NEWS & NOTES

FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list at pjankowski@yahoo.com.

As we continue with the craziness of all these May celebrations, we certainly thank again Kim Emerson (St. Anne's), John Rehmer (St. Patrick's) and all the catechists for everything they have offered the last couple of weeks (and months, years, etc.) on behalf of our students, the greatest "treasures" with whom our Lord has afforded us. As I continue to be bombarded with a glut of quinceañeras, weddings and baptisms these upcoming months, I certainly thank all of you who read these bulletins (and understand what we are doing) for the sake of our children and those most in need of God's mercy.

The next event celebrated on May 10 is a bit of a melancholy one, since we bid farewell to Fr. Jhobany Orduz, CSV. Fr. Jhobany has been with us for almost my entire stay at the Border Town. First as a religious brother, Fr. Jhobany served as a chaplain for Riverside Medical Center while helping us out with "Sunday Reflections" and building good community with the people of our area.

Fr. Jhobany was ordained a deacon by Bishop Christopher Glancy, CSV in April 2024 at Maternity BVM in Bourbonnais and his first Mass as a deacon was celebrated at our Spanish Mass with three of his priest friends from Columbia celebrating this Mass with him. Fr. Jhobany since then has assisted us in so many ways throughout the area, including Guadalupe Celebrations, Retreats, Reflections and in so many other wonderful ministries.

When Fr. Jhobany was ordained a priest the following year in Columbia, a large group of faithful from our area travelled to South America to celebrate with him. Since that time, Fr. Jhobany's services have been in such great demand that the Clerics of St. Viator asked him to serve at the Parish of Our Lady of Las Vegas, starting on July 1, 2026 with Fr. Dan Bellinger, CSV. As that parish has no Hispanic ministry of which to speak, his work out in Vegas will become very time-consuming. Certainly his love will affect the faithful of Nevada as much as it has affected us here in Illinois.

Following the 12:00 p.m. Mass at St. Patrick's that Fr. Jhobany is celebrating, we will host a reception for him in the basement of the Church (119 N. Market St. in Momence, IL). The celebration is not just for Fr. Jhobany – it is a celebration to support the vocations of priesthood and religious life, which often gets taken for granted in our society. Few men and women choose to follow this path; with the discipline necessary to live this type of life and the challenges one has to face in today's society, many choose an easier life than one that often is referenced as "a higher calling." We would appreciate you supporting Fr. Jhobany in this cause because he is THAT important to us.

I also ask you to pray for me as well. June 1, 2026 happens to be the thirtieth anniversary of my ordination and the only reference to me being "thin" refers to the various ministries I have had to undertake here in the area. Few priests wish to stay down south because the "action" of ministry often is more exciting up north, I guess. I remember Fr. Dennis Settles (who was pastor of St. Patrick's in Momence from 1980-89), a priest who served many roles in the diocesan Chancery Office. He often said that our area was a "treasured secret" in the Joliet Diocese if one ever chooses to stop and realize how good we have it south of I-80. God bless all of you and keep praying for Fr. Jhobany, for me and for all the priests and religious of this diocese who choose to serve you in God's name as a religious or ordained cleric in the faith

When people want to destroy religion, they begin by attacking the priest; for when there is no priest, there is no sacrifice: and when there is no sacrifice, there is no religion.

- St. John Vianney

Enough?

ANN M. GARRIDO

When I was a child, my parents taught me to pray with my hands pressed together, fingers pointed upward toward God. But somewhere along the way, I learned a different posture for prayer: seated, with my palms facing upward on my lap. It's a gesture of openness—an acknowledgment that I come before God in humble need, ready to receive whatever he wants to give.

In today's gospel, Philip approaches Jesus in a similar stance of openness. "Show us the Father," he says, "and that will be enough for us" (John 14:8). Jesus responds that Philip has already seen the Father because Jesus' words and actions are the Father's words and actions. Philip needs no more—he has already received "enough."

Sometimes, I need this reminder myself. I long for a new insight into God that perhaps one more book or one more lecture will give me. Don't get me wrong: lifelong learning is a wonderful thing, and there is always more of God to discover! But it is important to acknowledge that, like Philip, I have already come to know the Father through Jesus, and everything I need to live the Christian life is already in place. Rather than more knowledge, it is a question of putting into action what I've been taught.

