There will be no fistfights in heaven

Native American writer Sherman Alexie wrote a compelling book of short stories arguing against the absurdity of racial stereotypes: The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven. The title suggests irreconcilable forces that carry their grievances all the way to eternity. Alexie was just having fun at the expense of the classic standbys: the dynamic duo of red man and white man in ever-uneasy cultural proximity. Theologically speaking, of course, the image doesn't wash. The very definition of Christian heaven is that of a state of relentless reconciliation. There are no fistfights in heaven, so we are well-advised to settle our differences here.

This is a good reason to pray for a long life, because many of us have a fair amount of scores to settle and enemies to reconcile with. We are very far from answering the appeal that Saint Paul made to the Philippians: to be "of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing." Paul summed up the job of unity by urging the community to "have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus." We won't have to worry about reconciling with every sundry subset of society if we simply focus on reconciling ourselves to the mind of Christ.

Be reconciled to the future

Often we worry that our past sins impede our future progress toward this goal of union with Christ. The prophet Ezekiel dispensed with that fear by telling the exiled Israelites emphatically to forget the past and its mistakes. Our present direction and future choices are the only things for which we are accountable.

That being said, it's good to keep in mind that all the virtuous deeds we may have deposited into our moral account in a younger, more idealistic phase will be worthless if we have since abandoned those ways in favor of making a buck at the expense of others. That cannot be said too much - or at least, the prophets felt the need to say it regularly: What we did is not as important as what we're doing now. Who we were is not as crucial as who we choose to be henceforth. Forget yesterday; what's on the agenda for today and tomorrow? If we broke every commandment 10 times over, the decisions we make today will have more weight in eternity than the sum of our years so far.

Do we believe that? This is Kingdom thinking, not worldly judgment. We live in a generation that carries a portable resume wherever we go. Our past choices follow us from the cradle to the grave in medical records, academic transcripts, driving citations, and credit reports. If we were born of the wrong parents, there's no escaping that. If we went to the wrong kindergarten or to an inferior prep school, the best we can do is lie about it ever after. We're constantly tempted to edit our histories to complement our present ambitions.

That was the strategy of the nefarious society of George Orwell's 1984, with its slogan: "He who controls the past, controls the future." And if we buy into worldly thinking, the focus of our life's energies remains on the past, tinkering with it, feeding it, brooding over it, and justifying it. Yet Kingdom thinking invites us to step out of the past altogether, leave the old person behind, and embrace the new wine and new wineskins of today's possibilities. If the Kingdom had a slogan, it might be: "The one who chooses wisely today, chooses wisely for eternity."

Two children, two answers

Behind the parable of the two sons lies a family deep into conflict. If ever two children were set up to duke it out all the way to heaven, it's this pair: the one who clings to salvation history vs. the one who casts himself on the present saving hour. The one who says "yes" to the father's summons to work in the vineyard relies on his past "yes" to fulfill all further obligation. He's already signaled he's "in." Perhaps he's counting on his baptism, his whole resume of sacraments, parochial schooling, money in the offering basket, and proper behaviors overall to see him through. Why should he labor in the vineyard today when it's clear that he's a faithful son?

The other son, meanwhile, says no. He's made other plans and has had his eye on a different goal. He's been heading in another direction entirely. But in the end he winds up at the father's side with pruning shears in hand. He reconsidered his priorities and options and decided that being with his father is more important than anything else he meant to do today.

Now if we put the past actions of these two sons in the scales and weighed them, the son who says yes appears to be the faithful son. Overall he has more credits to his side and more evidence to make his case. But in fact it's the son who says no and does yes on this particular day who is the faithful son. Because today is the day of the father's asking, and today's answer is the answer upon which the children are judged.

The present is prologue

Our saying, "The past is prologue," comes from Shakespeare's The Tempest, but like so much of Shakespeare, it's quoted as if it were scripture even when it's quite contradictory in spirit. In the reign of God, the only prologue to the future is the present - "today" in Luke, "the hour" in John, or simply "now" most often in Matthew and Paul. That is good news for the sinner and a challenge for those of us who feel we've got a pretty good spiritual resume so far. Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the Kingdom not because they collected taxes and customers in the past but because of their present choices. That makes today the most important day of our lives, and one to take very seriously.

MASS INTENTIONS

Offering Mass for a special Intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. It is usually considered that special graces are obtained for whom the Mass is said. Masses are offered for many reasons: for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or in honor of a birthday or anniversary. If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, go to the Parish Office to get on the schedule. Cards are then given to you so that you can mail them to whomever you choose to so they may also participate in the Mass. The stipend or offering given, ($10 or more) signifies the sacrificial nature of giving of something of yourself to associate more intimately with Christ who offers himself in the Eucharist.

