NEWS & NOTES

FROM FR. PETE JANKOWSKI

Join Fr. Pete's mailing list at pjankowski@yahoo.com.

One of my former secretaries in Joliet listened to a voice message that was left on the St. Anne answering machine earlier this month and wrote down the following...

OK, Fr. Pete, pick me up time. The message is from a woman named Serena, who is praising your Online Masses. She is homebound and there is cancer involved. She's possibly Hispanic and she is saying thank you. She would like you to send her a St. Anne calendar. She gave you her address in Jourdan, TX.

She would like a calendar and I think she said she would send you money in the mail. The priest by her has cancer and is not active. She is asking you to pray for her brother who is very sick. She also says she is walking again.

I really find this so very, very sweet. This is what we are all about today. You know, it is always good to just tell people you appreciate and you thank them for what they are doing. She appears to have a pretty rough road. You have brought her comfort.

God love our Online Masses...

Meanwhile next weekend, we will be honoring those whose funerals we have celebrated at our parishes since last November 2. The list is not big; it is a shame that our faithful do not remember is that a liturgy celebrated for their loved one's sake allows the communion of saints and the faithful in our parishes to pray for these beloved deceased and guide them in the direction of heaven with our prayers. Our secular world has conditioned the next generation to believe that the Mass is not necessary, even though God instituted the funeral liturgy to offer grace for those most in need of mercy. For the sake of our beloved departed, we will remember those who have died this last year as well as those listed in our respective "Books of the Dead," posted inside both church buildings.

The Online Mass we celebrate for November 1 lovingly remembers both TOM DANDURAND (deceased) and RON GALL (at the time of this writing in hospice care). The love afforded by both families serve as a couple of so many examples of care by those of the faith who put God first and place the lives of their patriarchs in God's hands through us as well. The Thanksgiving Online Mass focuses on MARILYN PETERSON, a pillar within the St. Patrick's Community whose example of faith serves as a wonderful model for those of us who continue to carry on. Marilyn's funeral took place on October 15 at St. Patrick's.

Finally, I would like to give thanks to Freddy Franco and his clan for organizing a "Martha Ministry for both parishes. This group will be cleaning on a monthly basis both rectories, both parish halls and St. Anne's Church (St. Patrick's Church already has a group of "Church Marthas" who already volunteer their wonderful service to our parish. As we have been discussing, we need to get the next generation of parishioners involved with the social, service and prayer life of the Border Town Parishes. Freddy has been kind enough to offer his choir services without charge at both parishes for the numerous quinceañera and wedding liturgies we celebrate. In addition to the good work that Ana Rivas and the Camino y Esperanza Choir offer at both parishes, our parishioners and volunteers of our communities serve as a wonderful model of faith that all of us should follow. God bless all of you! – Fr. Pete.

Like the Rings of a Tree

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

For some, going to confession can bring a sense of relief—as if the slate has now been wiped clean; as if we have gotten a do-over with life or the past has been left behind as though it never happened. Our past, however, is always with us—the good and the bad, the joys and the sadness, the grace and the sin. There are no do-overs. We carry with us the marks of our lives simply because every experience, every kindness and cruelty, every moment of generosity and selfishness, all have made us into who are. We are much like a tree that adds a ring to its trunk each year. The ring always bears the marks of that year, whether it has been a year of rain or drought, whether insects have attacked, or whether Mother Nature has been kind. The tree always remembers and carries with it forever the rings of what life has been.

Our lives are the same. The story of the Pharisee and the tax collector tells this tale. Like the Pharisee, we have much good in our lives. We too have prayed and have been generous. We have been kind and honest and cared for the poor. We have tried to be faithful. The Pharisee's downfall was that he forgot about his sinfulness; he forgot he needed God's mercy. The tax collector, on the other hand, remembered his failings. Both were in need of God's love. Only the tax collector seemed to realize it. ●

Reflect

How has my life been a mixture of sin and grace?

[Jesus said,] “Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

LUKE 18:14

Dear Padre,

Is it wrong for children to dress up as zombies and devils and other evil creatures for Halloween?

No. It is perfectly acceptable to choose these kinds of costumes and to participate in the festivities of Halloween. Halloween is primarily a secular celebration. Although it is true that the original celebration is deeply rooted in the Christian tradition, that tradition is more properly celebrated during the great feast days of the Church that follow Halloween: All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day.

