

This past Saturday we held our first student event since Covid shut everything down this past year. It was a great opportunity to be back with students although we missed having a team from one of our supporting churches to join us. We were able to invite several of our church members to join us in helping put on this one day camp for the Sports University.

One of the students we met was named Daniel (pictured below, far left). Daniel really connected with our former intern Joel from the UK (who by the way is getting married to our other former intern Julie this next month - YEAH). During the camp, I had the chance to talk to Daniel a little about his life and learned he recently joined one of the large religious pilgrimages that I have both written about here and also shown you by video before. He told us the reason he did this is because he had asked the goddess that is worshipped by many here for a particular blessing and she granted this to him so he wanted to thank her by walking in the pilgrimage for several days and nights.

It's hard to believe that still today there are people who follow false gods and worship idols but it is happening all around us here in Taiwan.

Daniel got to hear a little bit of the Gospel on Saturday and we also gave him a Bible and invited him to church. He came! We were really surprised and delighted that he came on his own to join us for worship on Sunday at TIF.

Please pray that God will work to draw Daniel to Jesus and help us to show him the love of Christ in the Gospel.

One of our relatively new Christians has been attending our men's discipleship group faithfully and God has really been helping him to grow in knowledge, faithfulness and wisdom. We've been studying what it means to live a Gospel centered life. A couple of weeks ago he asked if there was some sort of "app" that would help him keep track of all his sins so he could do a better job of keeping track of what he needed to repent of in his life.

It was a serious question and after we talked about why we don't need an app, it got us all to thinking and thanking God for his forgiveness towards us. Psalm 130:3 says, If you, Lord, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand?

Take a moment to thank God for his forgiveness in your life. This is the good news we have to offer to anyone who is far from God.

Please continue to pray for us as we faithfully share the Gospel here in Taiwan. There are so many that we encounter each week who need Christ.

We are approaching the end of the year and will be sending out our annual support letter soon. If you would like to receive this letter and have not in previous years, please let us know and send us your address. (If you recently updated your address, you should receive one).
