To be completed by Nominator 1: Reasons for Recommendation

How long have you known the nominee?

Nominator 1: approximately 12 years

In what capacity?

Nominator 1: I am a CAO colleague at another Regional District.

Please provide information on why you are recommending this individual and how they fulfill the expertise outlined in the nomination requirements:

Nominator 1:

AI has a great depth of knowledge both technically and practically. His ability to interpret legislation is unparalleled and his way of practically applying the framework we all work under is extremely efficient.

AI has built a strong network around the province and is always willing to have good conversations. His experience with First Nations has been of particular benefit for many within the Regional District circle.

AI has guided qathet Regional District through numerous challenges and his strategic approach to these challenges has allowed his organization to thrive.

Describe the nominee's skills and talents that you feel would benefit the LGMA Board:

Nominator 1:

Overall, AI brings a common sense approach to local government and the challenging issues we all face as LGMA members. I think his experience is a considerable benefit to the LGMA Board and our members and his continued presence on the board should be seen as an asset.

To be completed by Nominator 2: Reasons for Recommendation

How long have you known the nominee?

Nominator 2: 11 years

In what capacity?

Nominator 2: I first met AI at an LGMA conference when I was the Manager of Communications for the FVRD. Now, I regularly work with AI as a fellow Regional District CAO.

Please provide information on why you are recommending this individual and how they fulfill the expertise outlined in the nomination requirements:

Nominator 2:

AI brings a wealth of local government experience and a sophisticated understanding of legislation. He is someone I regularly turn to for insight on issues.

AI brings added value through his professional experience in other provinces and associations. This broader beyond-BC perspective has the potential to introduce innovative thinking and fresh approaches to LGMA initiatives.

I believe that strong regional district representation within LGMA remains essential, given the distinct mandates and operational realities that differentiate regional districts from municipalities. AI understands these nuances and would be a credible, informed voice at the LGMA table.

Describe the nominee's skills and talents that you feel would benefit the LGMA Board:

Nominator 2: AI is excellent at building strong relationships with colleagues and a strong advocate for local government. AI doesn't shy away from discussions and follows through on his commitments. LGMA would be well served to have him on the Board.

Why are you interested in serving on the LGMA Board?

I am interested in serving on the board through my learned experiences and my academic/educational experiences. I believe I have the assets to assist in moving the LGMA forward. I enjoy local government and I want to see future local government employees have valuable and safe experiences and careers. What better way than through the LGMA.

Please highlight your local government experience, particularly your human resources expertise (attach a resume if relevant):

Resume attached.

Describe areas of expertise and contributions you feel you can make to the LGMA as a Board Director:

I am a certified local government manager through the Society of Local Government Managers. I am a former member, former Board Director and Past President of the LGAA. I also served as a non-elected official on the Standing Committee for Local Governance with the AUMA.

Other relevant volunteer experience / commitments:

Board Director for the Hivernent Metis Cultural Society. Coached minor hockey from Pee Wee up to Junior B. Coached a provincial championship. Played on two provincial championship and one Western Canada championship senior AA hockey teams. Former Elks member. Co hosted AVICC annual AGM and convention. Volunteer as a scrutineer at AVICC. Co-chaired CAO Forum.
