YOUR FEEL-GOOD STORY TODAY...

On the first day I arrived at St. Patrick's Church in Momence (August 1, 2019), the diocesan brass sent in their personnel to "inspect" the windows of the parish. I was told that the diocese was inspecting windows at every parish around the diocese, but, in reality, they were only doing it with us. This is because I had a reputation for getting things done without breaking the budget and most often getting outside funds to take care of these projects; the diocese still does not understand how we are able to get these things done. I try to teach people that the three words that serve as the best fundraiser that you could ever have are, "do unto others." At my last parish, we were able to use this mentality to pave the entire parking lot of our church at no cost to the parish and to renovate entire buildings on the cheap. In fact, two city council members purchased a plot of land behind the parking lot at the parish and I paid $1,000 out of pocket for the "gully" that connected the land to our parking lot.

When I arrived in Hopkins Park, St. Anne and Momence in 2019, I had four houses that looked like "Sanford and Son" on acid that needed to be renovated. Thanks to a whole bunch of wonderful people, we have been able to renovate roofs, build bathrooms, and renovate complete houses under our care for the fraction of the cost that it would normally take.

Earlier this year, Wally Martin (my "house flipper" who does most of my work) told us that it was probably a good time to replace the windows in the St. Patrick Rectory before the tariff prices go up. He gave us a ridiculously cheap cost of $11,000 to replace over TWENTY windows in the rectory of St. Patrick's. Thanks to a couple nice donors, we got the money and in July, Wally started changing the windows with his group of workers.

Between this and eradicating St. Patrick's $330,000 debt over the last four years (pictured is me signing the final check, surrounded by some of the major players at St. Patrick's Church), we have given St. Pat's a fighting chance to persevere for years to come (not to mention an growing Hispanic com-munity that started at ZERO in 2019 is often larger than our other services at the parishes combined!). God bless the good souls at St. Patrick's, St. Anne's and all our benefactors, as well as all of you for all the good work you have done for us in God's name!

I also wish to thank Antonio Elvir for the repair work he did on the side stairwell of our church. Anthonio and maintenance man Artemio Ojeda are going beyond the call of duty and we are really grateful for their kindness!

As a sidenote... The diocesan brass returned exactly one year later after I arrived in 2019 to so-called "reinspect" the windows. They still wonder how we are able to get things done around here...

ST. ANNE'S PEW & CHURCH DEDICATION PROGRAM

The concept for our dedication program is simple - we are offering the opportunity to remember a loved one in a memorial dedicated for one of our church or chapel pews ($2,500).

[Jesus] said to the crowd,
"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

LUKE 12:15

Remember This

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Remember this: Jesus said, "one's life does not consist of possessions." But, if not that, what then?

Think back upon your memories: the first warm day of spring, when the fireworks of new life exploded upon you; laughing so hard that your sides hurt, and you and your friends could not stop laughing even to breathe; walking barefoot in the dewy grass; your best friend telling you you're best friends; learning to finally ride a bike no-handed and thinking that you moved up a rung on the ladder of awesomeness; the first time you dared to risk reaching for the hand of someone you discovered you liked more than anyone else; the unbelievable wonder at the birth of your child; making googly faces at a burbling baby, and the baby googling back; your child snuggling into bed with you at two in the morning because she's frightened by the thunderstorm; talking with friends on and on into the night and wishing it could go on for forever; a cold beer, the reward for cutting the grass on a dizzying summer afternoon; being young with an abundance of dreams of what might be; growing old and thinking life was worth it all.

Remember this: there is so much more to life than one's possessions. We all know this, and yet we forget. Perhaps in forgetting, we might be surprised again and again by the beauty of what cannot be purchased and so recognize the loving touch of our God. ●

Reflect

What is more important to me than possessions?
Does my life reflect this?

Dear Padre,

Sometimes after Mass, I go to the late service at a “Bible church” with the rest of my family. Once a month, this church serves communion, but they make it clear that it is only as a memory of Jesus and the Last Supper, and that Jesus is not present at communion. Is it OK to receive this communion?

