

CATHEDRAL CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

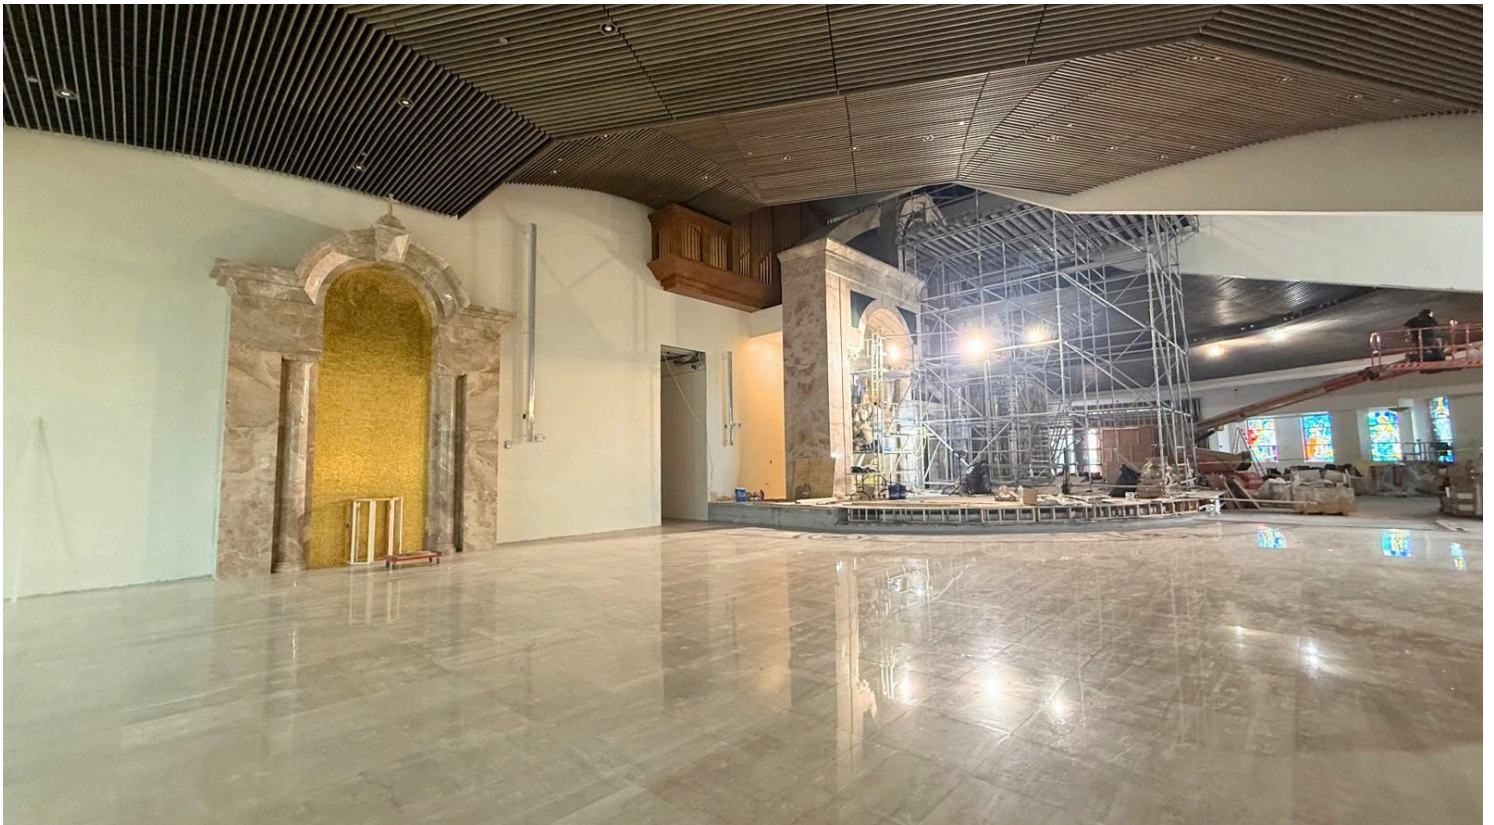

- The gaps in the bell tower are being filled, inside and out
- The hurricane glass for the rose windows is being installed
- Saint Matthew, Saint Mark, Saint Luke and Saint John stained glass windows were delivered and will be installed
- A team of Italians are here installing the mosaics on the reredos
- Our Lady of Guadalupe and Saint Mark mosaic shrines have been completed
- The toilets and interior doors are being installed
- The barreled ceilings for the sanctuary arrives next week
- The marble flooring on the south side of the cathedral has been completed

Installing the scene of the three kings.

The mosaic tiles that will be laid.

The marble flooring completed on the south side of the Cathedral.

Shrine with mosaic of Saint Mark.

Shrine with mosaic of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

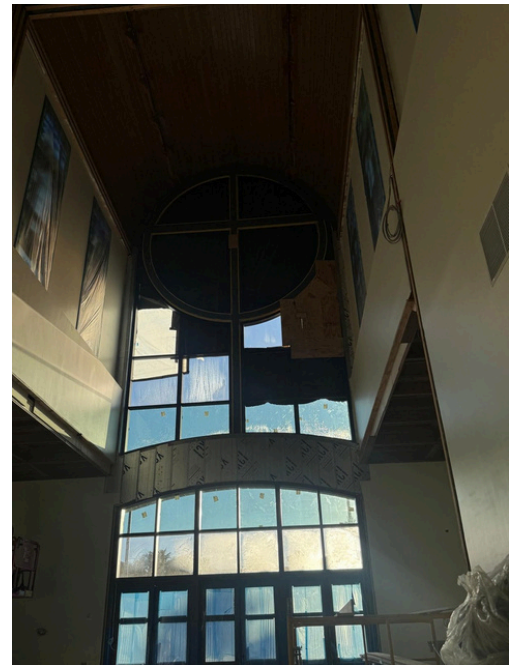

The formed foundation where the travertine patio will be laid.

