Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Aldhelm's,

We hope you are ok wherever you are. We are delighted to be in touch with you through this newsletter. We extend a warm welcome to all visitors and thank you for joining us in celebrating the Lord's love for us in the Holy Eucharist. There are no strangers here, just new friends you have not yet met!

In our first reading, the Lord God through His prophet Isaiah gives us examples of how we are to allow the light of God to shine through us. "Share your bread with the hungry, sheltering the oppressed and the homeless; clothing the naked when you see them, and not turning your back on your own. Then light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday" (58:7,10). The refrain for today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps.112), reminds us, "The just man is a light in the darkness to the upright." St. Paul, in the second reading, tells us that our proclamation of Faith will carry the Spirit and His power when we rely on the power and wisdom of God. Using two simple metaphors of salt and the light of a city on a mountaintop in today's Gospel, Jesus outlines the role of Christians in this world. As a symbol of purity, salt was the common ingredient in sacrifices offered to God by Jews and pagans. In the ancient world, salt was the commonest of all the preservatives used to prevent the putrefaction of meat, fish, and fruits in pickles. Since Salt lends flavour to food items, it was also used to season and preserve food. A light has always been something which is meant to be seen. A lamp or light is a guide to make clear the way. A light serves also as a warning (e.g., red traffic lights which tell us to halt when there is danger ahead. Finally, light, particularly the sun's, gives warmth and heat. These are ordinary objects in so many ways, but they can be used for extraordinary, powerful and life changing purposes - how does our ordinary self change the life of others around us ?

Welcome Back! We welcome back Father Thomas from his holiday and hope he is well rested. His installation as Provincial Superior will be during Mass celebrated by Bishop Bosco on Friday 13th February and a separate email will follow with the details with a sign up so we can confirm numbers for the Mass and reception afterwards.

Mass Time Change. Please note - Mass on Monday 9th February is at 9 am not 10 am
