TOMORROW

ONE MORE TOMORROW

Is anybody happier because you passed this way?

Does anyone remember that you spoke to them today?

This day is almost over,
and its toiling time is through.

Is there anyone to utter now
a kindly word of you?

Can you say tonight in parting with the day that's slipping fast, that you helped a single person
of the many that you passed?

Is a single heart rejoicing
over what you did or said?

Does the one whose hopes were fading
now have courage to look ahead?

Did you waste the day or use it?
Was it well or sorely spent?

Did you leave a trail of kindness,
or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes to slumber,
do you think that God will say:

You have earned one more tomorrow by what you did today?

NEWS & NOTES

FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list

pjankowski@yahoo.com

Thanks to Bud Caise for donating $3,000 towards our Parking Lot Project at our church. We have now reached 85% of our $60,000 goal through your generosity.

As you are very much aware, receiving special graces in this world is a blessing; maintaining what we have been given is a great challenge in life. We have learned this lesson in the life of the faith, the life of a family, a parish campus... and certainly the parking lot at St. Anne's Church!

When we first began to tackle this parking lot project on our church grounds, we came to realize that good souls at our parish had created a lot a good number of years ago but, with time, the sins of the world (in this case = weeds and grass) began to creep through that good work and brought it to the degraded condition that we inherited. Through your kindness and the efforts of our Finance Committee, we were able to renovate the part of our lot that we use for Sunday Masses and certainly for the St. Anne Feast Day and other events. Thanks to Scott Crawford for giving us a significant discount on the lot for this to happen.

I also want to thank Eric Dudeck and his Masonry business for repairing the wall of our side chapel that had been damaged by water over the last decade or so. The cost of the project was $9,500 – Eric was kind enough to donate $2,000 of his services to reduce the final cost to $7,500. I also wish to thank Bill Powers for repairing major damage to our rectory roof; through Bill's generosity (and diocesan insurance), our $4,600 bill was reduced to $1,600.

As I stated in the insert of today's bulletin, none of this is possible except through Christian Charity – the greatest fundraiser of all. God bless. - Fr. Pete

Who Are You Wearing?

MIGUEL DULICK

The closer Jesus gets to his death, the more targeted are his parables, specifically to the “chief priests and elders.” He has no patience with their hypocrisy.

The wedding feast has a long history in the prophets and the psalms, always a glorious celebration of love and delight—God marrying the chosen people. But in today’s gospel, Jesus speaks of the feast as a massacre. When the guests refuse to attend his son’s wedding, and they even kill the messengers sent to invite them, the enraged king amasses his troops to destroy “those murderers” and burn their city to the ground. So, the chosen people are un-chosen. Then, the king tries again, this time sending the servants to “whomever [they] find.” And then comes a beautiful moment: the servants invite the “bad (literally, “evil”) and good alike,” and they fill up the hall! This echoes Jesus’ own promise of the cross: “When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself” (John 12:32).

There is one more twist to the story that keeps Jesus in his own uncompromising space. When the king spots a guest without a “wedding garment,” he binds him hand and foot and throws him out into the darkness. Pretty scary—but do stay with Jesus. Accept the invitation to the banquet. And let Jesus dress you in his own garment of grace. ●

Reflect

Do I show up to the banquet (the Eucharist) prepared to listen, pray, and be fed?

Dear Padre,

In the Creed, we say we believe in the resurrection of the body. So, why is it all right to be cremated?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly states what many find confusing: “It is very commonly accepted that the life of the human person continues in a spiritual fashion after death. But how can we believe that this body, so clearly mortal, could rise to everlasting life?” (CCC 996). The Catechism goes on to address several questions: “What is rising? Who will rise? How? When?” (CCC 997–1001). In essence, “Christ ‘will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body,’ into a ‘spiritual body’” (CCC 999). The disposition or condition of the physical body at death will not affect the spiritual body that is raised. Cremation, decomposition, mutilation or dismemberment by violence, or the donation of one’s body to science—deemed “a noble and meritorious act...to be encouraged as an expression of generous solidarity” (CCC 2296)—does not prevent the resurrection of our glorified body. It is only when the act of cremation appears to be a public denial of faith in the resurrection or the sacredness of the body that the practice is forbidden. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

In the face of...the tragic situations of injustice, violence, and suffering that mark our time, it is essential that our faith be alert, attentive, and prophetic. It should likewise open our eyes to the darkness of the world and bring to others the light of the gospel through our commitment to peace, justice, and solidarity.

My Time

My Talent

My Treasure

While pastoral leaders often speak of stewardship in terms of Time, Talent and Treasure, the truth is that stewardship involves all of human life – body, mind and spirit, our material possessions, friendships, etc. All we are and have is a gift from our Creator for us to use wisely to build up God's kingdom here on earth.

