Saying yes to God means rejecting sin and living a life of obedience to His will, turning away from selfishness and pride, and learning to be generous in sharing oneself to others in humble service. It means putting into practice the commandment of love.

The celebration of the mass is called "heaven on earth" it is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet. Before communion, we hear the words: this is the lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb. This is not only an invitation to receive Christ in holy communion. It is an invitation to the eternal wedding feast in heaven.

God wants everybody to be saved. Therefore, let us always say yes to his invitation; and continually transform our lives, clothing ourselves with the garment of love so that we can eventually join the Lord at his heavenly banquet.

THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

Our Lady of the Rosary

October is dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary, and our parish traditionally closes the month with a Living Rosary. This year's Living Rosary will follow the 5 p.m. Saturday Mass, with fellowship following.

Please join us and volunteer to lead a prayer during the community rosary. We hope each prayer will be voiced by a different parishioner as a prayer candle is lit. Charlotte Recarte is coordinating sign-ups.

Fellowship after the rosary is potluck, family-style, share and serve yourself! Please join us for this very special evening!

On All Soul's Day, our parish recognizes those who have passed into eternal afterlife. We recognize each person who has died within the last year with a candle bearing that person's name- the candle is lit and placed at the front of the church at the start of mass by that person's family. At the end of mass, the candle will go home with the family of the deceased.

Names of all deceased parishioners that family members would like to have remembered are also being collected on offering envelopes prepared for this. The envelopes will be available at next weekend's masses. To submit look for the special drop box at the back of the church. The deadline for submitting those envelopes is October 27.

The names of the deceased will be read at each family's preferred Mass, and a complete list will be displayed at the front of the church during the All Souls Masses on Saturday, October 31, and Sunday, November 1.

Please help us remember those who have gone to God but remain with us in our hearts.

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

Imagine that you live in a great kingdom with a king and queen and many other great people. You hear that the king's son is going to get married and there will be a great wedding feast. All the lords and ladies and rich land owners are invited. On the day of the wedding the servants go out to call the guests to the wedding, but all those important people refuse to go! They say they are too busy with other things, and can't be bothered to go!

Now imagine that you are one of the children in a poor family that lives down a back street. Suddenly you hear people calling out that the king has invited your family to the feast! What excitement! Everybody puts on their best clothes and goes to the castle. In a little while the king comes in and you see him pointing to a man who isn't dressed neatly, and hasn't washed his face or brushed his hair. He sends the man out of the hall.

THE KING INVITES YOU TO HIS SON'S WEDDING!

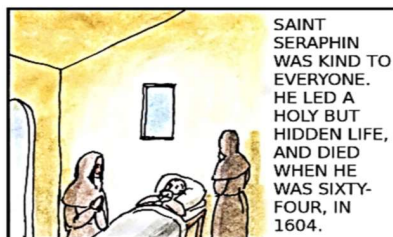

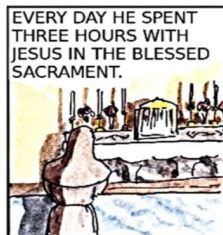

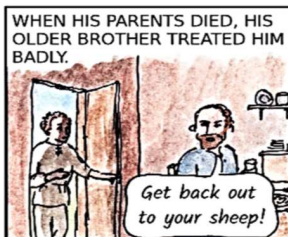

This is the story that Jesus told about the kingdom of Heaven.

Many important people have been invited, but they have decided that they were too busy with other things. But the King has invited us too! We should rejoice and "dress" our souls by being the best we can be! Don't be a half-hearted Christian!

Answer to front page: Everyone's invited! Answers to True or False: 1. false 2. true 3. true 4. false 5. true 6. true 7. true

Saint Seraphin October 12

SAINT SERAPHIN NEVER DID ANYTHING GREAT OR IMPORTANT, BUT HE DID EVERYTHING WITH GREAT LOVE FOR GOD. HE TRIED TO BE LIKE SAINT FRANCIS IN HIS ZEAL AND LOVE OF THE POOR. LIKE SAINT SERAPHIN, WE CAN IMITATE THE SAINTS AND DO EVERY LITTLE THING OUT OF LOVE OF GOD.

The Kids' Bulletin

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 11th, 2026

The king sent his servants to call all the people in the street to his son's wedding. Follow the road on the map from the castle's courtyard all the way to the farmland. The people in the houses next to the road you pass are invited to the wedding.

You can colour in the houses if you like.
Who was invited to the feast?

True or False: Who is Invited to the Wedding?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus compares the kingdom of Heaven to a king giving a wedding feast for his son. What happened in the story? See if you know which of these are true statements and which are false:

1. The first time the servants went out to call those who were invited, all the guests came. True or false?
2. When the king sent out the second group of servants, some people didn't come, but went off to their farms and businesses. True or false?
3. Some people mistreated and even killed the servants. True or false?
4. The king decided that nobody else was worthy to come to his son's wedding. True or false?
5. The king decided to send his servants out into the streets to call everyone to come to the wedding. True or false?
6. When the servants called the people in the streets, they all came and filled the banquet hall. True or false?
7. When the king came in to look at his guests and found one that wasn't dressed for the wedding, he had him thrown out of the place. True or false?
