Coming August 12-21: Theatrical premiere of
 Fr. Joe Bradley's memoir,
 "The Four Gifts."

By all rights, Father Joe Bradley should be dead. If past drug and alcohol abuse didn't do the trick, then certainly heart failure should have. Instead, by the grace of God, he is alive, clean, sober, and a functioning Catholic priest with another man's heart beating in his chest. But it came at a huge cost.

July 31st Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE CENTER OF A MEANINGFUL LIFE

Today's readings invite us to reflect upon some of life's deepest questions, and to explore the meaning of faith. We hear of the universal human search for meaning in our lives in the book of Ecclesiastes. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus' parable about one who foolishly seeks ultimate security through the accumulation of wealth. In Colossians, faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ is proclaimed as the path to a richly purposeful and meaningful life. The path of Christian faith places our work, our sufferings, and our limitations within the larger picture of God's purposes for all of us. In Jesus, God is revealed as our companion in human suffering and limitation. God's love is at the center of a meaningful life. We place our trust in this loving God, who created us to share in this love, and to share this love with others.

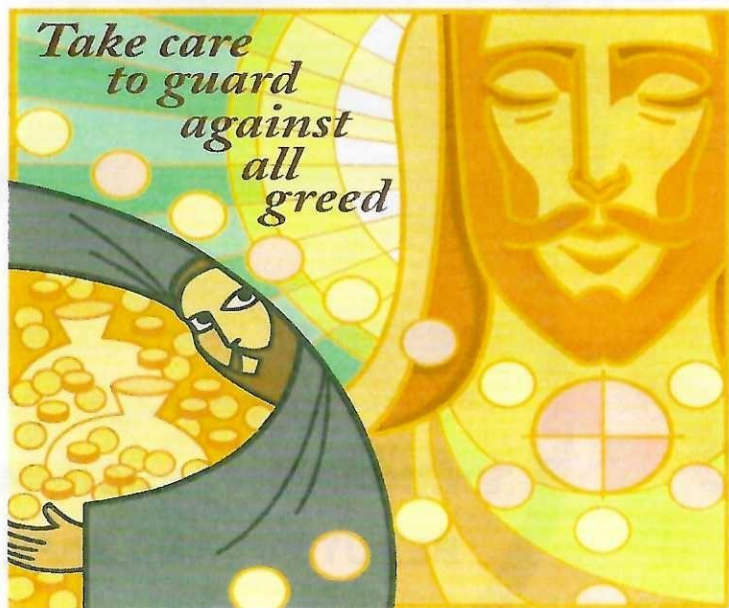

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Draw near to your servants, O Lord,
and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness,
that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide,
you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

For women who are unexpectedly pregnant:
May they be filled with trust in God's providence
and lovingly welcome the gift of their child;
We pray to the Lord:

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We must be careful not to become greedy or let the things we own become too important.
Instead we should become rich in what matters to God!
Arrange the coins in the treasure chest by number.
It's important to remember this!

Some of the words are scrambled.
