We ended up sending fifteen cases of water and ten cases of chips with the students back to the high school. I heard that the "Cheeto-palooza" went down very well with a bunch of 13 to 18-year-olds last Friday afternoon.

Then on September 6, Nick Skokna stopped by St. Patrick's to deliver an entire van full of fresh meals and produce from the Costco Store in Oak Brook for our needy! Most of the food was gone in a half an hour - the rest found a home at the St. Anne Food Pantry.

On September 5, we were blessed to celebrate the "Circle of Life" at our parishes as well. At 2:00 p.m., I was given the opportunity to celebrate the ELEVENTH BAPTISM IN THIRTY DAYS over at St. Anne's Church for the family of Yaritza Itzel, preceded at 1:00 p.m. with a special blessing and the bestowal of a papal certificate upon Frank & Virginia Pilotte, who celebrated their 75th Wedding Anniversary on August 4th. In my thirty years as a priest, this is only the second time that I have blessed a couple crossing the 75-year threshold, the first time taking place ten years earlier with the blessing of John & Lucille Staroska in Romeoville (I actually found a photo of that event so I included it with the rotating pictures). If I can make it to my 40th anniversary as a priest, I am hoping to celebrate with yet another 75th anniversary!

Also on September 6, Tom & Crystal Klonowski from St. Anne's Church hosted a complimentary breakfast for the community after the 9:00 a.m. Mass, with the hope of raising funds for the Church's $60,000 parking lot project. Crystal works with the Casey grocery store company and was able to get donated foods for the event. Because of the good work of Tom, Crystal and so many others, we raised over $1,300 towards the parking lot in a Parish that only collects $1,200 a week in their collection on average! For the good souls at St. Anne, this was a monumental effort that they are going to repeat on September 20. We might have good news on the

Now that we are on the other side of our Border town Community Picnic, there is so much for which we should be thankful in our little slice of heaven here in our "Periphery Churches" of the Joliet Diocese. Many exceedingly grace-filled moments highlight God's presence in our Churches the last couple of weeks that have benefited so many good souls in our area. At 5:00 am last Friday morning, St. Patrick's parish-ioner Joe Bravo and I drove a 20-foot U-Haul truck to Chicago, where the two of us picked up FIVE PALLETS OF WATER for the needy of our area. Backing our U-Haul into a loading area, a forklift loaded the pallets of water into our vehicle; Joe told me that the weight of the pallets made the drive back home much more difficult than the drive to Chicago (thank goodness Joe was driving instead of me!).

Upon our return at 8:30 AM, we were met by Five Students from Momence High School, who helped us unload the pallets of water, along with volunteers from both food pantries from St. Anne and Momence. It was then that we distributed hundreds of cases of water to the needy in our area, as well as stocking up water for our picnic this upcoming Sunday.

Next Up!

MIGUEL DULICK

I keep hearing preachers say this is their least favorite gospel, because it makes people so mad! All the workers in a vineyard get a full day's pay—which folks interpret as heaven—even the ones who came at the last hour of the afternoon. "You mean, I work hard my whole life, and some nobody from nowhere just waltzes into heaven ahead of me?" But wait a minute! You think you deserve your "pay"? None of us is anywhere or anything, even breathing, without God's grace. It's not a competition; it's our only hope! We should be dancing in the street to celebrate God's generosity. Matthew himself must have chuckled at this parable, since he was also a latecomer, having spent his life grinding his own brothers and sisters into poverty to feed the tax maw of the Roman Empire. Then, Jesus called him! I love the twist in the parable: the owner not only pays the last ones equally, but he pays them first!

If you don't like standing in line, you could be like Paul, who wants to just skip to the end: "I long to depart this life and be with Christ" (Philippians 1:23). As he says, "To me life is Christ, and death is gain"

(Philippians 1:21). We should all be so eager. Just concentrate on the "fruitful labor" of service to others. Put everyone else ahead of you, and don't be afraid of some hard work. Any vineyard is a challenge, even when that vineyard is the Church. ● are your ways my ways, [says] the Lord.

ISAIAH 55:8

Reflect

Do I feel more deserving than others or struggle with envy?

Dear Padre,

Adam and Eve had two sons and maybe others not mentioned in the Bible. How were others born without having committed incest?

This is a perfectly valid question, and one that I think many people have probably asked themselves at one time or another. Unfortunately, it is the wrong question, because it does not reflect the true meaning of the story.

The story about Adam and Eve is not a literal story or, in other words, a story that would be reported by CNN or FOX News. It is a teaching story, intended to encourage belief in the creative power of God at work in his creation. It is not, nor has it ever been, a literal step-by-step tutorial of the early days of the human race.

