

Integration,
resilience and
relatedness for offenders and
those at risk are crucial
in encouraging
desistance from violence and radicalisation.

OUR PROJECT

AIM

Development, piloting and transfer of an innovative model for the capacity building of criminal justice professionals and volunteers (e.g. prison officers, probation staff, police and community based practitioners) working with offenders, ex-offenders or individuals who are at risk of being groomed into violent radicalisation and/ or group offending.

OUTPUTS

- A face-to-face CPD accredited training course for professionals/ volunteers to develop new skills and knowledge in adults allowing them to better support their beneficiaries in fostering resilience using dialogue and the values and practices of restorative justice
- Design of the programme as CPD accredited e-course and its translation into all participating languages
- Ebook with comparative studies

TARGET GROUPS

- Adult learners working directly with offenders, ex-offenders and those at risk of violent radicalisation/ group violence
- Local, regional or national level authorities working in the areas of restorative justice
- Migrants communities
