FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

First of all, a reminder... as we get into the summer months where a few good souls "take a vacation from God" (there is no "vacation" from God in heaven – we are here on earth to show God how much we care about this relationship), the collection, as it was structured, depends on a $3,000 a week collection. We are doing very well as a parish but please remember, we need to stay diligent by keeping the campus in good condition! Thanks for your support with this.

While away this June, after recording SEVENTEEN Online Masses in two weeks (including the TEN NO-

Anne prayed to the Lord so that the Lord would assist her in bringing life into the world. The miracle of this "Immaculate Conception" serves as the foundational "sign" of God which tells us that with faith, all things are possible.

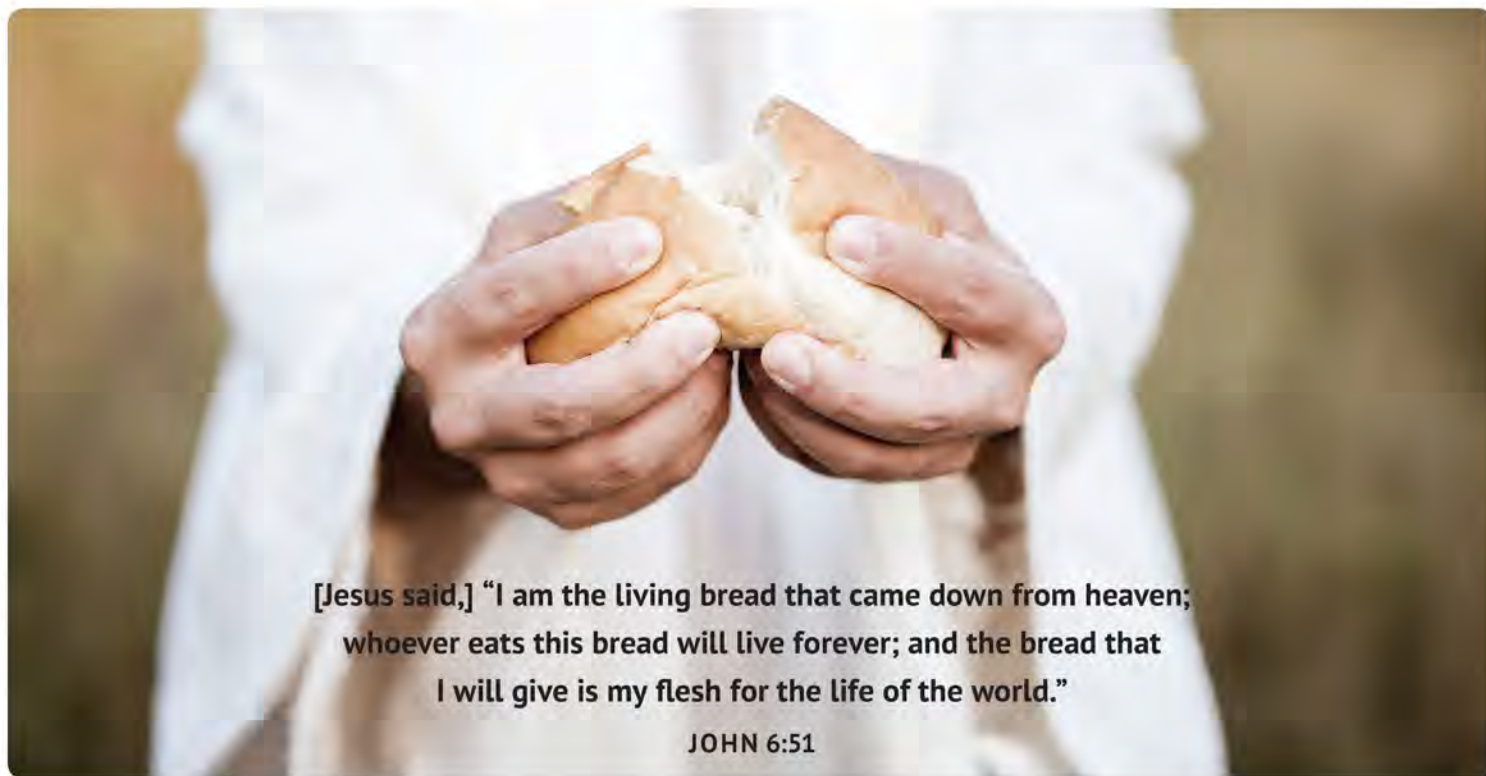

Basing these Masses on the Seven "Signs" described in the Gospel of John (as well as the healing of the paralytic from Mark 2 and the miracle of the fish in John 21, we walk through each of the miracles, understanding the power of God and humble nature in which we need to place ourselves if we have a chance for this "miracle" to carry us from this life to the next. There is no guarantee that we will make it to the other side. We do not deserve it; we certainly cannot earn it. Instead, we humbly stand before God, hoping and praying that God takes care of us, even when we do not take care of each other or even ourselves.

The theme for the 146th Annual Novena and Feast Day Activities is entitled, "THE SIGNS AND WONDERS OF GOD." In the story of St. Anne (according to the non-canonical Protoevangelium of St. James), St.

