This weekend, Fr. Uriel Martinez celebrates his last Masses with us for 2026. Fr. Uriel was kind enough to travel from Guanajuato, MX to our periphery churches in the diocese to celebrate Masses in January & June. We have extended an invitation for Fr. Uriel to return next year to offer nights of adoration, celebrate Masses and help us build community with a group of people we truly love - YOU!!!

In July 2026, we welcome Fr. Sebastian Genoni, MIC to our parishes to lead a parallel St. Anne Novena in Spanish for our faithful. I learned about Fr. Sebastian's devotion to St. Anne during my travels in Argentina, where he serves as pastor in Buenos Aires. While I celebrate the St. Anne Novena in English, Fr. Sebastian will offer a parallel Novena in Spanish at St. Patrick's Church each night from July 17-25 at 7:00 p.m. On July 26, Fr. Sebastian will lead a horse-drawn procession from el Cerrito de Camino y Esperanza Retreat House at 11:00 to St. Anne's Church for a Spanish Mass at 12:00 noon.

We are looking for help in selling religious articles, cooking food and assisting in the set up and clean up on July 26. If you can help, please contact us at the parish office.

St. Anne's Catholic Church and the Shrine of St. Anne are in need of accessible parking for the handicapped and a safer lot for all who visit. We are asking for your support as we work toward our fundraising goal of $60,000 to provide a safer smoother and more welcoming space for our parish family visitors and community events. Every contribution brings us closer to completing this important improvement for our church home. Thank you for your generosity, prayers and continued support of our parish mission.

"From gravel to grace, paving a better lot for a smooth future."

Dear Padre,

Is it appropriate to display the American flag in our church?

A diocesan bishop—who often delegates this matter to the discretion of the pastor—determines regulations on whether and how to display the American flag in a Catholic church. Displaying the flag, and a book of remembrance for those serving in the armed forces, seems to have originated in many US parishes during World War II. The practice has continued through subsequent wars and national tragedies.

While the Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy advised that national symbols should not be permanent fixtures of a worship space, they may be appropriate at worship services on a civil holiday, etc. This same committee discouraged pastors from displaying the American flag within the sanctuary itself—a space reserved for the altar, ambo, presidential chair, and tabernacle—but instead to place the flag in the vestibule of the church together with a book of petitions for the living and deceased.

Fundamentally, a church building is where the liturgical assembly gathers as one body in Christ—the same Christ of the Eucharist who is beyond time and place, who came to unite our divisions. “The church building is a sign and reminder of the immanence and transcendence of God—who chose to dwell among us and whose presence cannot be contained or limited to any single place” (US Conference of Catholic Bishops, Built of Living Stones, 2000). ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

There is a burning question in our hearts, a need for truth that we cannot ignore, which leads us to ask ourselves: what is true happiness? What is the true meaning of life? What can free us from being trapped in meaninglessness, boredom, and mediocrity?... We need to lift our eyes... to the “things that are above” (Colossians 3:2).

[Jesus said,] “For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

MATTHEW 11:30

Take Up the Yoke

ANN M. GARRIDO

The invention of the yoke 6,000 years ago marked one of the great advances in human history. The yoke—a wooden beam fitted across the neck—harnessed the energy of two cattle pulling in the same direction, hastening the tilling of soil and transport of goods.

It is easy to see why, among many ancient peoples, the yoke became a symbol of subjugation. When the Roman army won a battle, they forced defeated soldiers to walk beneath a “yoke” of spears to indicate they were now in a state of servitude. The prophet Jeremiah once walked through Jerusalem wearing a yoke to warn the people they were about to be conquered by Babylon.

In Judaism, however, the Torah was also sometimes referred to as a yoke. It was a law to be submitted to, but it also was a way of life that offered an alternative to the cruel “yokes” imposed by kings. The Book of Sirach encourages youth to “Take [Torah’s] yoke upon your neck; that your mind may receive her teaching.... See for yourselves! I have labored only a little but have found much” (Sirach 51:26–27).

It is unclear exactly what Jesus meant when he invited us to accept his yoke, but it is likely that he was echoing the invitation of Sirach. He wanted us to know that following God’s law makes it possible for us to work together, accomplishing much that we could not do on our own. And that God’s law is a gentle law—one that enables rather than oppresses. Are you willing to receive Christ’s gentle teaching and make it your own? ●

Reflect

Is there a teaching of Jesus you find challenging?

4-5 Julio 2026: XIV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Este fin de semana, el P. Uriel Martínez celebra con nosotros sus últimas misas de 2026. El P. Uriel tuvo la amabilidad de viajar desde Guanajuato, México, hasta nuestras iglesias periféricas de la diócesis para celebrar misas en enero y junio. Le hemos invitado a regresar el próximo año para ofrecer noches de adoración, celebrar misas y ayudarnos a construir comunidad con un grupo de personas a las que realmente queremos: ¡¡¡USTEDES!!!

En julio de 2026, daremos la bienvenida a nuestras parroquias al P. Sebastián Genoni, MIC, quien dirigirá una novena a Santa Ana en español para nuestros fieles. Conocí la devoción del P. Sebastián a Santa Ana durante mis viajes por Argentina, donde él ejerce como párroco en Buenos Aires. Mientras yo celebro la novena a Santa Ana en inglés, el P. Sebastián ofrecerá una novena paralela en español en la iglesia de San Patricio (St. Patrick's Church) cada noche, del 17 al 25 de julio, a las 7:00 p. m. El 26 de julio, el P. Sebastián encabezará una procesión con carruajes tirados por caballos desde la Casa de Retiros "El Cerrito de Camino y Esperanza" a las 11:00 a. m. hasta la iglesia de Santa Ana, donde se celebrará una misa en español al mediodía.
