RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(IS 5:7A)

R. THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD IS THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.
A VINE FROM EGYPT YOU TRANSPLANTED;
YOU DROVE AWAY THE NATIONS AND PLANTED IT.
IT PUT FORTH ITS FOLIAGE TO THE SEA,
ITS SHOOTS AS FAR AS THE RIVER.

R. THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD IS THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.
WHY HAVE YOU BROKEN DOWN ITS WALLS,
SO THAT EVERY PASSER-BY PLUCKS ITS FRUIT,
THE BOAR FROM THE FOREST LAYS IT WASTE,
AND THE BEASTS OF THE FIELD FEED UPON IT?

R. THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD IS THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.
ONCE AGAIN, O LORD OF HOSTS,
LOOK DOWN FROM HEAVEN, AND SEE;
TAKE CARE OF THIS VINE,
AND PROTECT WHAT YOUR RIGHT HAND HAS PLANTED,
THE SON OF MAN WHOM YOU YOURSELF MADE STRONG.

R. THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD IS THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.
THEN WE WILL NO MORE WITHDRAW FROM YOU;
GIVE US NEW LIFE, AND WE WILL CALL UPON YOUR NAME.
O LORD, GOD OF HOSTS, RESTORE US;
IF YOUR FACE SHINE UPON US, THEN WE SHALL BE SAVED.
R. THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD IS THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.

SACROSANTUM CONCILIUM 5-46

October 4, 2026 | 27th Sunday of Ordinary Time

The mass is unlike any other thing we do as Catholics. Physically we gather as the body of Christ on Earth. Spiritually and mystically, we are taking part in the heavenly liturgy with all the angels and saints of which we are journeying towards (SC 8). Grace itself is the means by which man is sanctified, God is glorified, and all are directed to their eventual end - Heaven (SC 10)

What Holy Mother Church has set before us, we priests must never change or add to (SC 22.3). Rather, the sacred rites that have been passed down must be upheld with reverence, dignity, and honor. We have seen, unfortunately, a plurality of ways priests have carried out the Mass since the council which has caused confusion in what is the "right way" to celebrate the Mass.

In one way of thought, there was not a strict guideline on how the reformation of the Mass was to be carried out which gives a higher sense of options for certain feast days. Another thought sees how this disrupts how each Mass is supposed to invoke those feelings of having earth lifted up to the heavenly sanctuary.

A particular focus for the laypeople is the idea of having a greater and fuller active participation in the Liturgy (SC 14). How does one achieve this? Well, one thing is certain, we priests must teach you (SC 18)! If we have not done so, then how would you know what to do at Mass? It is something you must come ask us at times "Father, what does this part of the mass mean? What am I supposed to do?" At times, we do have moments of catechesis within the Mass or outside.

"To promote active participation, the people should be encouraged to take part by means of acclamations, responses, psalms, antiphons, hymns, as well as by actions, gestures, and bodily attitudes. And at the proper time a reverent silence should be observed" (SC 30). The simple ways we can have a greater participation in the mass is through the prayers, responses, and gestures that we do at Mass.

The way we stand, sit, and kneel have great implications on what we are doing. Whether we are attentive by our standing, listening by sitting, or worshipping or having a humble posture through kneeling. Understanding what does it mean to say the words "I confess to almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters" or other parts of the Mass prepares us to participate greater.

As we are in Ireland, I am reminding of the pilgrims every time we say the Rosary or celebrate the Mass for the intentions that you all submitted to us, we ought to offer up those intentions that we carry. It is so important to offer up our own prayers and sacrifices to the Father in these holy places.

One other cool note was that Vatican II established the practice of concelebration. Priests do not have to say their own mass anymore but can join in with other priests to offer up the Holy Sacrifice together. This came about due to the Council's desire to have the Bishop be a more visible sign of unity within a church so that when he celebrates Mass, all of his priests may join in at one altar, one prayer, as one with the Lord (SC 41).

Lastly, did you know that Vatican II wanted to preserve Latin in the Mass despite allowing the vernacular (common language) (SC 36.1- 2)? For some reason, many people today believe Vatican II had done away with the Latin language which is crazy! Many priests, including myself, are bringing back the use of Latin at times within the liturgy since the council had envisioned preserving the ancient language. Next week, we will read from paragraphs 47-58 (much shorter chapter!)

Fr. Alex

Sanctifying Love ~ In Christian tradition, the pelican was believed to wound its own breast in order to feed its young when they had no food. The Church has long seen this as a symbol of Christ, who pours Himself out so that we may live. Jesus does not simply comfort us from a distance; He gives us His very life. Ladies ~ join us in October to be renewed in Christ's Sanctifying Love.

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote.

We vote because we are citizens. But we vote conscientiously because we are people of faith. Our consciences are formed through studying Scripture and the teachings of the Church, examination of the facts, and prayerful reflection.

This brief insert is intended as a starting point to help us respond to our choices in the current political landscape.

Forming Consciences

While there are many moral issues before us, every issue is not equal.

- ★ Issues that directly affect human lives—such as abortion and euthanasia—are fundamental and demand serious consideration.
- ★ Our Constitution heralds religious liberty in the First Amendment, yet increasingly people of faith are having to fight to retain this basic right.
- ★ There is a move in the nation to redefine marriage. The marriage of a man and a woman is the foundation of the family and an essential core element of a flourishing society.
- ★ The growing disparity between rich and poor means most of the world's resources are in the hands of a small percentage of its people. The federal budget is a moral document and must prioritize the poorest and most vulnerable among us.
- ★ The millions of undocumented persons living in the United States deserve our compassion. There is an immigration problem, and we need a humane solution to it.
- ★ War, terror, and violence have caused thousands of lost lives. We must work for just solutions to conflict in the Holy Land, throughout the Middle East, and beyond.

As Catholic citizens, we should remember three things:

- 1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
- 2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?
- 3. We have a responsibility—a true obligation—to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

Here are some ways to do that.

- ★ Be true to the teachings of the Church. Read Scripture, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, teachings from the Holy See, and the statements of our bishops. Read Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship at faithfulcitizenship.org. We need to be sure that our reasoning and judgments are well-grounded in our faith.
- ★ Stay well-informed about issues through judicious and reasoned engagement with the immense world of information in the twenty-first century. Just as all issues are not equal, all sources are not equal. For example, an individual's blog—while potentially very insightful—may not have the same fidelity to factual truth as our media sources that hold themselves to professional standards of journalistic ethics, imperfect though they are.
- ★ Remain in contact with our representatives in local, state, and federal government. Our responsibility to form our consciences leads to an obligation to be active citizens. We communicate regularly with our leaders—not only during election seasons.
- ★ Engage in reasoned, compassionate, and loving dialogue with others—Catholics and non-Catholics alike—about the issues and choices that we are facing as a nation. Remember that we are called first to witness the Gospel, and through that witness, to share our social teaching, to highlight the moral dimensions of issues, and to participate in debate on public policy.
- ★ The dual calling of faith and citizenship lies at the heart of what it means to be a Catholic in the United States. We stand on the shoulders of many Catholics who have gone before us, who have helped the United States of America become a better country because of their faith in a loving God.

We care.
Therefore, we vote.
