BIBLE EXAM FOR KIDS!

From a Web Posting. Please write me at pjankowski@yahoo.com with your entries.

If you know the Bible - even a little - you'll find this hilarious! It Comes from a Catholic elementary school.

Kids were asked questions about the Old and New Testaments. The following statements about the Bible were written by children. They have not been corrected (incorrect spelling is theirs).

1. In the first book of the bible, Guinnessis, God got tired of creating the world, so he took the Sabbath off.
2. dam and Eve were created from an apple tree. Noah built an ark which the animals come on to in pears.
3. Noah's wife was called Joan of Ark.
4. Lot's wife was a pillar of salt by day, but a ball of fire by night.
5. The Jews were a proud people and throughout history they had trouble with the unsympathetic Genitals.
6. Samson was a strongman who let himself be led astray by a Jezebel like Delilah.
7. Samson slayed the philistines with the axe of the Apostles.
8. Moses led the Hebrews to the Red Sea, where they made unleavened bread, which is bread without any ingredients.
9. The Egyptians were all drowned in the dessert. Afterwards, Moses went up to Mount Cyanide to get the ten amendments.
10. The first commandment was when Eve told Adam to eat the apple.
11. The seventh commandment is thou shalt not admit adultery.
12. Moses died before he ever reached Canada. Then Joshua led the Hebrews in the battle of Geritol.
13. The greatest miracle in the Bible is when Joshua told his son to stand still and he obeyed him.
14. David was a Hebrew king skilled at playing the liar. He fought with the Finklesteins, a race of people who lived in Biblical times.
15. Solomon, one of David's sons, had three hundred wives and seven hundred porcupines.
16. When Mary heard that she was the mother of Jesus, she sang the Magna Carta.
17. When the three wise guys from the east side arrived, they found Jesus in the manager.
18. Jesus was born because Mary had an immaculate contraption.
19. St. John the blacksmith dumped water on his head.
20. Christians have only one spouse. This is called monotony.

In order to maintain parish longevity, it is essential that we continue to pay our bills and maintain what we have. Towards that end, we are in the process of changing locks and installing security cameras on our respective properties, according to the instruction of our diocesan insurance office. We also need to make sure we keep resources aside as a type of "rainy day fund," in case of emergencies.

We would like to thank those who understand and offer their time, talent and financial support towards these causes. We are blessed that many within our communities and outside of them have been as generous as they have. God bless our benefactors... and all of you!!!

Dismantled and Reassembled

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

It is the time of year when seasons turn and the rhythm of life changes as days become dismantled and reassembled in new and varied ways. All of this is not unlike the much deeper process continually at play within our hearts. Indeed, the seasons of our individual lives can be dismantled and reassembled—and often more than once in a lifetime. That white-robed prophet of doom who proclaims that the end is near is right. Our lives do collapse in such cosmic ways that not one stone is left upon another. The end may come with a life-robbing illness or the premature death of someone we love. It may take the shape of an unwanted move to a new city or a life collapsed by addiction. It may happen slowly, as life forces us to surrender passion or enthusiasm or the dreams of our youth, like colors faded by sunlight yet never noticed until suddenly we realize the color has all but disappeared. Such transitions can feel as violent as the end of our lives in this world. Indeed, at such times, we may feel that a part of us has died. Yet, if we pay attention, we may discover that we have been refashioned, recreated into something new. It is the story of the divine phoenix rising from the ashes, lived by every human being and understood by every person who lives with faith in the resurrection. ●

Reflect

Have I known the experience of life being dismantled and reassembled into something new?

[Jesus said,] “All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.”

LUKE 21:6

Dear Padre,

Is it a sin to swear if I'm not taking the Lord's name in vain?

As hard as it might be to comprehend, not every bad habit is a sin. Human weakness is sometimes nothing more than human weakness. An exclamation of anger or frustration is often nothing more than an expression of how you feel. When we assign "sin" to every human action or imperfection, we trivialize sin. When we see sin around every corner and in every possible human interaction, we might very well become numb to the presence of real sin when it occurs. The possibility of sin is a wonderful motivator to help us adjust our choices and change our behaviors, but it need not be the only option.

Monitor your speech because you want to be a good person, a mature person, a caring person. That is a virtuous reason and worth the effort. At the same time, remain vigilant, as any good person who desires to be in relationship with the Lord, and choose behaviors that model a good Christian life. Examine your choices and decisions, and when you recognize the presence of sin, be willing to acknowledge that it is sinful, confess it, and then graciously accept the forgiveness and mercy of the Lord. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Relations between the Catholic Church and Muslims have been marked by a growing commitment to dialogue and fraternity, fostered by esteem for these our brothers and sisters....
