Embrace God This Year

"The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will endure forever." -Isaiah 40:8

... they shall name him Emmanuel," which means, "God is with us." (Matthew 1:23)

On Christmas Eve, the meditation focused on the symbolism of the Christ Candle. It is the candle of representing God's love for us. The deep meaning of the birth of Christ is contained in the name, Emmanuel (God is with us). It is a celebration of presence, of sharing our lives with God and one another. The Christmas season that actually concludes on January 6th (Epiphany) is all about getting together with family and friends.

In an essay titled, Why Jesus Loved Friendship, Peter Wehner goes to the heart of the Christmas Story and the title for Jesus, the Emmanuel (God is with us). Over the centuries, the church has described this reality in theological terms, such as the Incarnation. Our creeds have affirmed the Great Mystery of the Incarnation as Jesus being fully human, fully divine. Wehner takes this mystery to the relationship side of Jesus.

The Gospel According to John makes it clear that Jesus does not consider his disciples to be in a servant/master relationship with him, but rather as his friends.

³⁴I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (John 13:34, 35)

¹⁵I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. (John 15:15)

Friendship is based on a mutuality of love. On sharing life's joys and sorrows. Jesus leads all of us (his present-day disciples) into this rich experience of friendship.

Nurturing relationships require attention and time. I am heartened by the growing realization among people of the danger that our digital lives present in interfering with quality relationships. Putting down our phones and making eye contact with the people in the room with us is so incredibly important.

Peter Wehner closed his essay with this inspiring vision of relationships, and what they have meant to him.

... men and women whose lives have been touched and transformed by grace and love of God. I know such people. These people have shared in the joys of my life and helped sustain me through times of grief and loss. They have loved me, as Jesus loved them. They are friends of Jesus; they are also friends of mine. And that has made all the difference.

As I think of these connections, the hymn, Blest Be The Tie That Binds comes to mind. Two of its verses describe beautifully the love and friendship Jesus showed his disciples and has encouraged all of us to share with one another.

*Blest be the tie that binds
our hearts in Christian love;
the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.*

*We share each other's woes,
our mutual burdens bear;
and often for each other flows
the sympathizing tear. Amen!*

New Year's is a time when we make "resolutions" to complete plans and get things done. Few people complete plans ahead of time for choosing the final resting place for themselves and their loved ones. This may be the time for your family to make a plan. It is especially important if a loved one has passed away and a permanent place of rest has not been determined. Pre- planning can ease the burden for loved ones and guarantee the opportunity to choose your final resting place. Also, there are times when someone dies without a plan. Vance and the Columbarium Committee are always available to begin these difficult but important conversations and to help you make a plan. ~ Ida Havelka

Information is also available on the church website at www.oursunrise.org under Resources, at the church office, or by contacting Ida Havelka, Columbarium Committee Chair, at ihavelka@comcast.net, 843-412-1884.

Wishing you and your loved ones the very best for the new year.

Sunrise International Missions in 2026

The Anglican Diocese of Ayod in South Sudan and Bishop Thomas Tut are working to make a difference for the Gospel through the funding of much needed teachers. $100 covers the cost of a teacher's salary for one month. Sunrise has answered the call and will be donating $100 each month, which will cover the salary of one teacher.

Sunrise received this letter from Bishop Thomas Tut in response to our donation committment:

Our hearts are full of gratitude and praises to God for your extraordinary generosity. Your commitment and assurance to support a teacher is a profound blessing and a significant milestone in our campaign to furthering the spread of the Gospel through education.

With this gift, we will be able to sponsor a full time regular teacher who will be providing children not only with quality academic education but also with solid, Christ-centred instructions. This school will be a place where young minds will be discipled, leaders will be raised, and the light of the Gospel will shine brightly now and for generations to come.

Thank you so much and may God richly reward your faithfulness!
