1. Are there activities (like hiking or gardening) or experiences (like a beautiful sunset or view) that help you to connect you with God's creation?
2. The Catechism of the Catholic Church in paragraph 293 teaches that "God has no other reason for creating than his love and goodness." What does this teach us about our relationship with God?
3. The story of creation shows that life comes from love, not violence. How might this help someone who feels like the world is chaotic or without meaning?
4. What does it mean to be made in the image and likeness of God? How does this affect the way we see ourselves and one another?
