

In Loving Memory

Daniel Thompson

January 4, 1970 - March 6, 2020

In Loving Memory

Daniel Thompson

January 4, 1970 - March 6, 2020

Obituary

Daniel "Dan" Thompson, a beloved husband, father, and friend, passed away on March 6, 2020, at the age of 50. Born on January 4, 1970, in Seattle, Washington, Dan's life was marked by dedication to his family, passion for his work, and a deep love for the outdoors.

Growing up in a close-knit family, Dan developed a love for adventure early on, exploring the forests and mountains of the Pacific Northwest. This passion led him to earn a degree in Environmental Science from the University of Washington. Dan's professional journey began at an environmental consulting firm, where he quickly became a respected leader in sustainability, known for his innovative solutions.

Outside of work, Dan was a devoted family man. He met his wife, Karen, in college, and they built a life filled with love and adventure. Dan was a proud father to two children, Emily and Jake, and he instilled in them a love for nature and a sense of curiosity. He treasured every moment spent with his family, whether camping, fishing, or simply enjoying their backyard.

Dan was also an active community member, volunteering with local environmental organizations and coaching youth sports. His kindness, integrity, and infectious enthusiasm left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him. Dan Thompson's legacy is one of love, dedication, and adventure. His memory will live on in the hearts of his family and all who were fortunate enough to know him.

(Obituary about 330 words long)

Funeral Service

March 12, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.
Featheringill Mortuary
6322 El Cajon Blvd, San Diego, Ca 92115

Arrangements by
Featheringill Mortuary

Obituary

Daniel "Dan" Thompson, a beloved husband, father, and friend, passed away on March 6, 2020, at the age of 50. Born on January 4, 1970, in Seattle, Washington, Dan's life was marked by dedication to his family, passion for his work, and a deep love for the outdoors.

Growing up in a close-knit family, Dan developed a love for adventure early on, exploring the forests and mountains of the Pacific Northwest. This passion led him to earn a degree in Environmental Science from the University of Washington. Dan's professional journey began at an environmental consulting firm, where he quickly became a respected leader in sustainability, known for his innovative solutions.

Outside of work, Dan was a devoted family man. He met his wife, Karen, in college, and they built a life filled with love and adventure. Dan was a proud father to two children, Emily and Jake, and he instilled in them a love for nature and a sense of curiosity. He treasured every moment spent with his family, whether camping, fishing, or simply enjoying their backyard.

Dan was also an active community member, volunteering with local environmental organizations and coaching youth sports. His kindness, integrity, and infectious enthusiasm left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him. Dan Thompson's legacy is one of love, dedication, and adventure. His memory will live on in the hearts of his family and all who were fortunate enough to know him.

(Obituary about 330 words long)

Funeral Service

March 12, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.
Featheringill Mortuary
6322 El Cajon Blvd, San Diego, Ca 92115

Arrangements by
Featheringill Mortuary