

The project aims to support addressing diversity and acceptance of differences using the restorative justice values of respect and power sharing and the innovative social action music programme "El Sistema" to develop capacity building tools and knowledge. These will support teachers and other educators in enhancing their pupils' resilience and acceptance regarding diversity and community cohesion.

Partners:
 RJ4All - UK
 Abbey College - UK
 CSI - Cyprus
 Asociación Caminos - Spain
 Manisa Okulu - Turkey
 Colegiul "Carmen Sylva" - Romania
 Afridat - Germany

Restoring respect through music education

Intellectual Outputs:

IO1 - RRME Face-to-face Training Programme & Piloting:

A training programme for professionals working in formal and informal education on how to support pupils and young people to become Young Music Mentors focusing on addressing social marginalisation.

IO2 - RRME E-course & Piloting:

An accredited e-course for professionals based on the previously developed materials and to enable learners to access the full range of digital training materials.

IO3 - RRME E-book:

An e-book featuring all research, pilots and learning of the project. There will be a short and a longer version available in English and all the partner languages.

If you are a teacher, trainer or other educator and would like to know more or contribute to the project, please contact us and we will gladly give you more information about RRME, its outputs and how you can participate in the project!

Contact information:
office@asoccaminos.org