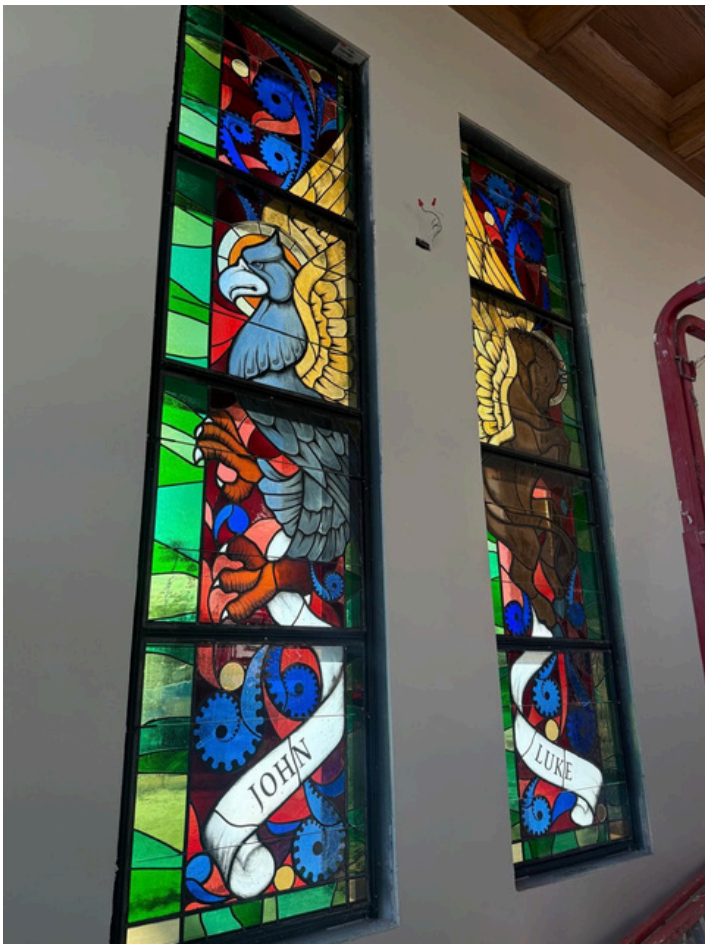

Filling in the gaps in the bell tower.

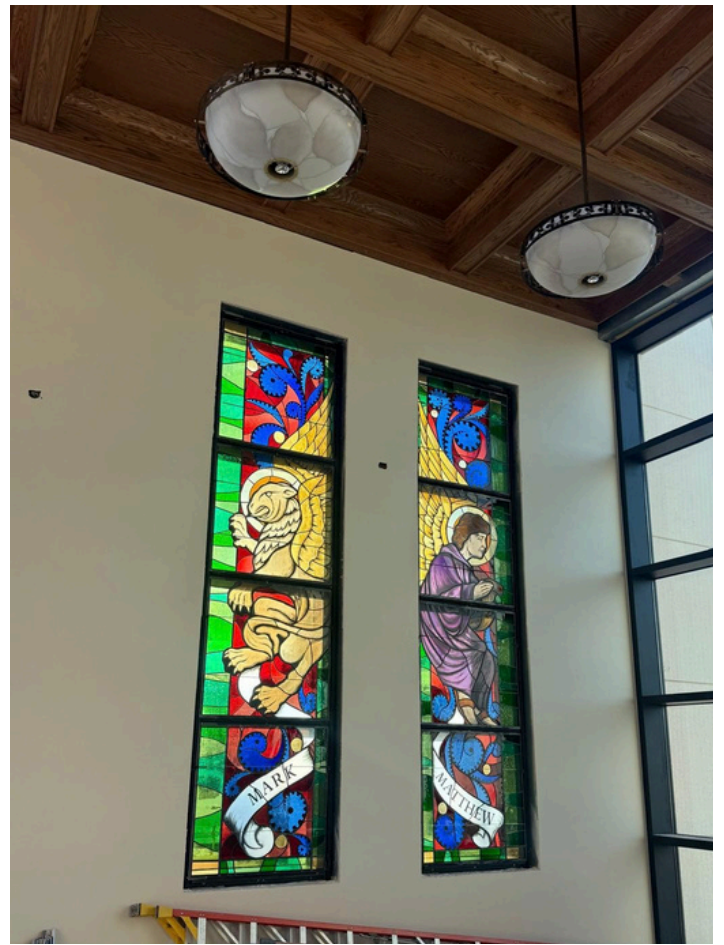

The scene of the Epiphany mosaic that is on the reredos.

The start of the installation of the hurricane windows.

Saint John and Saint Luke stained glass windows.

Saint Mark and Saint Matthew stained glass windows.

Shrine where Saint Joseph will sit.

Shrine where the Blessed Mother will sit.