NEWS & NOTES

FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list pjankowski@yahoo.com

Bless me, Brothers and Sisters, for I have sinned...

You may have noticed this year that I have not been running a "full court press" on our 50/50 Border Town Picnic Raffle on September 13, which is up to $1,500 for the First Prize, $500 for the Second Prize and $250 for our Third Prize. To be honest, things have been going so well at both parishes that we have been focusing on parking lots and other repairs (we recently had to repair the rectory roof which had been damaged with years of water leakage and about $10,000 to repair a church wall for the same reason). So many good souls have been very generous of their resources to help us out at both parishes – we are so grateful for all the help we are getting!

Now that the picnic is about three weeks away, perhaps we should try to focus on what we are doing. The picnic begins with a 10:30 a.m. bilingual Mass at St. Patrick's Grotto (weather permitting), followed by Polka and Easy Listening Music by the Ray Koncar trio and Old Time Rock 'n Roll by the Fender Benders. Leigh Ann Sokoloff is working on the Rummage Sale (there will be no Rummage Sale at St. Anne's this year). We also will have our games for the kids, caterer and parishioner Kyle Volek on the grill (along with the Taqueria el Country Food Truck), and so much more! The more tickets we sell for the 50/50 Raffle, the higher the prize; tickets are located in the entranceways of our churches and at the parish offices.

Among the raffle prizes in store are a 50" Samsung Class M70H AI Companion Smart TV (I purchase this each year to broadcast our previous Picnic Online Masses) and an Apple 11-inch A16 chip, 11-inch Model iPad, courtesy of Law Rae Farms.

We will be selling tickets for these Raffle Prizes in upcoming weeks.

I also would ask you prayerfully to consider helping us with whatever donations that you can. Maintaining our buildings and property has been quite a task lately. Your contributions are essential for the well-being of our parishes. St. Anne's needs to maintain a $2,000 weekly collection to maintain her well-being; St. Patrick's needs $3,000 weekly. We would be doing a service to future generations by considering a will or estate planning gift for each parish as well.

If we truly believe in the gospel message from Philippians 2: 3 (faith is about God and emptying ourselves for the sake of the other), we then understand what good we do in supporting our parishes.

St. Anne's Blessed Water / Oil $2 a Bottle

St. Anne's Mugs $10 Each or Three for $20

Prayer to St. Anne
O God, You bestowed on St. Anne such grace that she was found worthy to become the mother of Mary, who brought forth Your only begotten Son. Grant that we may be helped by her intercession.

Who Do You Say That I Am?

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

“Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” An easy answer if you just report what other people say and what you have heard. No commitment. No revelation. No risk. But it all changes when the question is more to the point: “Who do you say that I am?” Tell me what you know, not what you heard. The silence is almost deafening. Vulnerability, not just anonymous reporting, is required in the asked-for response. No surprise—it is Peter who answers. Never one to hide his emotions or edit his thoughts, it is Peter who reveals what he knows, perhaps even what he is unsure of, perhaps the truth that he only hopes for but has not yet declared. “You are the Messiah, the Son of the Living God” (Matthew 16:16).

Jesus responds with a prayer of blessing; the apostles, on the other hand, remain silent. Although we are very familiar with Peter’s assent of faith, his declaration was almost unheard-of or unexpected from a first-century Jewish man. It was dangerous to identify someone as Messiah. It was blasphemous to name someone as the Son of the Living God. Yet, in faith and humility, Peter made the declaration and, in the naming, entrusted his life, his hope, and all that he believed firmly into the hands of Jesus. This was no simple act. This was no ordinary day. ●

Simon Peter said in reply, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the Living God.”

MATTHEW 16:16

Reflect

How would you answer if Jesus asked you, “Who do you say that I am?” (He is asking you!)

Dear Padre,

Can a non-Catholic serve and hold an office in a Catholic parish organization?

According to their knowledge, competence, and position, the Christian faithful have an obligation to assist in the necessary works of the Church and promote the common good of the parish—its worship, its apostolic mission, its charities, the care of its ministers, and its care of the poor. (See Code of Canon Law, 222.) In general, canon law and most diocesan regulations stipulate that members of primary decision-making entities must be active, registered Catholics who participate in the sacramental life of the Church. For example, members of a pastoral council must be “in full communion with the Catholic Church” (CCL 512 §1). However, non-Catholics—such as spouses of parishioners or experts in their fields (e.g., finance, law, architecture)—are sometimes invited to lend their skills by serving on advisory boards and committees or in other support roles that are usually in a non-voting capacity. In all cases, the pastor or bishop has the discretion to involve non-Catholics in specific initiatives. For instance, a bishop “can invite as observers to the diocesan synod other ministers or members of churches or ecclesial communities which are not in full communion with the Catholic Church” (CCL, 463 §3). A non-Catholic interested in serving should consult the local priest about available opportunities, based on the norms of a diocese. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

I genuinely hope that our Christian lifestyle will always reflect this fraternal, “Samaritan” spirit—one that is welcoming, courageous, committed, and supportive, rooted in our union with God and our faith in Jesus Christ. Enkindled by this divine love, we will surely be able to give of ourselves for the good of all who suffer, especially our brothers and sisters who are sick, elderly, or afflicted.

22-23 Agosto 2026: XXI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Más del 40% de la población católica en Estados Unidos es de origen hispano y solo el 6% de los sacerdotes son hispanos. Hay algo que está mal en las cifras. Parte del problema es que en los seminarios estadounidenses no saben qué hacer con las vocaciones y culturas hispanas. Por otra parte, los hispanos deseamos que nuestros hijos tengan mejor vida y la vocación sacerdotal no constituye un lugar privilegiado en la escala social.

Ciertamente, había un tiempo en que los sacerdotes se trataban con mucho respeto, ya no. Últimamente la escasez de sacerdotes y los escándalos en la Iglesia han hecho que el sacerdocio pierda mucho de su encanto. La vida sacerdotal se ha hecho muy difícil. Hoy día el joven que busca el sacerdocio lo busca por servicio y vocación, no por prestigio o posición social.

El sacerdocio es un apostolado que se recibe con el sacramento del Orden. Ser ordenado es recibir órdenes, es decir, ser obediente. Hoy más que nunca, el sacerdote está llamado a la misma obediencia de Jesucristo, obediencia que lo llevó a la cruz y a la resurrección.

Oremos por nuestros sacerdotes para que su entrega sea total.
