

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF HOLY COMMUNION

Mission

Being an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion is a great responsibility. You are giving our Lord to the people of God. Your demeanor, joy, eye contact, and belief in the Real Presence are all critical. Please note that regular confession and being in a state of grace are ideal. Distributing our Lord is an honor and privilege and cannot be taken lightly

What Does The Ministry Provide

Lay men and women who, when needed, assist with the distribution of Holy Communion perform a much-appreciated service, and are called Extraordinary Ministers—not of Eucharist in general—but Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Who Is Your Target Audience For Volunteers

All Catholics over the age of 18 who wish to assist during Mass with the distribution of Holy Communion.

What Are The Ministry's Greatest Needs

A scheduled commitment at one of our weekend masses:

Saturday 5:00 p.m.

Sunday 7:00, 9:00, and or 11:00 a.m.

Sunday 6:00 p.m.

Also, substitute when a scheduled individual is ill or otherwise needed.

How To Get Involved

Attend a training session with Dennis Johns to learn what is involved with this important ministry. Once trained, you will be entered into the parish's scheduling system at the mass time you desire.
