NEWS & NOTES

FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list pjankowski@yahoo.com

Next week culminates a whole slew of summer As we celebrate our Border Town Community Picnic on September 13, we are most grateful for everyone who has made this event possible. The way for us to get into heaven is to show God that we truly are One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church, that we are a welcoming community that treats every person that walks through our doors as a treasured guest, created by God. From the way a person is greeted at the door of our church and rectory (Mircea Eliade would call these doors the separation between "the sacred and the profane") shows God the disposition in our hearts; that disposition reveals the kind of person we are and whether we truly wish to enter the gates of heaven or not. Hopefully, each of us can welcome the visitors that grace us, both in church, in our homes and communities and certainly at our community picnic on September 13.

I would like to thank everyone who benefited from our Amazon Food Extravaganza on Friday, August 28. Periodically, our friends at Amazon are able to provide a whole slew of food for the needy. In this particular case, we received over FOUR HUNDRED meals that were given to the good souls of this area, many of whom are in great need.

St. Patrick's Parishioner Paul Bukowski was kind enough to drive up to Manhattan, IL to pick up the motherload of lunch packs, carnitas, corn & beans and salad for our parishioners. After delivering all the food to the St. Pat's basement (thank you Artemio Ojeda for helping us get the food to our basement!), our food journey began with feeding the Momence Police Department prior to one of their meetings today. Later on, the Momence football team (thanks to Diane Marcotte for helping us out!), who were going down south for a couple of games stopped by for some food and drink. We made sure that our food pantries in the area were stocked up and then Diane Rumbach from the Momence Food Pantry stayed to help us distribute the rest of the food. I also wish to thank Bev Witvoet, Betty Wielgus and their families for working with us in collecting food and supplies for our needy over at St. Anne's. On September 4, I rented and drove a twenty-foot U-Haul to Chicago to pick up a few pallets of water for our needy; our local food pantries and parishes become the beneficiaries of this kindness so we are blessed with all the assistance we have received in our "corner" parish communities in the diocese.

During the month of August, we celebrated the last of our FIVE quinceañeras and TEN baptisms for the month at our parishes. We offer the welcome to every person receiving sacraments, knowing full well in the story of the ten lepers that most we serve will not come back to say "thanks" but we serve each person anyway because God calls us to do so. We have an obligation to be loving and welcoming to every person walking through our doors, regardless of their disposition. There are so many good souls with so many needs... and just one priest! We minister to ALL of you and WE LOVE ALL OF YOU in God's name, no matter who you are! Please do not forget this... - Fr. Pete

The Debt We Have in Common

THOMAS M. SANTA, CSsR

As we hear today's Gospel of the servant whose enormous debt is forgiven, yet who refuses mercy to a fellow servant owing far less, we cannot help but ask: how can this be? This is the first question that comes to mind. How could a person be forgiven so much and then, just a few minutes later, refuse to forgive something inconsequential in comparison? Selfishness doesn't really explain it. Being so full of oneself doesn't explain it. Being completely dense and obtuse is perhaps closer to the truth, but even that explanation comes up short.

The truth is that the exaggeration of the debt is secondary to the story. What is essential to the story is the invitation to reflect on what it means to be a human being. It is to acknowledge that, when all is said and done, everyone owes a huge debt. No one is exempt from gratitude. An honest acceptance of who we are—completely and totally dependent on God who created us—is the core truth. To be so disconnected from this truth as to not recognize one's own dependence and be completely unaware of the need to be grateful—that is the real challenge the story considers. ●

How am I at forgiveness—with others and with myself?

Can one refuse mercy
to a sinner like oneself, yet seek pardon for one's own sins?

SIRACH 28:4

Dear Padre,

If Catholics say the Confiteor at Mass, then why do we still need to go to confession?

Recall when Jesus told Simon and his fishing companions to lower their nets after they had caught nothing. (See Luke 5:1–11.) When their boats began to sink with so many fish, Simon fell at Jesus' feet and said, "Leave me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." Likewise, at Mass, we're so filled with awe upon entering the presence of God that we become aware of our own sinfulness.

The penitential act prepares the assembly to enter the celebration in a proper spirit of humility. The priest and the faithful observe a period of silence to acknowledge their sinfulness and confess their awe of Christ's love and mercy. This is expressed in different forms, one of which is the Confiteor, a general confession that invokes the support of the communion of saints and the specific community gathered at Mass. It includes the instruction to strike one's breast, an ancient gesture of humility and penitence. (See Luke 18:13; 23:48.) The rite concludes with the priest's absolution, but it "lacks the efficacy of the sacrament of penance" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 51). Thus, the penitential act isn't a substitute for absolution from sins confessed in the sacrament of penance, particularly serious, mortal sins. Rather, it prepares the faithful as a unified community to properly listen to God's word and celebrate the Eucharist worthily (GIRM 46). ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

In the Church there is...a place for everyone, and... every Christian is called to proclaim the gospel and bear witness in every environment.... Thus, this people shows its catholicity, welcoming the wealth and resources of different cultures and, at the same time, offering them the newness of the gospel to purify them and to raise them up.