STEWARDSHIP - The Christian steward is one who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord. (Stewardship, a Disciple's Response, the USCCB)

TIME - Time is a very precious gift. Most of us feel we don't have enough time for all the things we want to do. Everyone is given the same amount of time: 24 hours each day, 168 hours each week. The question is: How do we choose to use our time? Henry David Thoreau once said: "It is not enough to be busy, so are ants. The question is what are we busy about?"

TALENT - We have all been blessed with various talents, whether we are aware of it or not, or whether we have developed our talents or not. Ideally, we can and should develop some of them and use them wisely to bless and enhance the Catholic communities we belong to. Stroll through our website (MENU drop down box) for ways you can share your Time and Talent with your church family.

Treasure - There are over 2,300 verses in the Bible about money, possessions and the right use of them. Why is this? Perhaps because God knows our propensity to misuse money or allow it to distract us from keeping our eyes on him.

TIME & TALENT FORM ☐ ST. PATRICK'S ☐ ST. ANNE'S

Stewardship is a Biblical concept that invites us to base our living and loving as Catholic people on Hospitality, Prayer, Formation, and Service. Being good stewards of the gifts, God calls us to be grateful and generous, returning to God a percentage of our Time, Talent & Treasure. At this time each year, we commit our time and talent for the good of the Parish. All parishioners are invited to share their Time. This TIME AND TALENT REGISTRATION FORM offers a variety of programs and activities where you can volunteer your gifts of Time & Talent, making the border town parishes a more vibrant Christian community.

Tiempo - Talento - Tesoro

Si bien los líderes pastorales a menudo hablan de mayordomía en términos de Tiempo, Talento y Tesoro, la verdad es que la mayordomía involucra toda la vida humana -cuerpo, mente y espíritu, nuestras posesiones materiales, amistades, etc. Todo lo que somos y tenemos es un regalo de nuestro Creador para que lo usemos sabiamente para edificar la vida de Dios. reino aquí en la tierra.

MAYORDOMÍA - El mayordomo cristiano es aquel que recibe los dones de Dios con gratitud, los aprecia y los atiende de manera responsable y responsable. manera, los comparte en justicia y amor con los demás, y los devuelve con aumento para el Señor. (Responsabilidad, la respuesta de un discípulo, USCCB)

TIEMPO - El tiempo es un regalo muy preciado. La mayoría de nosotros sentimos que no tenemos suficiente tiempo para todas las cosas que queremos hacer. A todos se les da la misma cantidad de Tiempo: 24 horas cada día, 168 horas cada semana. La pregunta es: ¿Cómo Podemos elegir usar nuestro tiempo? Henry David Thoreau dijo una vez: "No basta estar ocupado, también lo están las hormigas. La pregunta es ¿en qué estamos ocupados?".

TALENTO - Todos hemos sido bendecidos con varios talentos, ya sea que seamos conscientes de ello o no, o si hemos desarrollado nuestros talentos o no. Idealmente, Podemos y debemos desarrollar algunos de ellos y usarlos sabiamente para bendecir. y mejorar las comunidades católicas a las que pertenecemos. Pasea por nuestro sitio web (cuadro desplegable MENÚ) para conocer formas en las que puede compartir su tiempo y talento con tu familia de la iglesia.

TESORO - hay más de 2300 versículos en la Biblia sobre el dinero y las posesiones. y el uso correcto de los mismos. ¿Por qué es esto? Tal vez porque Dios sabe nuestra propensión a hacer un mal uso del dinero o permitir que nos distraiga de mantener nuestro ojos sobre él.

FORMA DEL TIEMPO Y TALENTO ☐ SAN PATRICIO ☐ SANTA ANA

La mayordomía es un concepto Bíblico que nos invita a basar nuestra vivencia y amor como Católicos en la Hospitalidad, Oración, Formación, y el Servicio. Siendo buenos administradores de los dones, Dios nos llama a ser agradecidos y generosos, regresándole a Dios un porcentaje de nuestro Tiempo, Talento & Tesoro. En este momento cada año, comprometemos nuestro tiempo y talento para el bien de la Parroquia. Se les invita a todos los feligreses a compartir su tiempo. Esta FORMA DE REGISTRACIÓN DE TIEMPO Y TALENTO ofrece una variedad de programas y actividades en los que puede donar sus regalos de Tiempo & Talento, haciendo de San Patricio y Sta. A Note of Thanks from Fr. Pete Jankowski Una Nota de Gracias de P. Pedro Jankowski

Over the last few weeks in these bulletins, we have discussed the importance of Time, Talent & Treasure. Time references how much each of us wish to spend with God; if we truly wish to spend the rest of our existence in heaven with God, we need to invest time in that relationship now! Each of us possess unique talents in our community that we are called to share with each other as the "Body of Christ." Treasure focuses on that 10% of our earnings that we are supposed to give back to the Church (starting with Genesis 14: 18-20 and Hebrews 7: 1-10). Concerning treasure, we are called to donate 5% of our earnings to our Church and another 5% to the needs of our local community and beyond.