The bible includes different literary forms: narrative or history, poetry and songs, parables, letters, genealogies, and more. Knowing what form is being used, the purpose of the passage, who is writing or talking, and the intended audience is the work of Scripture scholars. The story of creation is not intended to be literal; it is inspirational. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

It is a great sign of hope—especially in our times, traversed by so many conflicts and wars—to know that the Church is a people in which women and men of different nationalities, languages, and cultures live together in faith: it is...a reminder and prophecy of that unity and peace to which God the Father calls all his children.

Pictured here is the 75TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AND PAPAL BLESSING OF FRANK & VIRGINIA PILOTTE, offered at the Bourbonnais Senior Care Facility. This is only the second time in Fr. Pete's thirty years as a priest that he has been afforded the opportunity to recognize a couple that had made it to 75!!! Congratulations and God Bless, Frank & Virginia!

parking lot front over at St. Anne in October, so please stay tuned.

Concerning Our Fifth Annual Border Town Community Picnic this Sunday, I wish to thank Kyle Volek who donated all the hamburgers and hot dogs for the event (as he did for St. Anne's Day), the Andrade family bringing their food truck with Hispanic fare and craft ice cream (they donated 20% of their proceeds to both parishes). Ted Peterson and Van Drunen Farms donated two-hundred pounds of fire-roasted corn to both parishes and we received so many gift baskets and prizes that we decided to spread out the raffles throughout the year – we received too many baskets!

I also wish to thank Bryant Aguirre (our twenty-year old Youth Ministry Guru) for stepping up to take over the Rummage Sale when Leigh Ann Sokoloff injured herself in a dreaded "Pickleball" accident (I didn't even know you could injure yourself in Pickleball!). Our parishes' futures are dependent on our next generation of parishioners stepping forward like Tom & Crystal Klonowski and Bryant Aguirre (among so many others).

Online, I uploaded the 14-minute homily I previously recorded from the Online Picnic Mass with these Notes, which highlight all the wonderful things that have been accomplished the last several years at St. Patrick's - not through Capital Campaigns but through Christian Charity, "Love thy neighbor," "Do unto others," and your kindness and love towards the cause! One biscuits and gravy breakfast at a time, we are building up our communities to show you how much we love you in God's name!

St. Patrick's parishioner Janice Gelino watched the video last week and wrote me the following response to it... I just looked at your homily for the picnic. When you see the changes gradually over 7 years, it seems fantastic. But when you see them in 14 minutes, it seems impossible. Thanks to all who made this happen.

GOD BLESS HANNAH HERMANN!

Finally... we keep asking all of you to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Like any vocation, serving as a bishop, priest, deacon or religious is a daunting one – as much good as you do, there are so many "trolls" in today's age that want to tear you down, as many of the "Chosen People" did to the prophets in the Old Testament and many so-called leaders of the Church did to Jesus in the

New Testament (to name just two examples). Towards that end, I received the following e-mail from Gary Hermann (son of St. Patrick's parishioner Joanne Hermann), who wrote me the following...

Hannah has contemplated and prayed about a vocation as a religious sister and received an invitation to join the order of the Daughters of St. Paul to explore her vocation as a religious sister. Hannah begins an initial, two-year journey as a Postulant in St. Louis, MO beginning this coming weekend, 12 September 2026. I ask for prayers to strengthen Hannah as she begins discerning with the Daughters of St. Paul to this vocation! Thank you for all you do Father!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Las actas de los mártires son documentos de suma importancia en la Iglesia cristiana. En ellas se encuentra el testimonio de hombres y mujeres que con su sangre dieron testimonio del evangelio. En esta documentación encontramos el testimonio de quienes vieron y presenciaron su martirio. Por ejemplo, un soldado dice de los mártires: "Dormían en el suelo. No /es vi quejarse en ningún momento y estuvieron todo el tiempo rezando y muy recogidos magníficos, unos santos..."

Testimonios como este eran comunes en los primeros siglos del cristianismo cuando en la Roma pagana se perseguía a la Iglesia primitiva.

Lamentablemente, este testimonio no viene de hace 17 o 19 siglos, más bien, viene del siglo

El testimonio del soldado fue acerca del primer santo Argentino, Héctor Valdivieso Sáez y compañeros, quienes fueron asesinados por los comunistas en Asturias, España. Él fue uno de los más de 8000 cristianos martirizados en España, 30,000 en China, incontables en Latinoamérica y otros lugares durante el siglo pasado.
