

How I Hate to See October Go (10/28/23)

This is the time between post-summer from pre-winter. Johnny Mercer knew the feeling of this time of year as he wrote the lyrics to what became the song "When October Goes." After Johnny died, his widow, Ginger, discovered his melancholy poem and gave it to Barry Manilow to set to music. Share the feeling with John & Jessica, who are spending a weekend by the lake, in the Deluxe Cabin, as October is about to leave us.

Kate McGarry & Keith Ganz - American Tune (Genevieve and Ferdinand)
Wesla Whitfield - The Best Thing for You (The Best Thing for You Would Be Me - The Irving Berlin Songbook)
Blossom Dearie - I Walk a Little Faster (Diva)
Joni Mitchell - Slouching Towards Bethlehem (Travelogue)
Ella Fitzgerald - Mr. Paganini (The Lost Paris Tapes)
Nat King Cole w/George Shearing - Pick Yourself Up (Nat King Cole Sings/George Shearing Plays)
John Pizzarelli - Harvest Moon (Double Exposure)
Leon Redbone - Shine on Harvest Moon (Double Time)
Rosemary Clooney - When October Goes (The Concord Jazz Heritage Series)
Cécile McLorin Salvant & The Jean-Francois Bonnel Paris Quintet - After You've Gone (Cecile)
Dave Grusin - Peter Gunn (Two for the Road)

Zoot Sims - You're My Everything (If I'm Lucky)
Mel Torme - Lonely Town (Mel Torme Swings Shubert Alley)
Mark Murphy - Two Kites (Giants of Jazz: Mark Murphy)
Mark Murphy - Tea in the Sahara (Tea in the Sahara)
Shawn Colvin - This Must Be the Place (Naïve Melody) (Cover Girl)
Chet Baker - With a Song in My Heart (She Was Too Good to Me)
Melody Gardot - Moon River (Sunset in the Blue)
Jacob Collier - The Flintstones Theme (In My Room)
Rebecca Luker - Not You (I Got Love: Songs of Jerome Kern)
Natalie Cole - What a Difference a Day Made (Stardust)
Sam Cooke - Change Is Gonna Come (Ain't That Good News)
Ken Peplowski – If I Were a Bell (Sunrise)