I also have stated to you that the best fundraiser our Lord has taught us is the one of LOVE and DO UNTO OTHERS. Because we have gone this way, debts have been eradicated, buildings and campuses have been renovated and I cannot stress enough how we upgraded THREE parking lots on our campuses this last year.

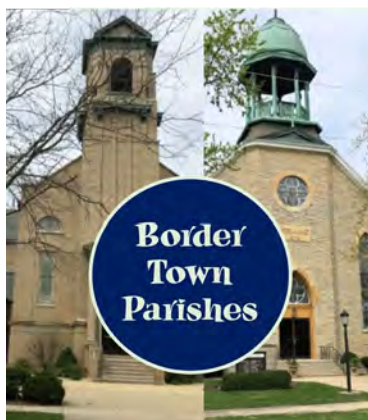

As so many better ministers have asked in the past, this sinful one asks of you today: how much do we love God & Community and what are we willing to do to express that love? For those who have answered those questions through Time, Talent and Treasure, we are most grateful. For each of us, we need to ask what part we are doing for God and the community to show how much we care. God bless all of you for your service to the Churches under our care!

En las últimas semanas, en estos boletines, hemos hablado sobre la importancia del Tiempo, el Talento y los Recursos. El Tiempo se refiere a cuánto deseamos dedicarle a Dios; si de verdad queremos pasar el resto de nuestra vida en el cielo con Él, ¡debemos invertir tiempo en esa relación ahora! Cada uno de nosotros posee talentos únicos en nuestra comunidad que estamos llamados a compartir como el "Cuerpo de Cristo". Los Recursos se centran en ese 10% de nuestras ganancias que debemos devolver a la Iglesia (según Génesis 14:18-20 y Hebreos 7:1-10). En cuanto a los Recursos, estamos llamados a donar el 5% de nuestras ganancias a nuestra Iglesia y otro 5% a las necesidades de nuestra comunidad local y más allá.

También les he dicho que la mejor manera de recaudar fondos que nuestro Señor nos ha enseñado es amar y tratar a los demás como quisiéramos ser tratados. Gracias a este camino, se han erradicado las deudas, se han renovado edificios y campus, y quiero recalcar que el año pasado mejoramos TRES estacionamientos en nuestros campus.

Como tantos ministros más sabios han preguntado en el pasado, este humilde ministro les pregunta hoy: ¿Cuánto amamos a Dios y a la comunidad, y qué estamos dispuestos a hacer para expresar ese amor? A quienes han respondido a estas preguntas con su tiempo, talento y recursos, les estamos profundamente agradecidos. Cada uno de nosotros debe preguntarse qué papel desempeña para Dios y la comunidad para demostrar cuánto nos importan. ¡Que Dios los bendiga a todos por su servicio a las iglesias a nuestro cargo!

DAR BIEN FRUTO

Las Lecturas de Hoy ponen su atención en las vinas. El cantico de Isaías respecto a la viña de su amada comienza con inspiradoras y poéticas imágenes de una idílica viña de la cual se espera la más exquisita cosecha. En cambio, la viña da uvas agrias, lo cual hace que el dueño la abandone. El salmista clama a Dios, pidiéndole que la visite otra vez, ya que es la casa de Israel. La parábola que cuenta hoy el Evangelio ofrece la seria advertencia de que a los que cometen traición esperando obtener ganancia personal se les “dará muerte terrible” (Mateo 21: 41). Jesús advierte a sus oyentes que no actúen como los viñadores asesinos en la viña. Más bien los exhorta a que produzcan el tipo de fruto que los llevara al Reino de Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

La Virgen Maria tiene siglos de estar apareciéndose a los cristianos. Aun antes de que fuese asunta al cielo, ella ya se Lc había aparecido al apóstol Santiago en Zaragoza, España. Según una antigua leyenda, Santiago llegó a tierra española en el año 40 para predicar el Evangelio. Tuvo poco éxito y desanimado pensaba sacudirse de los pies el polvo de aquella tierra y buscar convertir otras gentes. Mientras estaba en oración, Maria, la madre de Jesús, se Lc apareció con palabras de consuelo, ánimo y un pequeño obsequio. Lc dio una imagen de ella misma sobre un pilar y con el Niño Jesús en brazos. En esa tierra ella pidió la construcción de un templo donde ella misma sería altar para la gloria de Dios.

En el siglo XVIII, el Papa Clemente XII declaró el 12 de octubre como su fiesta en memoria de la llegada de los europeos al continente americano. De Maria vienen los principios del Día de la Raza. - Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gluz, OFM, Copyright © J S Paluch Co., Inc
