Introduction

In an effort to assist Arkansas municipalities in creating an environment that fosters civility, the Arkansas Municipal League staff has prepared a code of conduct.

A code of conduct is a set of practices that the mayor and council members agree to follow. This code of conduct has been developed to reinforce the concept that the mayor and council members serve as role models for their constituents and city staff. By adopting this code of conduct, the city council explicitly sets a civility standard for others to follow and recognizes the importance of trust invested in them by the public to accomplish city business.

The information provided in this document is not all-inclusive, and individual municipalities may wish to add or subtract from its contents. Furthermore, it is recommended that a training session be held at the beginning of each year for all elected city officials on the content of this code.

Overview of Rules and Responsibilities

The Mayor

- The mayor presides over meetings of the council.
- The mayor presides over the council in a manner designed to promote high standards of democratic governance and chairs meetings with efficiency and fairness, never discriminating against any speaker, whether council member or member of the public, based on the speaker's point of view.
- The mayor will not use his or her authority to thwart the democratic process.

Example 1: The mayor will not cancel or adjourn meetings for the purpose of preventing a matter from coming to a vote.

Example 2: The mayor will not refuse to allow a matter to be voted upon if it has received the necessary motion and second.

- The mayor is required to sign all ordinances, resolutions, and city council minutes.
- The mayor in cities and towns with mayor/council forms of government may veto any ordinance resolution or order adopted by the council.
- The mayor has the same speaking rights as any other member of the city council.
- The mayor demonstrates honesty and integrity in every action and statement.

The City Council

- The city council sets the time and place for regular city council meetings.
- The city council demonstrates respect, kindness, consideration, and courtesy to others during meetings.
- City council members prepare in advance of meetings and are familiar with the issues on the agenda.
- The city council serves as a model of leadership and civility to the municipality.
- The city council inspires public confidence in Cotter city government.
- All members of the city council have equal votes. No council member has more power than any other council member and should be treated with equal respect.
- A city council member will remember at all times that as an individual he or she has no legal Authority outside the meetings of the city council and that he or she shall conduct relationships with the city staff, the local citizens, and all modes of communication on the basis of this fact.
- Council members will inform the mayor and the city clerk of plans to be absent from a council meeting or plans to leave a council meeting before it is adjourned.
- A city council member serves as a model of leadership and civility to the city.
- A city council member recognizes that all electronic transmittals sent or received in performance of their duties as a city council member are subject to The Arkansas Freedom of Information Act.

Principles and Guidelines

The city council shall hold themselves accountable to the following principles and guidelines:

City Council Members Conduct with One Another

This council is composed of individuals with a wide variety of backgrounds, personalities, values, opinions, and goals. Despite this diversity, each council member has chosen to serve in public office in order to preserve and protect the present and the future of the city of Cotter, Arkansas. This common goal should be acknowledged even as council members may “agree to disagree” on contentious issues.

1. In Public Meetings

Practice Civility and Decorum in Discussions and Debate. Difficult questions, tough challenges to a particular point of view and criticism of ideas and information are legitimate elements of a free democracy in action. This does not allow, however, council members to make belligerent, personal, impertinent, slanderous, threatening, abusive, or disparaging comments. No shouting or physical actions that could be construed as threatening will be tolerated. Therefore:

- Avoid personalized comments that could offend other council members.
- Honor the role of the mayor in maintaining order.
- Be respectful of other members of the city council, boards, commissions, committees, city staff, and the public by refraining from abusive conduct, personal charges, or verbal attacks.
- Fully participate in council meetings and other public meetings while demonstrating respect, consideration, and courtesy to others.
- A city council member will always treat a fellow council member with the respect he or she would expect to receive in return.
- A city council member will always address citizens, employees, committee members, and fellow council members with respect.
- Request the opportunity to speak and address the council through the mayor, mayor pro tem, or other members conducting the meeting.
- Recognize fellow council members and guest speakers by their formal names and appropriate titles; after initial acknowledgement, the terms “Mr.” or “Ms.” May be used.
- Be respectful of others’ time and be brief and prepared in making remarks.
- Be prompt in attending public meetings so that they may begin at the publicly posted time.

2. Council Member Conduct with the Public

Be Polite and Professional to Speakers and Treat Them with Care and Gentleness. Because personal concerns are often the reason citizens come before the council to speak, council members should remember that their behavior will either relax the speaker or push their emotions to a higher level of intensity.

- Limit comments to issues and avoid personal attacks.
- Remain seated when someone is speaking at the podium.
- Give the appearance of active listening.
- Ask for clarification but avoid debate and argument with the public.
- Do not engage in personal attacks of any kind, under any circumstances
- Make no promises on behalf of the council or staff.
- Make no personalized comments about other council members.
