and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

All: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever.

Sign of Peace

Reception of Holy Communion

For our fellow Christians
We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (John 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not fully united are not admitted to Holy Communion.Catholics are reminded that we are encouraged to receive communion devoutly and frequently. It is essential, however, to be free of serious sin.

For those not receiving Holy Communion
All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

Communion Hymns
I Have Finished the Race (Canter)
It Is Well with My Soul (Canter)
Quietly, Peacefully #713 in the Gather Hymnal

LIGHTING OF CANDLES AND READING OF NAMES

Please follow the directions given as we remember our departed loved ones in a special way. Together we pray for their eternal peace in God's Kingdom and reach out to each other with comfort and compassion.

Following the reading of the names, the choir will lead us in a Song of Farewell. Please join in the refrain:

"Come home, come home, for the love is waiting there.
In the stillness, we will hear God's voice.
Come home, come home."
