Never - ending love song

How many love songs does the world need? If you can come up with a number, then maybe you've never been in love. The great songwriting duo John Lennon and Paul McCartney had an argument over this equation. John was tired of composing songs he deemed repetitive and frankly irresponsible in a world so in need of a challenging message. Paul responded by writing "Silly Love Songs," with its lyric: "Some people want to fill the world with silly love songs. / And what's wrong with that?" The song repeats an ecstatic series of "I love yous" and a question sung in tones of wonder: "How can I tell you about my loved one?"

Most of us would agree with McCartney that "Love isn't silly at all." Truth is, silly is the last word we might use to describe most love songs. Painful is more like it. Songs about love tend to break down into several familiar categories: 1. My Sweetheart Died and Went to Heaven; 2. My Sweetheart Left Me for Someone Else; 3. My Sweetheart Doesn't Know I Exist; 4. I Really Blew It with My Sweetheart This Time; 5. I Sure Miss My Sweetheart.

Perhaps the most infamous category of love songs is the one found in every country-western jukebox. It's the Somebody-Done-Somebody-Wrong song, infused with weepy lyrics about broken hearts, empty rooms, cold nights, and sympathetic bartenders. While we may think about this genre as "made in the U.S.A.," ballads of love gone wrong have been popular since the Greco-Roman empire, at least. As we listen to the story of the Vineyard Song the prophet Isaiah wrote in the eighth century B.C., we realize that the story of love gone wrong is as old as love itself.

My Friend have a vineyard

Granted, the Vineyard Song is a bit on the unconventional side when it comes to love-gone-wrong story lines. It's about a guy besotted with, well, a vineyard. The vineyard is a metaphor, of course; if you follow it through you see this guy does for his vineyard what every lover tries to do for the beloved. He chooses his vines with utmost care: He wants only the best. He picks the most fertile site to plant them. He clears away all obstacles, spares no effort in turning the soil to provide these vines with the perfect rooting ground. He builds a watchtower to keep a lookout for predators. He even goes ahead and constructs the winepress for the harvest he anticipates. This fellow does everything right. He has every reason to be hopeful of success. He waits only on the grapes to ripen. He is not at fault when the inexplicable failure emerges: The grapes arrive; they are inedible.

The poor fellow is beside himself. His grief and outrage are about equal. He spends his frustration on the hillside, scene of his former hopes, breaking down the protective hedges and walls, allowing predators to trample and devour the results of his labor. He throws his tools away, allows nature to take its course and to cover the site of his humiliation with brambles. Bitterly, he calls for the clouds to withhold rain from his once-ideal growing site. The despair Isaiah describes is the very familiar anguish of the somebody-done-somebody-wrong song. And God is the vineyard owner, and we are the ones who done God wrong.

Hear another parable

The Vineyard Song was evidently a popular theme in Israel. Psalm 80, our responsorial psalm today, echoes the story of God and Israel, the beloved vine. God uprooted this vine from Egypt and gently carried it to safety on the far side of the Jordan. God cared for the vine until Israel's infidelity exposed the nation to the attack of wild countries on the prowl. Israel accuses God of abandoning the community to danger, but we who know all about love-gone-wrong songs know better. When someone is unfaithful, love becomes as vulnerable as a house of cards.

Jesus tells the story of the vineyard yet again in a parable delivered before the chief priests and elders. This time, he casts his present audience of religious leaders into the song in the roles of tenants hired to work the land. In this updated version of the old love song, it's the vineyard owner squaring off against the tenants, not the vines themselves. There is no indication of the walls of the property not being sound, or the vines being at risk, or the grapes being soured. It's the religious leaders themselves who stand between the rightful owner and his harvest. These wretched tenants are even willing to kill the owner's son to remain in possession of the grapes.

Some of us may feel relief that, when Jesus tells the story, the religious leaders are cast in the role of the bad guys. Thank goodness: We don't get the blame this time! If somebody done somebody wrong, it wasn't us. But alas: Who is in charge of the vineyard today if not for us? We are the community charged with the responsibility of the gospel and the riches of the kingdom of heaven. If the harvest is not being delivered to its rightful owner today, whose fault could it be but yours and mine?

This song ends on a note sad enough to be eligible for the country-western jukebox. The Kingdom will be removed from the custody of bad tenants and given to better ones. That's certainly the way the song finishes in Jesus' day. But how will it end in ours?

Think about these things

Saint Paul invites us to step up a little higher than the tenants in Jesus' version of the Vineyard Song. He urges us to turn toward whatever is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious, excellent, and worthy of praise. Turn, in other words, toward the God of peace. If we do, we might fill the world with a few more love songs. And what's wrong with that?