DRORIGUEZZ, PHOTOGRAPHY / SHUTTERSTOCK

The Catholic understanding of Holy Communion includes not only the understanding of Communion as the Body and Blood of Christ, but it includes something more. Communion is a statement of belief and a statement of belonging. When Catholics participate in the sacrament, they are identifying with divinity as well as with the community of believers who are joined together in “one mind and in one spirit.” It is an act of unity, a real “communion.” Even though the Bible church clearly teaches a different theology of communion, it would seem to me that, for a Catholic, the fullest meaning and understanding of Communion is important and worth witnessing to. For this reason, I would refrain from participating in communion at the Bible church. Do so quietly and respectfully, because what is being celebrated is important; it just does not have the full meaning that you understand is necessary. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Covetousness of goods, the desire to have goods, does not satisfy the heart, but rather causes more hunger!... Be careful! Love...is the source of true happiness, whereas the exaggerated search for material goods and wealth is often a source of anxiety, adversity, abuse of power, war. Many wars begin from covetousness.

ANGELUS, ROME, AUGUST 4, 2019

Thank you Wally Martin, Bill Powers, their workers and our benefactors for helping us upgrade the windows at St Patrick's Rectory for the ridiculously low price of $11,000! God bless everyone who understands what we are trying to do, always in God's name! St. Pat's go Brach!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En las Sagradas Escrituras hay varias parejas como Abraham y Sara, Elcano y Ana, y Zacarias e Isabel, que por alguna razón u otra no pueden engendrar hijos o hijas. Hay que saber que en muchas culturas la falta de descendencia es considerada un castigo divino. Dios, en su divina misericordia, ampara a estas parejas dándoles una prole. Según la literatura apócrifa cristiana, (el Evangelio de la Natividad de María, el Evangelio apócrifo de Mateo y el Protoevangelium de Santiago) a estas famosas parejas se pueden añadir los padres de la Virgen María, Joaquín y Ana. Esta pareja de la línea del rey David tampoco podía engendrar familia. En una fiesta judía, Joaquín (el hombre a quien Dios lleva) fue rechazado en el templo por no tener hijo o hija. Desdichado se retiró al desierto para implorar la bendición de Dios. Su esposa Ana (gracia, amor, plegaria) también imploró al Señor hasta que un ángel le anunció que Dios la había escuchado. El mismo ángel envió a Joaquín a su casa. A los nueve meses Ana dio a luz una niña a quien llamaron Miriam (María). - Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

EL PRECEPTO MÁS IMPORTANTE

De vez en cuando, los periódicos y las revistas publican, a modo de "relleno", diversas leyes que siguen en los libros pero que parecen ridículas en nuestra época. En una ciudad de California, es ilegal tener dos bañeras dentro de una casa. Cuando se pasó la ley era un lujo tener acceso al agua corriente, pero ahora que no lo es la ley parece ridícula. Sin embargo, el valor humano de proteger y preservar los recursos más valiosos sigue teniendo vigencia, esto se manifiesta en muchas leyes, que nos parecen muy acertadas, cuyo fin es proteger el medio ambiente. Sucede lo mismo con los preceptos religiosos. Lo que Jesús desdén hoy es la actitud de los demás respecto a los preceptos rituales, una actitud que se vuelve casi idolatra cuando se obedecen los preceptos por el mero hecho de obedecerlos. Lo que Jesús enseña es que el cumplimiento de los preceptos rituales externos solo tiene valor cuando simboliza nuestra predisposición interior a cumplir la voluntad de Dios. Nuestras vidas deben obedecer el precepto supremo de Dios: amar a Dios por encima de todo y al prójimo igual que nos amamos a nosotros. La religión católica es rica en costumbres, tradiciones e incluso preceptos. Al seguir escuchando la voz de Cristo, siempre debemos examinar nuestro corazón y nuestras prácticas rituales para asegurarnos de que el amor a Dios y al prójimo se halle por encima de todo lo demás.