4TH ANNUAL "COME AS SAINT" COSTUME NIGHT

This is our Fourth annual "Come as a Saint" costume night. The children pick a Saint, do a little research and make their costumes (with some parenting help). Each one shares a short story of their Saint, we share the history of "soul cakes" and invite the kids to remember when they are out for Halloween it's not all about the treat ... and to not forget to offer prayers for those families as they go door to door. The kids learn what All Saints Day and All Souls Day is really about and they are encouraged to share those saintly costumes when they attend their school party and go trick or treating this year.

While putting their focus on our faith and traditions they are evangelizing to others who inquire about those unique costumes. We will enjoy a great evening of pizza, soul cakes, and the movie CoCo. Hopefully, Saint Marys, Georgia will have a few more Saints and Angels out there this Halloween. Sign up Today!

Our ministry works to share our faith and Gods love through events such as our children's dinner & a movie night with a message, our quarterly adults movie night fellowship nights, delivery of birthday cakes monthly to all our senior homes in Camden County, and so much more within our parish.

News from the Music Ministry

Thank you to all the many parishioners who have taken the time to show their appreciation to the choir for their wonderful addition to the music program. It is most appreciated during our early days as a group. We are slowly adding new members. Please do not be shy about joining. We welcome anyone with a passion to sing. Our members range from 15 to 75 in age. Practice is at 9 am every Sunday in the church. If we find that there are many that would join that need an alternate time of practice, that can be discussed and arranged. Music for the upcoming seasons of Advent and Christmas will soon be added to our practice schedule. If you would like to join for the season you would be welcome. The need for cantors at both masses still remains. I hear those wonderful voices in the congregation! Consider volunteering some of your time to the music ministry. The choir will be sponsoring the donut social on Sunday October 15th. We hope to see you all there!

Sample Daily Itinerary

Day 1, Mon, Jun 24: Depart for Warsaw

Make your way to your local airport, where you will board your overnight flight(s) to Warsaw. Your meals will be served on board.

Day 2, Tue, Jun 25: Arrive Warsaw

Upon arrival, make your way to the baggage claim area and collect your luggage. You will be greeted by your tour guide and/or driver. Following check-in at your hotel, your pilgrimage will officially begin with Mass. Following Mass, enjoy a delicious dinner and have the opportunity to explore the city of Warsaw before retiring for a restful overnight.

Day 3, Wed, Jun 26: Warsaw

Your day will begin with breakfast followed by Mass at St. James Church, iconic for its tower and square base. This church is where Helena Kowalska prayed extensively upon entering Warsaw. Also, it is where she confessed all that burdened her soul, and asked for the advice of Rev. James Dabrowski, which eventually resulted in the Saint entering the convent. Following this prayerful morning, your day of sightseeing begins. Your group will explore the Old Town, comprised of beautiful maze-like cobblestone streets and picturesque architecture that are symbols of Poland's successful rebuild following its destruction during World War II. Some of the sites will include the Market Square (the center of the city filled with restaurants, cafes and shops), the Barbican, defense-like structures that have been rebuilt following World War II, and the Warsaw Ghetto monument that commemorates the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising of 1943 during World War II. You will also take in the Lazienki Park, a beautifully landscaped park, the Chopin Statue (a large bronze statue of musician, Frederic Chopin), and the Royal Castle (the official residence of the Polish monarchs). In the afternoon, visit the Stanislaw Kostka Church and view a special exhibit dedicated to Fr. Jerzy Popieluszko. This priest was a great personality of the Catholic Church and killed by communists in 1984. In 1987, Saint John Paul II visited here to pray in front of Fr. Popieluszko's tomb. Your tour of Warsaw will conclude by returning to the hotel for a delicious meal, followed by an overnight at your hotel.

Day 4, Thu, Jun 27: Warsaw - Niepokalanow - Swinice Warckie - Czestochowa

This morning, you will enjoy breakfast followed by a transfer to Niepokalanow. This Franciscan Monastery is in the community of Teresin, and was founded by martyr, St. Maximilian Kolbe. This remarkable saint was arrested by the Nazis and died in Auschwitz, giving his life for the life of another prisoner. Next, visit the village of Swinice Warckie and visit the church of St. Casimir. This historically rich parish is the site of baptism for St. Faustina, and where she received her first Confession and first Holy Communion. Additionally, she and her family attended Sunday Mass and other services at this parish. After visiting this simple, yet elegant church, we will continue to Czestochowa where you will check-in to your hotel, enjoy a magnificent dinner, and a restful overnight.