MASS INTENTIONS

Offering Mass for a special Intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. It is usually considered that special graces are obtained for whom the Mass is said. Masses are offered for many reasons: for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or in honor of a birthday or anniversary. If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, go to the Parish Office to get on the schedule. Cards are then given to you so that you can mail them to whomever you choose to so they may also participate in the Mass. The stipend or offering given, ($10 or more) signifies the sacrificial nature of giving of something of yourself to associate more intimately with Christ who offers himself in the Eucharist.

4TH ANNUAL "COME AS SAINT" COSTUME NIGHT

October 21st at 5:00 PM In Social Hall

This is our Fourth annual "Come as a Saint" costume night. The children pick a Saint, do a little research and make their costumes (with some parenting help). Each one shares a short story of their Saint, we share the history of "soul cakes" and invite the kids to remember when they are out for Halloween it's not all about the treat ... and to not forget to offer prayers for those families as they go door to door. The kids learn what All Saints Day and All Souls Day is really about and they are encouraged to share those saintly costumes when they attend their school party and go trick or treating this year.

While putting their focus on our faith and traditions they are evangelizing to others who inquire about those unique costumes. We will enjoy a great evening of pizza, soul cakes, and the movie CoCo. Hopefully, Saint Marys, Georgia will have a few more Saints and Angels out there this Halloween. Sign up Today!

Our ministry works to share our faith and Gods love through events such as our children's dinner & a movie night with a message, our quarterly adults movie night fellowship nights, delivery of birthday cakes monthly to all our senior homes in Camden County, and so much more within our parish.

News from the Music Ministry

Thank you to all the many parishioners who have taken the time to show their appreciation to the choir for their wonderful addition to the music program. It is most appreciated during our early days as a group. We are slowly adding new members. Please do not be shy about joining. We welcome anyone with a passion to sing. Our members range from 15 to 75 in age. Practice is at 9 am every Sunday in the church. If we find that there are many that would join that need an alternate time of practice, that can be discussed and arranged. Music for the upcoming seasons of Advent and Christmas will soon be added to our practice schedule. If you would like to join for the season you would be welcome. The need for cantors at both masses still remains. I hear those wonderful voices in the congregation! Consider volunteering some of your time to the music ministry. The choir will be sponsoring the donut social on Sunday October 15th. We hope to see you all there!

Sample Daily Itinerary

Day 1, Mon, Jun 24: Depart for Warsaw

Make your way to your local airport, where you will board your overnight flight(s) to Warsaw. Your meals will be served on board.

Day 2, Tue, Jun 25: Arrive Warsaw

Upon arrival, make your way to the baggage claim area and collect your luggage. You will be greeted by your tour guide and/or driver. Following check-in at your hotel, your pilgrimage will officially begin with Mass. Following Mass, enjoy a delicious dinner and have the opportunity to explore the city of Warsaw before retiring for a restful overnight.

Day 3, Wed, Jun 26: Warsaw

Your day will begin with breakfast followed by Mass at St. James Church, iconic for its tower and square base. This church is where Helena Kowalska prayed extensively upon entering Warsaw. Also, it is where she confessed all that burdened her soul, and asked for the advice of Rev. James Dabrowski, which eventually resulted in the Saint entering the convent. Following this prayerful morning, your day of sightseeing begins. Your group will explore the Old Town, comprised of beautiful maze-like cobblestone streets and picturesque architecture that are symbols of Poland's successful rebuild following its destruction during World War II. Some of the sites will include the Market Square (the center of the city filled with restaurants, cafes and shops), the Barbican, defense-like structures that have been rebuilt following World War II, and the Warsaw Ghetto monument that commemorates the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising of 1943 during World War II. You will also take in the Lazienki Park, a beautifully landscaped park, the Chopin Statue (a large bronze statue of musician, Frederic Chopin), and the Royal Castle (the official residence of the Polish monarchs). In the afternoon, visit the Stanislaw Kostka Church and view a special exhibit dedicated to Fr. Jerzy Popieluszko. This priest was a great personality of the Catholic Church and killed by communists in 1984. In 1987, Saint John Paul II visited here to pray in front of Fr. Popieluszko's tomb. Your tour of Warsaw will conclude by returning to the hotel for a delicious meal, followed by an overnight at your hotel.

Day 4, Thu, Jun 27: Warsaw - Niepokalanow - Swinice Warckie - Czestochowa

This morning, you will enjoy breakfast followed by a transfer to Niepokalanow. This Franciscan Monastery is in the community of Teresin, and was founded by martyr, St. Maximilian Kolbe. This remarkable saint was arrested by the Nazis and died in Auschwitz, giving his life for the life of another prisoner. Next, visit the village of Swinice Warckie and visit the church of St. Casimir. This historically rich parish is the site of baptism for St. Faustina, and where she received her first Confession and first Holy Communion. Additionally, she and her family attended Sunday Mass and other services at this parish. After visiting this simple, yet elegant church, we will continue to Czestochowa where you will check-in to your hotel, enjoy a magnificent dinner, and a restful overnight.

