

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD (C.L.O.W.)

Our Mission
To share the Gospel with young children ages 4-8 (pre-First Holy Communion) in a way they can understand and receive with joy.

Our Committee Provides
A team of rotating volunteers who attend the Sunday 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses. They share God's word with children during the homily and also encourage the children to participate with a coloring page or activity to take home.

Our Target Audience for Participants
- Toilet-trained children between the ages of 4 – 8 who enjoy learning about Jesus and the Gospels with other children their age
- CLOW takes place in a school classroom during the Sunday 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses
- Children should be emotionally ready to leave a family pew for 15-20 minutes during the regular Mass homily

Our Target Audience For Volunteers
- Adults 18+ who have a love for young children and a desire to teach them God's word through the Gospels
- Volunteers need to be Virtus-certified and work in teams of two through rotating schedules

Our Greatest Needs
- We are continually adding volunteers to the CLOW team, especially during the 9:00 a.m. Mass, as we have traditionally offered it at the 11:00 Mass only
- All materials necessary to instruct the children who participate are provided to volunteers

How To Get Involved
- Contact Angie Ash, Director of Religious Education

Ministry Point Person
Angie Ash, Director of Religious Education
(567) 302-1252
angie.ash@stjosephmaumee.org