Day 5, Fri, Jun 28: Czestochowa - Glogowiec - Basilica of Our Lady of Lichen - Czestochowa

This morning, after breakfast transfer to Glogowiec, the birthplace of Saint Faustina and the home where she grew up. After lunch we will continue to the Basilica of Our Lady of Lichen. The construction was funded by pilgrims' donations and it is one of the tallest, largest churches in the world. Return to Czestochowa for dinner and overnight.

Day 6, Sat, Jun 29: Czestochowa - Wadowice - Krakow

Today, you will awake in the home of the grandest pilgrimage shrine of Poland since the 14th century! You will begin your day with breakfast and Mass at Jasna Gora Monastery. This hill-top monastery is home to the beloved icon of the Black Madonna. Additionally, Saint John Paul II is said to have made frequent visits to this monastery throughout his life. Tradition tells us that this icon was painted by Luke the Evangelist, discovered by St. Helen, and later enshrined. While here, you will have the opportunity to venerate not only the Holy Icon, but also many other priceless treasures that are contained within.

Following your prayerful visit to the Chapel of the Black Madonna, you will continue on to Wadowice, the birthplace of Karol Wojtyla (Saint John Paul II). While in the small city of Wadowice, you will have the opportunity to visit the church where this beloved Saint was baptized, and attended Mass as a child. Continue on to Krakow where you will enjoy dinner at a local restaurant before resting for the night.

Day 7, Sun, Jun 30: Krakow - Zakopane - Krakow

After breakfast, you will drive through the mountains to the breathtaking, yet small and remote village of Zakopane. Take a cable car ride to the nearby mountaintop. At the top, you will truly experience God's magnificent glory when you look out at the magnificent panoramic view. Following the many photos captured atop the mountain, head to the Jaszczorowka Chapel. This architecturally distinct chapel was visited many times by the young, Karol Wojtyla (Saint John Paul II). As a young boy, Karol Wojtyla often used the walking paths surrounding the Jaszczorowka Chapel for prayer and reflection. After you experience this beautiful site that assisted in Saint John Paul II's holy journey, you will continue your tour to the colorful Krupowki Street. While on this street, you will have the opportunity to do some shopping at the local bazaar before returning to Krakow. Enjoy a beautiful dinner and an optional stroll through the old city before retiring for the evening.

Day 8, Mon, Jul 01: Krakow - Auschwitz - Krakow

After breakfast, you will explore Krakow's Market Square as the sound of the silver trumpet from St. Mary's Tower fills the air. The captivating beauty of this square is largely due to the fact that it has remained unchanged for almost 700 years. It contains a number of buildings that hold important historic value such as, the Town Hall Tower, the Cloth Hall, and the Burgher's houses. Following your time in this longstanding square, you will make your way to Wawel Hill, where you will visit the beautiful Cathedral, and Coronation Chapel. These are among the most important sites in Poland as the Cathedral has been the coronation site of the Polish monarchs and has held numerous pieces of Gothic, Renaissance, Baroque, Classicist and Modern art. Also at this site, you will have the opportunity to pray at the tomb of the patron saint of Poland, St. Stanislaus. Next, a short drive to Auschwitz, notoriously known as a Nazi concentration camp during the Second World War. Upon arriving at the former camp, you can feel the darkness and sorrow that overtakes the atmosphere as there were numerous unspeakable atrocities that occurred at this site. Additionally, while on this visit, you will have the opportunity to view the cell that imprisoned the Christ-like, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and visit the Martyrdom Museum. After this reflective day, return to your hotel in Krakow for dinner and a restful overnight.

Day 8, Tue, Jul 02: Krakow - Divine Mercy - Lagiewniki - Wieliczka - Krakow

On your last day of touring, depart after breakfast for your excursion to Lagiewniki, the capital of the Divine Mercy. Through the mediation of St. Faustina, Christ passed on the message of Divine Mercy at Lagiewniki. While here, you will have the opportunity to visit the Shrine of Divine Mercy that contains images of the Merciful Jesus, relics of St. Faustina, as well as, the Saint's convent chapel and her Tomb. Visit and celebrate Mass at the Shrine of Divinity, which was visited by Saint John Paul II in 2002. Following Mass, have the opportunity to pray by a relic of Saint John Paul II. Continue to Wieliczka and visit Europe's oldest salt mine, which has been listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. Return to Krakow for your farewell dinner and last overnight.

Day 9, Wed, Jul 03: Return Home

After an early breakfast and heartfelt farewells, transfer to the Krakow airport for return flights home.
