IN HONOR OF BRS. ALPHONSUS BROWN & CHARLES PRATT, OH

On July 9, Good Shepherd Manor held a reception for Brother

Alphonsus Brown during the time of his retirement. A letter was sent to Bishop Ronald Hicks' office from Brother David Lynch, OH (Provincial Superior of the Hospitalier Order to St. John of God), stating that Br. Alphonsus and fellow retired Hospitalier Br. Charles Pratt will be leaving Momence later this year to enjoy their senior years with their fellow brothers in Albuquerque, NM. If you wish to write the good brothers, their address is below...

GOOD SHEPHERD MANOR 4129 N STATE ROUTE 1-17 17 MOMENCE, IL 60954

We have included an excerpt of an article about Brother Alphonsus, originally posted in the Daily Journal on October 30, 2013. — Fr. Pete

You can send him to nursing school. You can put him in the laundry. You can even put him in charge of swimming pool safety. Just do not put him on a pedestal.

That is the attitude that has made Brother Alphonsus Liguori (Brown), one of the most respected leaders in the 50+ year history of the Good Shepherd Manor in Momence. Liguori was there the day this home for developmentally disabled men opened its doors in March, 1971.

Known as Michael Brown, he became Alphonsus Liguori when he joined the Little Brothers of the Good Shepherd. And now the (70+ old) is much more than the assistant administrator here. Some employees consider him the embodiment of the spirit that makes this place special.

And now, even the street that leads from Illinois Route 1 to the campus -- that now houses 122 residents and employs 160 -- bears his name: Br. Alphonsus Drive. "I usually take the service road so I don't see that," he said with good-natured embarrassment. "I take my calling seriously, but I also believe that everyone has a calling. I certainly do not think that I should be on a pedestal."

CHANGES OVER TIME

So, he still goes quietly about his daily work, rarely taking time away from the men here, many of whom have grown old with him over the past four decades. Or, as he puts it, Good Shepherd "sort of 'aged up' with the residents. We went from programs such as Boy Scouts to a workshop setting where the guys can learn a job and earn a paycheck," he said.

The average age of the residents is now fifty-seven. By the way, Liguori completed that nursing course at Kankakee Community College and now provides those services for residents. He has done it all and enjoyed each step. He enjoyed his time in charge of the laundry and his time as a lifeguard, but the pool in the gym is no longer in service. And these days administrative duties take more of his time.

"My role and the role of the brothers in general are some of the biggest changes I have seen," he said. "There used to be fourteen of us and something like thirty-five employees, mostly specialists -- cooks and such.

"And I had a hidden dream that I might have been a teacher," Br. Alphonsus said. "But, who knows, maybe I would have been terrible at that. I am happy with my choice."

[Jesus said,] “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

JOHN 6:51

The Wisdom Journey

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

On the journey of life, how does one know when to keep struggling to make the dream come true, to continue pushing and refusing to surrender, or when to pull back, to recognize it was not meant to be and accept that? One thinks, perhaps one more effort will bring success. But our insistence may be our ego striving for something which, in the end, would be to our detriment. How does one know?

Though one can never be sure, there may be a moment when life calls us to surrender. When Elijah found himself rushing to escape the fearsome revenge of Queen Jezebel, whose 450 prophets of Baal he had bested and consigned to the netherworld, he fled into the desert, sat down beneath a broom tree, and prayed for death (1 Kings 18:22–19:4). Life as a prophet of God had become too much to bear. He had surrendered, yet it was at this point that he was fed by God to continue the journey.

The Gospel’s message is that we shall all be taught by God. There comes a time to recognize that God’s wisdom is greater than our own and we must be open to a different path of life than what we had anticipated. It is one of God’s ways of teaching us, of feeding us with wisdom to seek another course. ●

Reflect

Do you find it difficult to change your mind, to accept that someone else may be correct, to believe and apply the challenging message of the Gospel?

Dear Padre,

I miss the use of incense. Is it forbidden or out of style?

Incense is not out of style, nor is it forbidden. It is still burned to signify that Christ's sacrifice ascends to God as an odor of sweetness and as a sign of people's prayers rising to the throne of God. In the Book of Revelation, we read: "Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a gold censer. He was given a great quantity of incense to offer, along with the prayers of all the holy ones, on the gold altar that was before the throne. The smoke of the incense along with the prayers of the holy ones went up before God from the hand of the angel" (Revelation 8:3-4).

Incense is a resinous substance obtained by cutting into the bark of a fir or pine tree. The original meaning of the Hebrew word for incense was "fragrant smoke." Ancient Jews burned incense as an act of worship in the tabernacle and temple. Scripture mentions incense often (Ephesians 5:2 and Philippians 4:18, for instance).

Today, incense is often used at the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, at funerals, and during other special liturgical celebrations to highlight the festivity of a particular occasion. Celebrants may also use incense in any liturgy to bless the congregation, the altar, the book of the Gospels, and the gifts of bread and wine. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Without [Jesus], rather than living, we get by: because he alone nourishes the soul; he alone forgives us from that evil that we cannot overcome on our own; he alone makes us feel loved even if everyone else disappoints us; he alone gives us the strength to love and, he alone gives us the strength to forgive.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1973 Juan A. Espinosa escribió la canción "Santa María del Camino" con la cual invita a la Madre de Dios a caminar con sus hermanos y hermanas en la fe. La canción reta al creyente a caminar a pesar de lo difícil que puede ser y a luchar por los cambios que solo el Reino de Dios puede realizar. En todo esto María es invitada a caminar con el creyente. En esta semana recordamos la Asunción de María al cielo, y lo hacemos reconociendo que además de ser Madre de Dios y madre nuestra, ella también es nuestra hermana y compañera en el camino de la fe. Ella ha llegado a la meta de nuestra peregrinación y lo ha hecho en cuerpo y alma por un privilegio singular. Nosotros también lo haremos en los últimos días cuando nuestro cuerpo resucite para unirse con nuestra alma. Es en vista de los últimos tiempos que invitamos a María a descender de sus altares, regresando del cielo una y otra vez para caminar con sus hermanas y hermanos, en la fe, que tanto necesitan su ejemplo y apoyo.

FORTALECIDOS POR EL PAN DE VIDA

Hoy retomamos el discurso sobre el "Pan de Vida" del Evangelio según san Juan que comenzó hace dos semanas. Juan alude a los ancestros de los judíos que comieron el mana en el desierto. Hoy pensaríamos sobre todo en el pueblo de Israel caminando por el desierto, pero los judíos fieles también conocían el relato de Elías que escuchamos hoy. Elías comió y bebió en el desierto, y con la fuerza de aquel alimento, el ángel del Señor lo envió en su viaje de cuarenta días y cuarenta noches (la cifra bíblica que simboliza un tiempo de preparación). De la misma manera que el alimento que recibió Elías en el desierto, Jesús le dice a su público que él es pan para la vida del mundo. Es muy importante que sigamos escuchando a Jesús después de su promesa de vida eterna, sin duda es una promesa maravillosa, pero esta "recompensa" no es la única razón para darnos un festín con el Pan de Vida. También vamos a la mesa con el fin de recibir fuerzas para el camino de la misión, de manera que el mundo entero pueda tener vida en la plenitud de Cristo. Si hemos comido el pan de vida, estamos obligados a servir a todos.