Mythological representations, and the costumes that remind us of these kind of characters, are to be understood with a sense of fun and mischief. There is no difference between a ghost, a goblin, a zombie, Captain America, Superman, or one of the Mario Brothers. They are all fictional characters in the very human stories we share with each other. The meaning we assign to them must be proportional to what they represent. On Halloween, they represent nothing more than a person in costume. It could be an entirely different story under different circumstances in which there might be the possibility of a misunderstanding about the meaning of such a costume. Halloween pretty much blurs that distinction and takes away the misunderstanding. It is meant to be entertaining and fun. That is all. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

My own story is that of a citizen, the descendant of immigrants, who in turn chose to emigrate. All of us, in the course of our lives, can find ourselves healthy or sick, employed or unemployed, living in our native land or in a foreign country, yet our dignity always remains unchanged: it is the dignity of a creature willed and loved by God.

A Prayer for the Month of the Holy Souls

Cameron Bellm

JESUITS

In these days when we look back
Upon generations of the mercy of God,
Brilliantly lit in those who came before us,
I like to think, too,
Of the mercy that will stretch beyond us.
We have laid so many to rest this year
That our grief is ever present with us,
But so, likewise, are our loved ones—
The paths they walked, the prayers they prayed for us.
May we realize, too, that someday
We also will live on earth only in memory,
Carried in the hearts of those who loved us.
In remembering our death, may we move through each day
With tenderness, with gentleness,
With love strong enough to stretch that thin veil
Between heaven and earth into transparency.
May we light the candles that will brighten the lives
Of those who will come after us.
And may we always recognize this truth:
That the goodness of God
Is matched only by its might,
Ever transcending both life and death.
Amen.

Please Bring Gifts to Church by November 9, 2025

NO HACER COMPARACIONES

¿Cuántas veces hemos leído o escuchado acerca de alguien que se metió en problemas, incluso despedido de su empleo, por un roce con la ley? Mientras nuestras mentes "cristianas" nos dicen que nos apiademos de esa persona y que roguemos por ella, puede que una voccecita interior también este diciendo: "Me alegro de que yo nunca haría algo así." Y tal vez no lo haríamos. Pero, ¿hay algunas cosas que hacemos que no agradan a Dios? Las lecturas de hoy nos advierten no mirar tan atentamente a las maldades de otros que pasamos por alto nuestras propias debilidades y defectos. Cuando nos comparamos con las peores personas a nuestro alrededor, salimos bastante bien. Sin embargo, hay un peligro en usar la conducta ajena como medida para reflejar nuestras propias virtudes. TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1823 se fundó el pueblo de San Rafael de las Quebradillas en Puerto Rico. Este pueblo fue dedicado al santo patrón de los pescadores. Rafael, también es el ángel patrono de la salud. Aunque hoy Día SU fiesta esta combinada con los otros arcángeles el 29 de septiembre, en el viejo calendario este santo fue conmemorado el 24 de octubre. Rafael (Dios salva) se encuentra en el libro de Tobías y según el autor bíblico, este es el ángel de la guarda de Tobías. El mismo Rafael se presenta como uno de los siete ángeles o arcángeles que llevan las oraciones de los justos al trono de Dios y que gozan de la presencia gloriosa del Santísimo (Tobías 12: 15). Mi padre siempre dice que hay que pedir una cosa a Dios, la salud. Si tenemos la salud nada nos falta. Es interesante que en latín, salud y salvación son la misma palabra, salus. El santo patrón de la salud, Rafael nos recuerda que Dios es el Único que nos puede salvar, dándonos salud de cuerpo, alma y espíritu. - Fray Gilberto Cavazos-

Nos gustaría agradecer a FREDDY FRANCO y a su clan por organizar un "Ministerio Martha" para ambas parroquias. Este grupo limpiará mensualmente ambas rectorías, ambos salones parroquiales y la Iglesia de Santa Ana (la Iglesia de San Patricio ya cuenta con un grupo de "Martas de la Iglesia" que ya ofrecen su maravilloso servicio voluntario a nuestra parroquia). Como hemos estado discutiendo, necesitamos involucrar a la próxima generación de feligreses con la vida social, de servicio y de oración de las Parroquias de Border Town. Freddy ha tenido la amabilidad de ofrecer sus servicios de coro sin costo en ambas parroquias para las numerosas liturgias de quinceañeras y bodas que celebramos. Además del buen trabajo que Ana Rivas y el Coro Camino y Esperanza ofrecen en ambas parroquias, nuestros feligreses y voluntarios de nuestras comunidades sirven como un maravilloso modelo de fe que todos debemos seguir. ¡Dios los bendiga a todos!
