News & Notes

From Fr. Pete Jankowski

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list at pjankowski@yahoo.com.

This week is one of those "feel good" ones for your Catholic priest for a couple of reasons. First, I received a phone call from the University of St. Francis, informing me that the Freshman Class at the University is BOOMING! to the point that now the dean's office needs more courses to accommodate the new students attending the school. Thus, your local parish priest now will be teaching a third course this semester, a basic "Theo 101" Course for the nursing students attending college in Joliet (which goes along with the Course in the New Testament and my twice-a-year Course entitled, "The Theology of Death & Dying" (go figure why students like the course so much that I have taught it every semester for the last five years! My course must be really easy…).

The other piece of uplifting news concerns Good Shepherd Manor's 34th Annual Fall Festival on September 13 from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Food, beverages, games and activities will be available for purchase and all proceeds benefit the programs and services that the Manor offers over one-hundred men with developmental and intellectual disabilities.

I celebrate as Mass for the residents at least once a month (normally on the second Thursday) at 1:00 p.m. When Brothers Alphonsus Brown and Charles Pratt left the facility in November of last year, I promised the staff at the Manor that I would serve as their chaplain, since the Manor falls within my jurisdiction and it is the right thing to do. As I did with our parishioners on the Feast of the Assumption (August 15), I was preaching to the residents on the Vigil of that Feast, thanking the mothers of the world for the one unique gift that they provide to the world that men cannot – the gift of giving birth. Regardless whom the mother is, that one gift alone afforded each of us life and for that we should be eternally grateful.

As I preached at all the Masses on the Feast of the Assumption, I reminded the residents how mother Jean Gibson specifically moved to our area to be close to her son Matthew, who lived at Good Shepherd for many years before he died on January 7, 2020. After his funeral, Mother Jean chose to remain in the area because she loved our community as much as she did. Jean's legacy at the parish will be remembered by me every time I look at the "Divine Mercy" image that adorns our church in Momence. Without Matthew, Jean would not have lived in Momence and without Jean, we would not have adorned that image of the Divine Mercy so readily.

I also reflect on how the Hispanic Community at our parishes are so immersed in the Carmelite tradition of the "brown scapular," something in which Jean invested in all our children receiving first communion each year. The blessings from the Manor come not just from the residents but from their families as well into our families. God bless the residents at the Manor – if you would like to support them, please call them at ☎ (815) 472-3700.

Life Out of Focus

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

I found myself angry the other day, as we all do, I suppose, whenever we put our foot in our mouth, or forget about an important engagement, or scramble whatever it was we had hoped would be picture-perfect. What I had scrambled was a homily. For some reason, the image came out wrong, or the example did not fit, or it just did not come together the way I had hoped. And I was angry with myself to the point that it caught me off guard. It was an unexpected glimpse of what I didn't want to admit: the fact that the way people might perceive me as a preacher had taken on more importance than preaching God's word. Life had gotten out of focus. A perspective had been lost.

It happens to us all in the course of our lifetimes, and more than once. Grades become more important than learning, or being right more important than the relationship, or the address of where we live more important than the people living together. It happens between parent and child when a parent places greater significance on the son's or daughter's profession than on that son's or daughter's happiness. Like in the parable of Jesus, where we sit at table takes on greater meaning than the people who gather or the meal that is shared. That is what pride does. It distorts what is real and shifts the focus of life to ourselves. The antidote? A prayerful awareness of who we are and who God is. ●

Reflect

What is more important to me than it should be?

Dear Padre,

TACIO PHILIP SANSONOVSKI / SHUTTERSTOCK

Is it sacrilegious to throw away a sacramental?

"Sacramentals do not confer the grace of the Holy Spirit in the way that the sacraments do, but by the Church's prayer, they prepare us to receive and dispose us to cooperate with it" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1670). Therefore, sacramentals confer grace through the Church's power of prayer and, if blessed, should not be thrown away but burned and/or buried. If the object has not been blessed, it can be discarded; however, it could also be donated to a Catholic ministry (school, prison, hospital, etc.) that would benefit from its distribution. (If a religious object was included in an unsolicited appeal letter from a charitable organization, it is safe to assume that it was not blessed.)

