CASKET INFORMATION

We offer a small selection of caskets in our showroom, with many additional choices available from our warehouse. Each casket is designed to serve the same functional purpose, carrying out the arrangements you've selected with dignity and respect. The style, material, and finish you choose are entirely personal preferences and have no reflection on the love or affection you hold for your loved one.

All of our caskets are priced using the same modest markup from the manufacturer's wholesale cost, so prices vary only by material and finish. Our role is simply to guide you through the available options, never to persuade or pressure you into a higher-priced selection.
