NEWS & NOTES

FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list at pjankowski@yahoo.com.

By the time we reach Pentecost Sunday, St. Patrick's Church should be the recipient of a Brand-New Parking Lot! Thanks to Kyle Volek finding us a reasonable paver and a few wonderful donors, we were able to do what had not been done before at St. Patrick's – provide an upgraded parking area that extends from Washington St. to Second Ave., including the alleyways! We are so thankful to Mayor Chuck Steele, Police Chief Patrick Siemsen and Ted Peterson for helping us with this project – we not only were able to upgrade the parking lot but we also were able to beautify the neighborhood as well!

We did so well that Jackie Bruhn from St. Anne's asked if she could look into doing the same for the other Border Town Parish. Our paver made a visit to this parish as well to work details out with Jackie – hopefully that project will be as successful as the one at St. Pat's!

If you think about what we have been able to accomplish at both parishes just this last year alone, we have upgraded our air conditioning systems in both churches, purchased chairs for both halls, acquired generators for the entire St. Patrick Campus, (as well as installing rectory windows, a new kitchenette in the gym, etc. We have done really well, all in all!

I also have received wonderful cards at both parishes, thanking us for extending a “welcome” to those who felt “left out” in some ways in the area. I keep stressing that from holding the door open for people to warmly receiving those who enter our houses, the manner in which we greet and treat people reflects what kind of people we actually are. When we are welcoming and loving, a smile and a kind word go a long way! I felt honored to hold that door open on St. Anne's Day for our visitors at the parishes – many were so grateful that we made that effort to make them feel at home!

Maria Jankowski also keeps reminding me that June 1st marks my thirtieth year as a Catholic priest. The picture you see was from my ordination class – there were three of us ordained and I'm the one that is left. Serving as a priest is like any vocation – some take advantage of you and some welcome you. Letters are written, both pro and con, concerning your ministry. I have written a few letters as well. The key to all of this is to stay focused on God, to “shut out the noise of sin” if you can, and to keep focused on how we get to heaven, by loving our God and loving our neighbor.

I think Maria wanted to honor my father, who passed away in 2021 by celebrating with me on this special occasion. With this in mind, Maria would like to join us at Mass at St. Pat's Church on May 30th at 4:00 p.m. and then have something small in the parish hall afterwards. Because my 25th Anniversary was during the tail end of COVID, I think she wanted to have a different type of celebration to celebrate the priesthood and religious life. I decided this is a good idea – we have to celebrate this ministry – as St. John Vianney once said, without the priest there are no sacraments and without the sacraments, there is no parish.

I very much thank those who have understood what we have been trying to do these last few years. The more we welcome the outsider, the more we bring in our young families to join our “seasoned veterans,” the more souls are in line to reach heaven and the healthier a parish becomes. Feel free to join us at St. Patrick's on May 30th – we would be blessed to have you!

A Gift for All People of All Times

ANN M. GARRIDO

When reading aloud today's passage from Acts of the Apostles, do you stumble over the names of the peoples gathered as I do? "Parthians, Medes, and Elamites." Where is "Cappadocia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia"? And why were all these peoples in Jerusalem in the first place?

It might help to know that Pentecost did not originate as a Christian feast. There are three pilgrimage festivals that drew Jews from across the Mediterranean region to Jerusalem. Sukkot celebrates the fall harvest and God's protection during the exodus from Egypt. Two are in the spring: Passover, the Feast of the Unleavened Bread, recalling the night the Jews were freed from enslavement in Egypt; and Shavuot, or Pentecost in Greek, remembering the giving of God's law on Mount Sinai.

The scene described in Acts echoes the story at Mount Sinai. The peoples who gathered outside the house in Jerusalem represent the breadth and diversity of peoples known at that time, and not just at that time. Some of the civilizations mentioned had not existed for hundreds of years. The book of Acts wants us to know that the gift of the Holy Spirit was an event of such significance that somehow all were mysteriously present—not just those of times gone by, but even we who live in such far-away, hard-to-pronounce places as Islamabad or Albuquerque. Today, we celebrate a gift that transcends time and geography. A gift that continues to draw all of us together in wonder and awe. ●

those gone before us and those to come?

[The Jews] were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his own native language?"

ACTS 2:7–8

Dear Padre,

I am a senior Catholic woman. All my life, I have waited for the Church to welcome women as priests. I have volunteered with numerous faiths over the years and have worked with pastors and rabbis who are women. Why does the Catholic Church not recognize that women have callings to the priesthood?

My answer will probably not be acceptable to you, and it might even make you a little more frustrated and perhaps even discouraged. The understanding of the Church is that the call to priesthood is not based on merit. If it were based on merit, and that was the single important criterion, your question might be phrased in a different way. I will let you imagine what that might be!