Of late, when I pray, I have embraced a new prayer posture: turning my hands downward, resting my palms on my knees. It helps me remember that with Jesus as my shepherd, I "shall not want." I already have all I need. ●

What does "enough" mean to me?

[Jesus said to Philip,]
"Whoever has seen me has seen the Father."

JOHN 14:9

Dear Padre,

I have one daughter and a grandchild who say they are bisexual and very much into the LGBTQ lifestyle, where they feel like they belong. I do not know how to handle all of this. They left the Catholic faith years ago. I do not believe they are atheists. Please help.

You are not alone in your struggle to know how to “handle all of this.” It’s hard for parents when their children choose a different lifestyle.

Try not to confuse gender expression with faith. Try not to confuse sexual orientation with faith. Just because a person is attracted to someone of the same sex does not mean they are not a person of faith. They may believe in God and even worship God in their own way. It sounds like your daughter and grandchild are honest with you. If they are willing, perhaps talking with them about how they experience God in their lives would be a fruitful conversation.

Whatever you do, the best practice is to love. Love your daughter and grandchild. When they express to you what they believe to be true about themselves, they are not asking for your permission. They are entrusting you with what they believe they have learned about themselves. Perhaps that very openness with you is a lesson that you taught them and a sign that they want to share with you what is important to them. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

We live in a time that rewards self-sufficiency, efficiency, performance. And yet, the gospel shows us that the measure of our humanity is not given by what we can achieve, but by our ability to let ourselves be loved and, when necessary, even helped. Jesus saves us by showing us that asking is not unworthy, but liberating.

2-3 Mayo 2026: Quinto Domingo de la Pascua

UNA NOTA DE PADRE PEDRO

El próximo evento que se celebra el 10 Mayo es un tanto melancólico, ya que nos despedimos del P. Jhobany Orduz, CSV. El P. Jhobany ha estado con nosotros durante casi toda mi estancia en la Ciudad Fronteriza. Primero como hermano religioso, el P. Jhobany sirvió como capellán del Centro Médico Riverside, a la vez que nos ayudaba con las "Reflexiones Dominicales" y a construir una buena comunidad con la gente de nuestra zona.

El P. Jhobany fue ordenado diácono por el Obispo Christopher Glancy, CSV, en abril de 2024 en la Maternidad BVM en Bourbonnais, y su primera Misa como diácono se celebró en nuestra Misa en Español con tres de sus amigos sacerdotes de Colombia. Desde entonces, el P. Jhobany nos ha ayudado de muchas maneras en toda la zona, incluyendo las Celebraciones de Guadalupe, Retiros, Reflexiones y muchos otros maravillosos ministerios.

Cuando el P. Jhobany fue ordenado sacerdote al año siguiente en Colombia, un gran grupo de fieles de nuestra zona viajó a Sudamérica para celebrar con él. Desde entonces, el P. Los servicios de Jhobany han tenido tanta demanda que los clérigos de San Viator le pidieron que sirviera en la Parroquia de Nuestra Señora de Las Vegas, a partir del 1 de julio de 2026, junto con el P. Dan Bellinger, CSV. Dado que dicha parroquia no cuenta con un ministerio hispano, su labor en Las Vegas le exigirá mucho tiempo. Sin duda, su amor impactará a los fieles de Nevada tanto como nos ha impactado a nosotros aquí en Illinois.

Después de la Misa de las 12:00 p. m. en la Iglesia de San Patricio, que el P. Jhobany celebrará, ofreceremos una recepción en su honor en el sótano de la iglesia (119 N. Market St., Mokence, IL). La celebración no es solo para el P. Jhobany, sino también para apoyar las vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa, que a menudo se dan por sentadas en nuestra sociedad. Pocos hombres y mujeres eligen seguir este camino; Con la disciplina necesaria para vivir este tipo de vida y los desafíos que uno debe afrontar en la sociedad actual, muchos eligen una vida más fácil que aquella a la que a menudo se hace referencia como una "vocación superior". Agradeceríamos su apoyo al Padre Jhobany en esta causa, ya que es sumamente importante para nosotros.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera Lectura - Eligieron a siete hombres, llenos del Espíritu Santo (Hechos 6: 1-7).

Salmo - Señor, que tu misericordia este con nosotros mientras ponemos nuestra confianza en ti (Salmo 33 [32]).

Segunda Lectura - Ustedes son una raza elegida, un reino de sacerdotes (1 Pedro 2: 4-9).

Evangelio - Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida (Juan 14: 1-12).
