The Clinic welcomes Davis as new family practice provider

ADA – The Clinic is pleased to announce the addition of Emily Davis as its newest family practice provider. Davis is joining the medical staff at the Konawa location.

“I feel so grateful and blessed to have this opportunity to serve patients in and around Konawa,” Davis said. “The overall feeling of community has been present since my first day in town. I’m looking forward to establishing many long-term relationships with my patients and colleagues at The Clinic.”

Davis, MSN, APRN-CNP, FNP-C, holds a master’s degree in Nursing from Midwestern State University and is a certified family nurse practitioner. She earned her bachelor’s degree in Nursing from the University of Oklahoma. From Choctaw, Davis and her husband Tyler have two young sons. She enjoys spending time with her family, traveling, cooking, attending church, hiking, golfing, and attending OU sporting events.

“My goals are to stay current in my field and to provide my patients with evidence-based care,” Davis said. “I want to improve quality of life by offering preventive care options to my patients, as well as serve as an advocate for their interests and wishes.”

Areas in which Davis provides care include diagnosis and management of acute, chronic, and complex health conditions; adult and child wellness exams; preventive health screenings; weight loss counseling and management; immunizations; and many others.