We have mailed over 3,500 letters to those in our mailing list; the cost of this mailing is over $3,500. We have tried to cut costs in some ways, but with the price increases in so many things, we do the best we can to get by. If you can help us with the Sunday collection, with helping us establish a St. Anne Foundation so that future generations can benefit from the we sometimes take for granted, we would very much appreciate it

[Jesus said,] “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

JOHN 6:51

All You Can Eat

MIGUEL DULICK

The “Bread of Life Discourse” in the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John is an astonishing teaching. “The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world” (John 6:51b). Creation was wonderful, the Incarnation was wonderful, but now Jesus takes the final step in God’s coming ever closer to us human beings, as close as food, as intimate as eating Christ’s body and drinking his blood. For us Catholics, it’s called transubstantiation: the Host—something we hold in our hand—is so divine that we worship it!

The crowds listening to Jesus could not have imagined how you would “eat” (literally, “gnaw”) Jesus’ flesh or drink his blood, and certainly not a whole year before the Last Supper (not to mention, hundreds of years before St. Thomas Aquinas). When surveys showed that many of today’s Catholics are just as confused and doubtful as the crowd at Capernaum, having lost faith or even interest in the Eucharist, the American bishops launched a search-and rescue mission to recover “The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church,” published in 2021.

Paul bases the sacrament in our own experience. “The cup...that we bless” and “the bread that we break” create the ultimate reality: “we, though many, are one body”—of Christ! (See 1 Corinthians 10:16-17.) The priest says, “The Body of Christ,” and we respond, “Amen!” ●

Reflect

What does my “Amen” mean when I receive the Eucharist?

Dear Padre,

What is the significance of the Holy Eucharist in our lives as Christians?

The Mass should be understood as the celebration of our union—our communion—with Christ and his Church, which is the body of Christ. The Mass presumes participants have an existing personal relationship with Christ. We were united to Christ through baptism. We have received his Holy Spirit, empowering us to carry out Christ’s threefold mission: the prophetic mission of announcing his message and denouncing sin; the priestly mission expressed in a life of prayer, self-sacrifice, and participation in the liturgy; and the kingly/servant mission expressed in service to God and neighbor.

For the Eucharist to be meaningful, we must first experience a personal encounter with Christ—one that leads to personal conversion and a decision to live as disciples in community. Indeed, the Eucharist both celebrates and deepens our communion with Christ. The Eucharist also deepens our communion with fellow believers. “The Eucharist’s particular effectiveness in promoting communion is one of the reasons for the importance of Sunday Mass,” wrote Pope St. John Paul II in On the Eucharist in Its Relationship to the Church (Ecclesia de Eucharistia), 41. Without this loving, sharing community, the Mass becomes empty. Whenever we attend Mass and receive holy Communion, we should ask ourselves: Are we really in communion with Jesus and the body of Christ, his Christian community? If not, then we should seek this broader communion in our lives. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Together...we will feed on the Blessed Sacrament, adore him and carry him through the streets.... Strengthened by the food that God gives us, let us bring Jesus to the hearts of all, because Jesus involves everyone in his work of salvation by calling each of us to sit at his table. Blessed are those who are called, for they become witnesses of this love!

6-7 Junio 2026: El Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Esta celebración del Día de los Padres tuvo su origen en 1910, en los Estados Unidos de América. Aunque la práctica comenzó en 1910, no fue sino hasta 1972 que se fijó un día oficial para celebrar al papa. Poco a poco esta fecha del segundo domingo de junio se ha ido expandiendo al resto del mundo con algunas excepciones. En Italia, por ejemplo, la fiesta del padre se celebra el 19 de marzo, día de san José.

Durante la Revolución Industrial del siglo diecinueve, José, esposo de María recibió su primera fiesta oficial. La Iglesia, preocupada por el ingreso del padre a las fábricas, propuso a este santo varón como ejemplo de lo que los padres deben ser en la vida de sus hijos e hijas; ejemplos de fe, ternura y trabajo. Aun en nuestro tiempo, el Rito del Bautismo de Niños insiste que el padre, junto con la madre, deben ser los mayores maestros de sus hijos. Al igual que José, el papa debe cuidar y proteger a su familia, enseñarle a los niños a trabajar y ser honestos para el bien de la familia y la sociedad.

CONFIANZA EN JESÚS

La fiesta de hoy celebra otro misterio central de nuestra fe: el misterio de la Eucaristía. Como el misterio de la Trinidad, la presencia real del Cuerpo y de la Sangre de Cristo en la Eucaristía nunca se puede entender completamente, sino que sólo se puede creer. Así como a los israelitas en el desierto se les invitó a poner su fe en la palabra de Dios dirigida a ellos, a nosotros se nos invita a confiar plenamente en las palabras de Jesús. En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús promete darnos una porción de su propia carne y sangre, y además compartir la vida eterna. Somos llamados a creer en su palabra y a abrir nuestro corazón para recibir verdadero alimento y vida por nuestra participación en la Eucaristía.

“Porque hay un solo pan, nosotros que somos muchos somos un solo cuerpo, porque todos participamos del único pan”. - 1 Cor 10: 17

Como discípulos de Jesús, estamos llamados a llevar vidas santas e invitar a otros a unirse a nosotros. Vivir un estilo de vida de corresponsabilidad, ser agradecidos y generosos con nuestros dones, cumple un doble propósito. Uno, ayuda a construir el reino de Dios aquí en la tierra. Dos, es una hoja de ruta hacia el cielo. ¡Ayudémonos unos a otros a llegar allá!
