CLERGY CORNER

By Deacon Steve Pemper

"Forgiveness"

Forgiveness is at the heart of all Christianity. Jesus makes it a point that as we receive God's forgiveness, we are called to pass on that same mercy to others, who perhaps might have wronged us in some way. In times of difficulty, may we recall and ponder that powerful and transformational moment when Jesus, while nailed to the cross, utters those profound words "Father forgive them". When we forgive others, God somehow uses that and turns our act of mercy into healing graces, not only for us, but for all in need. Each time we pray the "Our Father" we echo our Lord's words on the Cross. "As we forgive those who trespass against us."

We would like to Congratulate Deacon Steve Pemper on 10 years of service as a Deacon. Your service and dedication to our community is a true blessing. Thank you!

Foster Care Information Meeting

On Wednesday, September 16th from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m., Mary Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis will host a Foster Care Information Meeting at Cleveland Pub (14000 W Cleveland Ave, New Berlin).

The night will include a presentation from Children's Wisconsin about foster care in Milwaukee County, and a current foster parent, who is a parishioner at St. Mary's Visitation in Elm Grove, will share about her experience fostering for 9 years.

Whether you are interested in simply learning more, volunteering, or becoming a foster parent yourself, you are welcome to attend.

There are many ways you can become involved:

- Volunteering to support kids and families (babysitting, meals, yard work, transportation, etc.)
- Becoming a mentor for a teen in a group home
- Supporting youth aging out of foster care (through a local organizations called Bridge to Brighter)
- Donating clothing, toys, diapers, etc. for local families (or hosting a donation drive at your church)
- Respite care (caring for kids for just a few days at a time)
- Foster care (and/or public adoption)

With more than 1,800 children in foster care in Milwaukee County, there is a great need for foster families and volunteers to support in many ways. Not everyone can foster, but everyone can do something to help.

Spots are limited for this event, so please RSVP at the QR code below or contact Ashley Argall at aargall@chidlrenswi.org. Free pizza will be provided for those who RSVP by Tuesday, September 15th

Letter from Fr. Gerardo

Exciting News!

What a wonderful opportunity we have before us! We are very grateful for the possibility of once again having a Catholic school on our campus, an opportunity to work together, serve our community, and more effectively fulfill the Lord's command to go out into the world and bring the light of the Gospel to all.

St. Barnabas Parish currently has a pending sale agreement with Notre Dame Catholic School of Milwaukee (NDSM), with an anticipated closing date in mid to late October.

Notre Dame, a sponsored ministry of the School Sisters of Notre Dame, is the same Catholic school organization that purchased the former St. Florian campus some years ago. We look forward with hope to the possibilities this new relationship may bring and to the ways in which our parish and the school can work together in service of our families, our neighborhood, and the mission of the Church.

Please keep this process and all those involved in your prayers as we move forward.

Fr. Gerardo

Carta del Padre Gerardo

¡Excelentes noticias!

¡Qué maravillosa oportunidad se presenta ante nosotros! Estamos muy agradecidos por la posibilidad de volver a tener una escuela católica en nuestro campus, una oportunidad para trabajar juntos, servir a nuestra comunidad y cumplir de manera aún más efectiva el mandato del Señor de salir al mundo y llevar la luz del Evangelio a todos.

Actualmente, la Parroquia San Bernabé tiene un acuerdo de venta pendiente con Notre Dame Catholic School of Milwaukee, y se prevé que el cierre de la operación tenga lugar entre mediados y fines de octubre.

Notre Dame es la misma institución educativa católica que adquirió el antiguo campus de St. Florian hace algunos años. Miramos con esperanza las posibilidades que esta nueva relación puede ofrecer y las formas en que nuestra parroquia y la escuela podrán trabajar juntas al servicio de nuestras familias, nuestro vecindario y la misión de la Iglesia.

Les pedimos que tengan presente en sus oraciones este proceso y a todas las personas involucradas mientras seguimos avanzando.

P. Gerardo
