Labor Day

NOVEMBER 26
Thanksgiving Day

North to Alaska was the topic of discussion this spring! June 28th we found an RV leaving Ohio, riding inside we found my brother Wilson & Mabel and their family. My parents, Harvey & Rachel, and my nephew Anthony Reiff. Soldotna Alaska was to be their destination. The many miles were shortened (somewhat) by stopping in to socialize with their many friends they have, scattered between Ohio & Canada & Alaska. July 9th they arrived in Soldotna. July 21 they started the lengthy journey back home, taking a different route, with more friends to visit. Which reminds me of the quote - A journey is best measured in friends, rather than in miles - August 4 they arrived back home. Reality at home was pretty hard to adjust to after 5 weeks living on the road! We are excited to hear more of their adventures, see their souvenirs, taste their salmon, and simply be together again.

Life is busy, life is good, and God cares about every little detail. We had a very wet spring, but crops all got planted and off to a good growing start. Currently we are experiencing lower than normal rainfall which has put us in drought like conditions. Mom's garden is doing great. The flowers are all blooming beautifully, and 3 of my teenage nieces are having a delightful time making bouquets to sell at the store. My younger sis is giving them ideas on how to make bouquets. I decided the other day, you know, I CAN make a bouquet to! I went into Mom's, grabbed the flower snippers, walked into the center of the flower garden, all the while my brain is filled with a vision of a beautiful bouquet. My 8 year old niece is happily dancing at my side, chattering with ideas of how you supposed to start a bouquet. I turned a complete circle, noticing each and every flower variety, and the vision in my head of the beautiful bouquet completely vanished!! So I turned around and went home, without a bouquet. As I went past Country Fabrics on my way home, I was reminded that all my bouquets i make come in the form of fabrics & patterns!

One thing mom was most excited about being back home, was her garden. She is having fun bringing fresh cut flower bouquets to the store daily. Need a bouquet for a friend, or even for yourself, as long as there is no frost, we will have bouquets to sell. Every flower blooms differently, every story unfolds differently, both are beautiful in their own time.

At Country Fabrics we are thankful for all your support. Having isles & shelves to straighten is a reminder that someone else likes fabric & sewing as much as we do. We are prepping for our annual fabric tent sale, September 15-19. We are excited to have Curtis from Ultimate Chairs with us on the 15 & 16, to help you find the perfect Made In The USA office chairs. Katy from Janome is coming to help you demo Janome sewing machines, 17-18-19. Katy enjoys the sewing process, from start to finish. The tent will be filled (maybe even overflowing) with lots of great fabric bargains! Hope to see you then.

"I don't sew because I have time. I sew because it gives me time - time to think, breathe, and just be."

Stay rooted peony and be ready to unfurl your layers.
Your destiny is to inspire us to enjoy the moment and embrace:
"All the worlds a stage, And all the men and women merely players."

Stay rooted lilac and embrace your lofty reach.
Branching out high above, your scent wafts to all nearby.
Butterfly, bee, and biophilic bipeds, making a lasting impact on each.

Stay rooted hydrangea and be able to adapt.
You have freedom to be a different color.
What we feed ourselves, changes ourselves, we are not trapped.

Stay rooted rose bush and grow strong.
Show us your strength in stem, thorn, and beauty.
A good reminder that pruning back can actually help us along.

Stay rooted daisy, in the garden of my mind.
Let me rooted, take bloom where I'm planted.
So, on the sunny days I'll feel free to sway with the flow, relax, and unwind.

STAR TRAILS

The only thing more romantic than shooting stars might be a quilt that celebrates them! The Star Trails pattern includes two size options as well as two piecing options. Choose between a quick strip piecing technique so the pieced rows come together in a jiffy; or choose the scrappy, foundation pieced method to make a truly one-of-a-kind quilt. This quilt is fat quarter and Jelly Roll friendly but also includes information on using yardage or scraps. Joanne has lots of tips to share about cutting, pressing, and design layout options. Make a wish with your favorite fat quarters or scraps and stitch up this beautiful quilt to create a sparkling addition to your home.

THE BLIND MAN AND THE ELEPHANT

It was six men of Indostan
To learning much inclined,
Who went to see the Elephant
(Though all of them were blind),
That each by observation
Might satisfy his mind.
The First approached the Elephant,
And happening to fall
Against his broad and sturdy side,
At once began to bawl:
"God bless me! but the Elephant
Is very like a wall!"
The Second, feeling of the tusk,
Cried, "Ho! What have we here?
So very round and smooth and sharp?
To me 'tis mighty clear
This wonder of an Elephant
Is very like a spear!"

The Third approached the animal,
And happening to take
The squirming trunk within his hands,
Thus boldly up and spake:
"I see," quoth he, "the Elephant
Is very like a snake!"
The Fourth reached out an eager hand,
And felt about the knee.
"What most this wondrous beast is like
Is mighty plain," quoth he;
'Tis clear enough the Elephant
Is very like a tree!"
The Fifth who chanced to touch the ear,
Said: "E'en the blindest man
Can tell what this resembles most;
Deny the fact who can,
This marvel of an Elephant
Is very like a fan!"

The Sixth no sooner had begun
About the beast to grope,
Than, seizing on the swinging tail
That fell within his scope,
"I see," quoth he, "the Elephant
Is very like a rope!"
And so these men of Indostan
Disputed loud and long,
Each in his own opinion
Exceeding stiff and strong,
Though each was partly in the right
And all were in the wrong!
So oft in theologic wars
The disputants, I ween,
Rail on in utter ignorance
Of what each other mean,
And prate about an Elephant
Not one of them has seen!
