Parable of the Talents

The parable of the talents in the Gospel reminds us of the unannounced coming of the Lord —and his coming is a time of accounting and judgement. We are the servants. The talents are the gifts and blessings God has entrusted to all of us— time, intelligence, capacity to love, temporal goods, family and many more. The journey of the master signifies our life here on earth. The sudden return of the master stands for our death. The accounting is our judgement. The eternal banquet is heaven.

Like the 3 servants, we too are entrusted with talents proportionate to the capacity of each of us; and the master hoped that we would use it and make it prosper until his return. Some invested it, used it, developed it and gained profit out of their talents and gifts. But there are also some who just buried their talents.

I believe God has entrusted us with many blessings. In fact, we are blessed more than we can imagine. Let us count them, use them, grow them, instead of burying them. So that anytime the Lord returns and we are asked to render an account of our stewardship, we will also hear him say... "well done, my good and faithful servant. Come, share your master's joy.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE STATE OF HAWAII
E HIKI MAI KOU AUPUNI

Aloha Pastors and Parish Leaders,

On Sunday, November 22, 2026, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King), the Catholic Church celebrates the Global Celebration of Young People, an annual opportunity for the Church throughout the world to recognize, celebrate, and pray for our youth and young adults.

This celebration reminds us that young people are not simply the future of the Church—they are a vital part of the Church today! Their faith, enthusiasm, gifts, and perspectives enrich our parish communities, and we are all called to accompany, encourage, and support them on their journey of faith.

The Office of Evangelization and Catechesis invites all parishes throughout the Diocese of Honolulu to participate in this celebration in simple but meaningful ways.

Here are a few suggestions for your parish:

- Pray for young people. Include a special intention for youth and young adults in the Prayer of the Faithful at weekend Masses. Here is a suggested intention:

For all youth and young adults, especially those in our parish community: that they may know Christ's love, discover their God-given gifts, and find in the Church a welcoming home where they are encouraged to grow in faith and share their gifts with others, we pray to the Lord.

- Recognize and celebrate them. Take a moment to acknowledge the young people in your parish and thank them for the gifts they bring to our Church.
- Remember young adults in all walks of life. Recognize and reach out to young adults who are attending college, working, raising families, discerning their vocation, or seeking a deeper connection with the Church.
- Invite their participation. Encourage young people to take an active role in parish life through liturgical ministries, hospitality, service, and other opportunities to share their gifts.
- Reach out personally. Invite a young person who may not be actively involved in parish life to reconnect with your community. Sometimes a simple, personal invitation can make all the difference!

Use Your Talents!

God has given each of us talents, or things that we're good at. In today's parable, Jesus tells about a master who gave three of his servants large amounts of money, which were also called talents. Two of the men used the talents and earned more, but one just hid his talent and didn't use it at all. When the master returned he rewarded the men who had used theirs, but punished the man who hadn't.

Some people have many talents and can do lots of good things. Other people can only do a few things well. But no matter what you can do, God wants you to do your best.

What are some things you're good at? What are some things you are not very good at? Rather than think about the things we can't do, we should be happy to do the things we can, and do them for God! Some people are good at drawing or writing. They can make people happy and teach people about God by drawing pictures or writing stories or letters. Some people are good at talking to people and making friends. They can show God's love and make people happy. Some people have a talent of being patient with others, and show Jesus' love that way. What are your talents? How can you use them to bring people closer to God?

Answers to front page: The first man had ten, the second had four and the third man one.
Middle: 4, 1. Bottom: 3, 5.