If the object is worn or broken, it should be substantially altered so that it loses its form as a sacramental and then returned to the earthly elements. For example, a worn scapular should be burned and the ashes buried; a damaged statue should be further broken into smaller fragments and buried. A European tradition on the Vigil of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist (June 23) is to burn old sacramentals in bonfires and bury the ashes. Burning and/or burial respects the sacred nature once held by these items and prevents their adaptation for trivial use. Reverence and discretion are proper for whatever method of disposal. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

To follow [Jesus]...means "carrying one's cross": shouldering, like him, one's own burdens and those of others, making one's life a gift, not a possession, spending it in imitation of his own generous and merciful love for us. These are decisions that engage the totality of our lives.

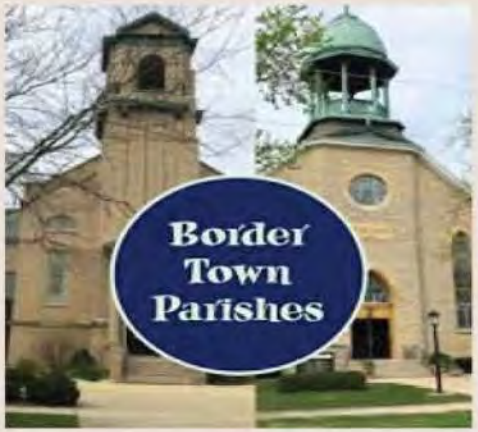
Consider These Opportunities:

- Tithe your estate. The ancient standard of 10% can do a world of good.
- Imagine that you have a child named "Charity" that will receive a portion of your estate similar to your other children or heirs.
- Name your church as the "residuary beneficiary" of your estate.
- Make a gift that will permanently endow your annual pledge to your church. (General rule: Gift amount x 5% = your annual pledge.) You may create this fund directly through your St. Patrick or St. Anne Foundation with a gift of at least $10,000.



Beneficiary Designations

The "easy bequest." Name your church as the beneficiary of an IRA, a qualified retirement plan, an insurance policy or other assets. There can also be tax advantages to this type of gift.

All donors should consult with their own professional advisors to ensure that an estate plan meets their unique goals and complies with all legal requirements. 31 Agosto 2025: XXII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Por esta época recordamos la natividad de María, madre de Jesús. María es muy popular entre muchos pueblos y en especial en los pueblos latinos. Al principio del mes de septiembre dos naciones toman la fiesta de su nacimiento para recordarla bajo el titulo de la Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre en Cuba y de Nuestra Señora de Coromoto en Venezuela. La Virgen del Cobre fue descubierta en el siglo XVI por dos indígenas y un niño africano llamados los tres Juanes, cuando estos fueron al mar en busca de sal. Después de una fuerte tempestad ellos encontraron flotando sobre las olas una pequeña imagen de María con el Niño Dios en brazos. La imagen flotaba sobre una tabla que decía yo soy la Virgen de la Caridad. También en el siglo XVI la Virgen se le apareció al cacique de los indígenas Coromoto en Venezuela. Estos resistían la evangelización y ella se apareció sobre las aguas invitándolos al bautizo cristiano. Estas dos manifestaciones marianas llevan a Jesús en brazos recordándonos que María nada puede sin Cristo. - Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM,

Humildad

La lectura de hoy del Eclesiástico ensalza lo que será el tema del Evangelio de hoy: la humildad. El orgullo hace que exijamos a los demás que exalten nuestro estatus, pero la humildad nos lleva a ver las cosas más claramente. La segunda lectura es un estudio de contrastes: por un lado la entrega de las Tablas de la Ley en el Monte Sinaí, y por otro la entrega de la salvación en el monte Sión. La primera fue recibida con solemnidad, misterio, hasta con temor. Pero los cristianos no deben temer. Subir al monte de Dios con Jesús, "el mediador de la nueva alianza" es una experiencia alegre y espléndida.

La parábola en el Evangelio de hoy se refiere al peligro del orgullo y a la necesidad de la humildad. La imagen de la fiesta del banquete, con frecuencia usada por Jesús, es un símbolo de la abundancia del cielo y del cumplimiento de las promesas de Dios. La parábola no es simplemente un buen consejo sobre cómo evitar pasar una vergüenza; se trata de la salvación.