The tradition, practice, and discipline of the Church continues to insist that the call to ordained priesthood requires the respondent to be male. Any explanation beyond this simple statement would be strained and of little use. We are aware of the traditions that are practiced in other Christian denominations. We are probably aware of the Roman Catholic theology of priesthood that is offered in support of the practice. We can probably offer example after example in support or in disagreement of the practice. None of it matters when it comes up against the hard truth of the tradition, practice, and discipline: the priesthood requires a baptized male for validity. ●

CARLOS DANIEL / CATHOPIC

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

At Pentecost, the apostles spoke the languages of those they met, and the confusion of Babel was finally resolved by the harmony brought about by the Spirit. Whenever God's "breath" unites our hearts and makes us view others as our brothers and sisters, differences no longer become an occasion for division and conflict.

A great of the time, I speak to our communities about the “finance” aspects of our parish, which is why, at St. Patrick’s, our debt has been reduced by over a third in the last three years (the debt is down to $174,000 because of the parishioner’s generosity). That said, we also need to talk about “Time” and “Talent.” There are a good number of souls at our parish who offer wonderful ministries that we need to utilize more. Robert Piquet has offered his painting services for the benefit of St. Anne’s Chapel and St. Patrick’s rectory and gymnasium. Aurelio Serna and wife Ruth Gomez are professional cleaners who have offered wonderful ministries at both parishes. Maria Saldana has been volunteering her services to clean both rectories twice a month. Perhaps we can save money by using the resources we have rather than outsourcing these tasks to companies (while very good) who are very costly.

If you have a talent you would like to offer the parish, please call St. Anne’s at ☎ (815) 427-8265 or St. Patrick’s at ☎ (815) 472-2864. If we have any major projects that are taking place at the parish, please pass them through me so that we can utilize the wonderful resources we have at the parish.

So many good souls wish to help; let us utilize what we have for the benefit of both parishes. - Fr. Pete.

Gran parte del tiempo, Yo, hablo a nuestras comunidades de finanzas sobre los aspectos “financieros” de nuestra parroquia, por lo que, cual es el camino para bajar la deuda en San Patricio, nuestra deuda se ha reducido en más de un tercio en los últimos tres años (la deuda se ha reducido a $ 174,000 debido a la generosidad de los feligreses). Dicho esto, también tenemos que hablar de “Tiempo” y “Talento”. Hay un buen número de generosas almas en nuestra parroquia que ofrecen ministerios maravillosos que necesitamos utilizar más. “Robert Piquet ha ofrecido sus servicios de pintura en beneficio de la Capilla de Santa Anee, la rectoría y gimnasio de San Patricio. Maurilio Serna y su esposa Ruth Montoya son limpiadores profesionales que han ofrecido ministerios maravillosos en ambas parroquias. María Saldaña ha estado ofreciendo sus servicios como voluntaria para limpiar ambas rectorías dos veces al mes., La familia de José Ismael Ramírez ofreciendo limpiar la Iglesia. Tal vez podamos ahorrar dinero utilizando los recursos que tenemos en lugar de externalizar estas tareas a empresas (aunque son buenas) también son muy costosas.

Si tiene un talento que le gustaría ofrecer a la parroquia, llame a St. Patrick's al ☎ (815) 472-2864 o al St. Anne's al ☎ (815) 427-8265. Si tenemos algún proyecto importante que estaremos llevando a cabo en la parroquia para ayudarnos, por favor páselo a través de mí para que podamos utilizar los maravillosos recursos que tenemos en la parroquia. Hay tantas almas buenas que desean ayudar; Utilicemos lo que tenemos para el beneficio de ambas parroquias. - P. Pete.

23-24 Mayo 2026: La Solemnidad de Pentecostés

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 9 de junio del año 1597, falleció el jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo "apóstol de Brasil" fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y evangelizadores en Brasil. Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupí, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina.

Eventualmente fundó el colegio jesuita de Sao Paulo de Piratininga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el Evangelio en Brasil, país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el "santo volador" por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el Evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dice el profeta Isaías: "Que hermosos son los pies del que trae buenas nuevas" (Isaías 52:7).

chamos que, mientras estaban en oración allí, el Espíritu Santo vino sobre ellos. La promesa de Jesús, luego de su Resurrección que el Evangelio de hoy relata, se cumple: el poder del Espíritu Santo viene sobre los seguidores de Jesús. San Pablo nos dice que a todos nosotros, de alguna manera, se nos dan los dones del Espíritu Santo, dones que se pueden usar para anunciar la Buena Nueva. Hoy es una de las más grandes fiestas de la Iglesia.