WELCOME to CHURCH

we're glad you're here

THE GIFT OF WELCOMING INTO CHURCH / EL DON DE ACOGER EN LA IGLESIA

Welcoming newcomers into church is both a spiritual calling and a practical ministry. It reflects the heart of God's love and is rooted in Scripture, such as Romans 15:7, which urges believers to "welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you." This act of hospitality is not just about making a good first impression; it's about creating a culture where every person feels seen, valued, and included. / Acoger a los recién llegados a la iglesia es tanto un llamado espiritual como un ministerio práctico. Refleja el corazón del amor de Dios y tiene su fundamento en las Escrituras, como en Romanos 15:7, que exhorta a los creyentes a «acogerse los unos a los otros, tal como Cristo los acogió a ustedes». Este acto de hospitalidad no se trata solo de causar una buena primera impresión; se trata de crear una cultura donde cada persona se sienta vista, valorada e incluida.

WHY IT MATTERS / POR QUÉ ES IMPORTANTE

From a biblical perspective, welcoming is an act of redemption — knowing that we too were once outsiders brought near by God biblemeans.com. It mirrors God's own openness to the stranger, as seen in Abraham's tent (Genesis 18) and Jesus' open arms on the cross. In practice, it fosters belonging, reduces barriers, and can lead to deeper spiritual growth for both the newcomer and the congregation. / Desde una perspectiva bíblica, la acogida es un acto de redención: reconocer que nosotros también fuimos alguna vez ajenos y fuimos acercados por Dios. Refleja la apertura de Dios hacia el desconocido, como se vio en la tienda de Abraham (Génesis 18) y en los brazos abiertos de Jesús en la cruz. En la práctica, fomenta el sentido de pertenencia, reduce barreras y puede conducir a un crecimiento espiritual más profundo tanto para el recién llegado como para la congregación.

GIFTS THAT REFLECT THE GIFT OF WELCOME / DONES QUE REFLEJAN EL DON DE LA ACOGIDA

True welcome isn't a one-time event - it's woven into the congregation's daily life. This means: Praying for new people to be brought in. In essence, the gift of welcoming into church is both a spiritual act and a relational ministry. It begins in the heart, is expressed through intentional actions, and is sustained by a culture that values every person as a beloved child of God. / Una verdadera acogida no es un evento aislado; está entrelazada en la vida cotidiana de la congregación. Esto implica: Orar para que lleguen nuevas personas. En esencia, el don de acoger en la iglesia es tanto un acto espiritual como un ministerio relacional. Comienza en el corazón, se expresa mediante acciones intencionales y se sostiene gracias a una cultura que valora a cada persona como un hijo amado de Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1535 los frailes mercedarios construyeron la primera iglesia en Lima Perú dedicada a su patrona, Nuestra Señora de la Merced. Esta orden religiosa se remonta al siglo XIII, mientras algunos musulmanes tomaban prisioneros cristianos en España. Era su misión rescatar a los cautivos, incluso, hasta tomar su lugar si fuera necesario.

Con el paso de los siglos, los mercedarios se han dedicado a rescatar todo tipo de cautivos del abuso social. Por tal razón, muchas imágenes de la Virgen de Nuestra Señora de la Merced la pintan con dos bolsitas de monedas usadas para comprar la libertad de los encarcelados o esclavizados o carga cadenas abiertas como símbolo de libertad. Esta patrona de Perú recuerda el deseo latinoamericano de la liberación. Este deseo de liberación se ha convertido en un compromiso urgente para la Iglesia latinoamericana en protesta por los muchos abusos por parte de militares, guerrilleros y carteles de la droga que amenazan la libertad. Jesús vino a liberarnos del pecado y sus consecuencias y su madre (la Merced) ayuda fielmente en esa obra. Su Iglesia no puede hacer otra cosa sino lo mismo. - Fray Gilberto Cavazos Glz, OFM, Copyright © J S Paluch Co.

¡GRACIAS!

Nos gustaría agradecer a todos los que han apoyado nuestro Picnic Comunitario de Border Town este fin de semana. Su apoyo acogedor a aquellos que han estado alejados, marginados y a los que no tenían esperanza ha permitido que muchas almas buenas encuentren una Iglesia que han llamado "hogar".

Durante el mes de Agosto, hemos celebrado tantas Misas, Quinceañeras, Matrimonios y Bautizos (y también algunos funerales). Al acoger a los demás, aprendemos en las escrituras que Dios nos acoge a nosotros.

Por favor, sigan rezando por las buenas almas que apoyan tanto a la Iglesia de San Patricio como a la Iglesia de Santa Ana. Tengan en cuenta que seguimos rezando con ustedes y apoyándolos también.

LECTURAS DE HOY

PRIMERA LECTURA - No podemos fomentar el rencor y esperar que se nos perdonen nuestros pecados (Siracide 27: 30 -28: 7).

SALMO - El Señor es bondadoso y misericordioso. [Salmo 103 (102)].

SEGUNDA LECTURA - Ya sea que vivamos o muramos, lo hacemos en Cristo (Rom 14: 7-9).

EVANGELIO - Jesús dice que debemos perdonar no solo siete veces sino setenta veces siete veces (Mateo 18: 21-35).
