

The Book of Daniel – Week 7 – September 13, 2026
“Enduring Faithfulness”
Daniel 6

1. In the message, Pastor Todd said "Daniel didn't wait for his faith to be challenged to find out if his faith was the priority." (Daniel 6:10) What do you think Daniel's regular habits of prayer and seeking God had to do with his ability to remain faithful when the pressure came? What does that look like for us?
2. Jesus says that following him means we should "deny ourselves, take up our cross daily, and follow" him (Luke 9:23). What are some of the everyday desires, priorities, or shortcuts that can compete with following Jesus? Where do you find it hardest to deny yourself?
3. In the message, we heard: "Today we're making decisions about what our faith will be strong enough to face tomorrow." What are some situations where you could imagine your faith being pressured or compromised—not necessarily in a dramatic way, but through your work, family, relationships, entertainment, finances, or other parts of everyday life?
4. Daniel had practices that helped keep his relationship with God at the center of his life: prayer, worship, and seeking God regularly. What are some practices or commitments that have helped you grow in your faith? Is there one you sense God inviting you to begin, strengthen, or return to?
5. Daniel trusted God even when faithfulness meant going into the lions' den, and God met him there. Where do you need to trust God right now, even though faithfulness may not mean that your circumstances will immediately change? How does the grace of Jesus give you hope in that situation?
