NEWS & NOTES

FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list at pjankowski@yahoo.com.

As we kick into gear the 145th Anniversary of the St. Anne Novena, I have been asking our friends on social media to advertise the Novena – all you have to do is “right click” the Novena Picture on our websites and “paste” the image onto your Facebook, Twitter or Instagram account. You also can “right click” on your mouse the URL of our thirty or forty second commercial that is being broadcast on our local radio stations and “paste” the URL on your social media account as well. This kind of advertising is the “wave of the future,” so your help with this would be appreciated.

This year, three special priests will assist us with the Feast Day Masses on July 26. All three are wonderful ministers in their respective work and we certainly are grateful for their help this year.

Fr. Jim Heyd from the Archdiocese of Chicago has been bringing the Haitian community to the Novena for years and really emphasizes the importance of the French community! As Fr. Achilles Bergon did with the faithful of Chicago in the early 1900s, so Fr. Jim brings his faithful some 125 later and will celebrate the 10:00 a.m. Mass on July 26, followed by the process with the relic.

Fr. John Rickert, FSSP is rector of St. Joseph's Church in Rockdale, primarily offering sacraments in Latin, according to the extraordinary form. Fr. John will process with the relic after the 12:00 noon Mass and will hear confessions throughout the day.

Fr. Jhobany Orduz, CSV was ordained a priest earlier this year and has served as a Viatorian brother for decades before that. Fr. Jhobany will celebrate the 3:30 p.m. Spanish Mass at Camino y Esperanza and will process with the relic.

Keeping Your Balance

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

These days, when people come to confession, they seldom list their sins by name and number. Quite often, it seems, they simply talk about their lives, about the chaos in which they seem to be living, about the relationships that are less than what they would hope, about the values they’ve let slide sometimes into the muck, about how they’ve turned in upon themselves, and about how caring for others has faded from their lives. After they’ve told their stories, I will usually ask if they take any time in the day to be quiet and if they pray in whatever way they find helpful and with some regularity. Invariably, they will say that they’ve let such prayer time slip away; that they have not been praying the way they once did. In such cases, I often suggest that as penance, they take some time—even just a little time—in the next day or two to simply quiet themselves in the presence of God.

Life will always tend to be chaotic. These days, there is too much going on for life not to be. But, quiet and reflective prayer seems to bring a balance, a refocusing upon what is important and what is trivial. Without that, we can become overwhelmed and lose our way. It is what the Martha/Mary story is about. It’s not that our own Martha-service is not worthwhile. It’s crucially important in order to make life hum along in an orderly fashion. But without Mary’s reflective part, our lives can become muddled drudgery. ●

Reflect

How would prayer help me keep myself grounded and centered?

Dear Padre,

“Lead us not into temptation...” God does not lead us into temptation, so what is this saying?

You are of the same mind as the pope! In 2019, Pope Francis approved changing the Lord's Prayer, that is, changing the phrase “lead us not into temptation” to “do not let us fall into temptation.” Pope Francis said that the original appeared to suggest that God caused the temptation. However, most Scripture scholars agree that “lead us not into temptation” is the best translation from the Greek. It's a subjunctive verb. It's used in the second person, addressed directly to God. And it really does say “do not lead us into temptation.”

What did the pope hope to accomplish? Those who are most familiar with the pope say that what he was trying to clarify was not anchored in the intricacies of translation but rather anchored in pastoral life. He wanted to focus the attention of God's people on their action, “falling into temptation,” and not on a misunderstanding of what Jesus was teaching. It was a point of focus and clarification to help us in our spiritual journey and our understanding of our relationship with God. Understood in this sense, the new translation would accomplish this pastoral purpose. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

When I start my day, do I throw myself headlong into the things to be done, or do I first seek inspiration in the Word of God? At times, we begin the day automatically, we start doing things...like hens. No. We must start the day by first of all looking to the Lord, taking his Word... allowing this to be the inspiration for the day.

St. Anne, Illinois, 15 miles southeast of Kankakee, was founded in 1850 by French-Canadian settlers devoted to their patron. "Good Ste. Anne", the Mother of Mary and Grandmother of the Lord. The novena has been the occasion of many blessings, physical ones—as the crutches, canes and wheelchairs left behind testify—as well as spiritual ones.

In these troubled times, we draw strength from our traditional devotions. Bring your children and grandchildren to share in this day's expression of faith.

This festival is the closing day of the St. Anne, Illinois, 15 millas al sureste de Kankakee, fue fundada en 1850 por colonos francocanadienses devotos de su patrona: “La Buena St. Anne”, la Madre de María y Abuela del Señor. La novena ha sido ocasión de muchas bendiciones, tanto físicas—como atestiguan las muletas, bastones y sillas de ruedas dejadas atrás—como espirituales.

En estos tiempos difíciles, sacamos fuerza de nuestras devociones tradicionales. Traiga a sus hijos y nietos para compartir la expresión de fe de este día.

LA IGLESIA CATÓLICA DE SANTA ANA LLEVARÁ A CABO LA 145ª NOVENA ANUAL DE SANTA ANA DEL 17 AL 26 DE JULIO EN LOS TERRENOS DE LA PARROQUIA EN 230 N SIXTH AVE. EN ST. ANNE, IL.

Al celebrar el 145.º aniversario de la Novena a Santa Ana, les he estado pidiendo a nuestros amigos en redes sociales que la anuncien. Solo tienen que hacer clic derecho en la imagen de la Novena en nuestros sitios web y pegarla en sus cuentas de Facebook, Twitter o Instagram. También pueden hacer clic derecho en la URL de nuestro anuncio de treinta o cuarenta segundos que se transmite en nuestras estaciones de radio locales y pegarla en sus redes sociales. Este tipo de publicidad es la tendencia del futuro, por lo que agradeceríamos su ayuda. Este año, tres sacerdotes especiales nos ayudarán con las misas del día festivo del 26 de julio. Los tres son ministros maravillosos en sus respectivos trabajos y estamos muy agradecidos por su ayuda este año.

El P. Jim Heyd, de la Arquidiócesis de Chicago, lleva años atrayendo a la comunidad haitiana a la Novena y realmente enfatiza la importancia de la comunidad francesa. Como dice el P. El P. Achilles Bergon lo hizo con los fieles de Chicago a principios del siglo XX, por lo que el P. Jim trae a sus fieles unos 125 después

El P. John Rickert, FSSP, es rector de la iglesia de San José en Rockdale y ofrece principalmente los sacramentos en latín, según la forma extraordinaria. El P. John procesionará con la reliquia después de la misa del mediodía y escu-chará confesiones durante todo el día.

El P. Jhobany Orduz, CSV, fue ordenado sacerdote a principios de este año y ha servido como hermano Viatoriano durante décadas. El P. Jhobany celebrará la misa en español de las 3:30 p. m. en Camino y Esperanza y proseguirá con la reliquia.