Day 5, Fri, Jun 28: Czestochowa - Glogowiec - Basilica of Our Lady of Lichen - Czestochowa

This morning, after breakfast transfer to Glogowiec, the birthplace of Saint Faustina and the home where she grew up. After lunch we will continue to the Basilica of Our Lady of Lichen. The construction was funded by pilgrims' donations and it is one of the tallest, largest churches in the world. Return to Czestochowa for dinner and overnight.

Day 6, Sat, Jun 29: Czestochowa - Wadowice - Krakow

Today, you will awake in the home of the grandest pilgrimage shrine of Poland since the 14th century! You will begin your day with breakfast and Mass at Jasna Gora Monastery. This hill-top monastery is home to the beloved icon of the Black Madonna. Additionally, Saint John Paul II is said to have made frequent visits to this monastery throughout his life. Tradition tells us that this icon was painted by Luke the Evangelist, discovered by St. Helen, and later enshrined. While here, you will have the opportunity to venerate not only the Holy Icon, but also many other priceless treasures that are contained within.

Following your prayerful visit to the Chapel of the Black Madonna, you will continue on to Wadowice, the birthplace of Karol Wojtyla (Saint John Paul II). While in the small city of Wadowice, you will have the opportunity to visit the church where this beloved Saint was baptized, and attended Mass as a child. Continue on to Krakow where you will enjoy dinner at a local restaurant before resting for the night.

Day 7, Sun, Jun 30: Krakow - Zakopane - Krakow

After breakfast, you will drive through the mountains to the breathtaking, yet small and remote village of Zakopane. Take a cable car ride to the nearby mountaintop. At the top, you will truly experience God's magnificent glory when you look out at the magnificent panoramic view. Following the many photos captured atop the mountain, head to the Jaszczorowka Chapel. This architecturally distinct chapel was visited many times by the young, Karol Wojtyla (Saint John Paul II). As a young boy, Karol Wojtyla often used the walking paths surrounding the Jaszczorowka Chapel for prayer and reflection. After you experience this beautiful site that assisted in Saint John Paul II's holy journey, you will continue your tour to the colorful Krupowki Street. While on this street, you will have the opportunity to do some shopping at the local bazaar before returning to Krakow. Enjoy a beautiful dinner and an optional stroll through the old city before retiring for the evening.

Day 8, Mon, Jul 01: Krakow - Auschwitz - Krakow

After breakfast, you will explore Krakow's Market Square as the sound of the silver trumpet from St. Mary's Tower fills the air. The captivating beauty of this square is largely due to the fact that it has remained unchanged for almost 700 years. It contains a number of buildings that hold important historic value such as, the Town Hall Tower, the Cloth Hall, and the Burgher's houses. Following your time in this longstanding square, you will make your way to Wawel Hill, where you will visit the beautiful Cathedral, and Coronation Chapel. These are among the most important sites in Poland as the Cathedral has been the coronation site of the Polish monarchs and has held numerous pieces of Gothic, Renaissance, Baroque, Classicist and Modern art. Also at this site, you will have the opportunity to pray at the tomb of the patron saint of Poland, St. Stanislaus. Next, a short drive to Auschwitz, notoriously known as a Nazi concentration camp during the Second World War. Upon arriving at the former camp, you can feel the darkness and sorrow that overtakes the atmosphere as there were numerous unspeakable atrocities that occurred at this site. Additionally, while on this visit, you will have the opportunity to view the cell that imprisoned the Christ-like, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and visit the Martyrdom Museum. After this reflective day, return to your hotel in Krakow for dinner and a restful overnight.

Day 8, Tue, Jul 02: Krakow - Divine Mercy - Lagiewniki - Wieliczka - Krakow

On your last day of touring, depart after breakfast for your excursion to Lagiewniki, the capital of the Divine Mercy. Through the mediation of St. Faustina, Christ passed on the message of Divine Mercy at Lagiewniki. While here, you will have the opportunity to visit the Shrine of Divine Mercy that contains images of the Merciful Jesus, relics of St. Faustina, as well as, the Saint's convent chapel and her Tomb. Visit and celebrate Mass at the Shrine of Divinity, which was visited by Saint John Paul II in 2002. Following Mass, have the opportunity to pray by a relic of Saint John Paul II. Continue to Wieliczka and visit Europe's oldest salt mine, which has been listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. Return to Krakow for your farewell dinner and last overnight.

Day 9, Wed, Jul 03: Return Home

After an early breakfast and heartfelt farewells, transfer to the Krakow airport for return flights home.
